WEATHER
Ohio: Rain tonight and Thursday; colder Thursday night.

MANSFIELD NEWS-JOURNAL

FINAL EDITION

VOL. 54, NO. 255 (News Established 1885) (Journal Established 1930) Consolidated 1932 MANSFIELD, OHIO, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 4, 1939 Exclusive News Reports of the Associated Press, the United Press and International News Service. PRICE THREE CENTS

Simpson, H-G State Museum

WARNS OF GROWING WAR FORCES

Parking Meter Bill Gets First Reading

COUNCIL TAKES STEP TO ADOPT SYSTEM HERE

Installation for 6-Month Trial Basis Provided in Surprise Ordinance.

NEEDS 2 MORE READINGS

Measure Calls for Leasing of Machines, Setting Up of 1-Hour Parking Zones.

The installation of parking meters in downtown Mansfield as a means of parking control came nearer reality today as city council last night held the first reading of an ordinance calling for the installation of the machines

Under parliamentary procedure the bill must receive two more readings before it comes up for passage.

Crum Submits Ordinance.

The ordinance, which came as a surprise to members, was submitted by Councilman-at-large James E. Crum, chairman of council special parking meter committee which has been studying the metered plan of parking for the past two years.

The measure authorizes Service-Safety Director Earl A. Nist to establish parking meter zones with time limitations not to exceed one hour and to provide for the immediate installation of the meters by calling for bids for the leasing of the machines.

Merchants Urge Trial.

Before reading the ordinance, council heard L. A. Ott, chairman of the Retail Merchants association's committee on traffic and parking ask that the meters be given a "six months' trial."

Ott advocated the installation of the meters on a trial basis as a means of providing a solution to the downtown parking problem.

He said that the retail merchants committee along with the Chamber of Commerce committee on traffic safety had studied the parking situation in Mansfield for the past four years and had come to the conclusion that the machines were the only solution to the problem.

"We have requested enforcement of parking for the past three years," Ott told council. "We have not been able to get it. If we had, we wouldn't need the parking meters now."

He said the merchants who have

(Continued on Page 12, Col. 8)

Yeah, Just Like Spring---But It'll Soon Be Chillier

Mansfielders smiled appreciatively at the mild spring-like weather today, and swung along the streets with coats unbuttoned and without winter galoshes.

But the unseasonably warm weather is likely to end tomorrow. Rain and falling temperatures are forecast.

Mansfield, along with other cities of the mid-western region, was enjoying the warmest Jan. 4 temperatures in many years. At noon today the thermometer stood at 52. At Cincinnati it was 66, the warmest Jan. 4 in 42 years. Cleveland reported 55 and Columbus 60. Last year the Jan. 4 temperature was 35.

Tennis, golf and even picnics were encouraged in Missouri by temperatures as high as 71, the Associated Press reported. But a gale was lashing Oregon and Washington, leaving destruction in its wake.

In northern New York motorists drove over ice-covered roads. Air travel at Chicago was paralyzed by heavy mists while the temperature was at 35.

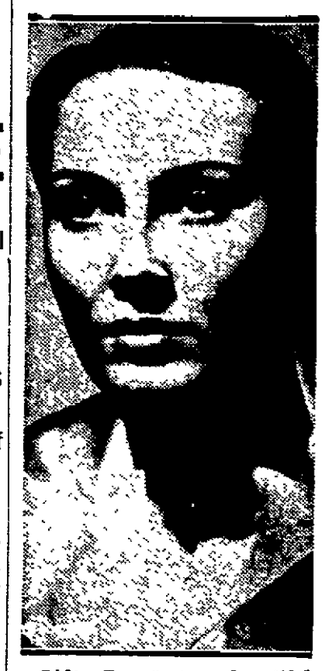
INDICTS YOUTH

Fulton Grand Jury Charged In $25,000 Extortion Case.

WAUSEON — (UP) — Paul Simmons, 20, of Delta, O., was in the county jail under indictment today in connection with the attempted extortion of $25,000 from Fred J. Longnecker, retired Delta manufacturer.

The Fulton county grand jury indicted Simmons on charges of attempting extortion and also on charges of participating in a filling station hold up in 1935 in which two robbers obtained $21.

Actress Hides?



Lida Baarova, beautiful actress-wife of Gustav Froelich, German film player, is said to be in hiding following world-wide reports that friends of Froelich beat German Propaganda Minister Paul Joseph Goebbels because he paid a great deal of attention to Froelich's wife. An official announcement from Germany said Goebbels was confined to bed with grippe.

ASKS FOR MORE RELIEF FUNDS

Council Sends Resolution to Legislators, Says Boost in State Aid Necessary.

Faced with the problem of financing the relief load, city council today had called upon the state to increase its financial aid in caring for indigent families in 1939.

At a meeting last night council adopted a resolution directing Council Clerk William J. Beer, jr., to forward copies of the resolution to State Senator P. H. Rogers and State Representative Ralph C. Lutz.

The resolution points out that the city will be unable to furnish direct relief from its own funds and that additional money from the state will be "absolutely necessary" for relief during the year. It asks that the state render the necessary financial assistance to care for the direct relief load.

The measure states that al-

(Continued on Page 3, Col. 3)

COMBINES JOBS

Bricker Effects $5,000 Saving in Liquor Bureau.

COLUMBUS— (UP) — Governor-elect John W. Bricker moved to effect an annual $5,000 saving under his administration today by appointment of Scott E. Hambleton, 34, Columbus, to the combined position of assistant director of the liquor department and supervisor of stores and agencies, with a salary of $6,000 a year.

Under the administration of Gov. Martin L. Davey the positions have been separate. Norman C. Parr, of New Philadelphia, is assistant director at a $5,000 salary. C. H. Burk, of New London, was paid $6,000 as supervisor of stores until his resignation in November.

Prof. Jacob B. Taylor, Columbus, director-designate of the liquor department, appointed Hambleton after a conference with the governor-elect.

FIGHTS RETURN

Captured Lima Hospital Fugitive Claims He's Sane.

CLEVELAND — (AP) — Russel Nuckels, 25, captured here Monday after his escape with four other inmates of the Lima State hospital, prepared today for a court fight to establish his sanity and avoid return to the hospital.

George J. McGonagle, attorney for Nuckels, filed a motion for an order removing the fugitive from the hospital's jurisdiction, contending Nuckels is sane. An affidavit signed by Nuckels' mother, attesting to his sanity accompanied the motion.

GOLD AT RECORD HIGH

LONDON—(INS)—Setting a record high, the price of gold was set at 150 shillings five pence per ounce today. The dollar touched $4.16¼ to the pound sterling.

AULT'S TRIAL ENDS WITH NO DEFENSE CASE

Highway Director Fails to Go on Stand at Mt. Vernon to Answer Campaign Charge.

SAYS STATE HAS FAILED

Jury of Six Men, Six Women Expected to Start Its Deliberations Today.

The case of State Highway Director Ivan R. Ault, on trial in Mt. Vernon on a charge of illegally soliciting funds for Gov. Martin L. Davey's primary campaign, was to go to the jury this afternoon after the defense rested its case unexpectedly without calling a witness.

The former chief of division No. 3, at Ashland, had been expected to testify in his own defense, but after a conference between Ault, his attorneys and J. Freer Bittinger, the defense announced it had no testimony.

Associated Press dispatches said that Common Pleas Judge P. H. Wieland was to begin his charge this afternoon indicating that the jury of six men and six women would get the case yet today.

Broke Civil Service Law, Claim.

Ault is charged with soliciting funds from state highway workers in violation of the state civil service laws. He was indicted by an Ashland county grand jury several months ago on nine counts for alleged solicitation of contributions to the Davey campaign fund.

Ault, appointed by Davey as state highway director to succeed John J. Jaster who resigned two months ago, was division highway engineer at Ashland at the time the alleged offense occurred.

No Case, Says Defense.

"The defense has not introduced testimony because the state has not made a case," defense attorney F. D. Shell said he termed the case one of "political persecution," and added that "there is no evidence of money solicited or money received."

Prosecuting Attorney A. Ross Siverling, of Ashland county reviewed testimony of highway workers who asserted they had been asked by Ault to contribute 5 per cent of their wages to Davey's campaign fund.

Robert L. Carr, another of Ault's attorneys, said "these campaign contributions have been going on for years and there is no way of stopping them. This case is petty post-election backbiting. The indictment against Mr. Ault was

(Continued on Page 5, Col. 7)

PLAN CARAVAN FOR INAUGURAL

Richland Republicans Expect 250 To Attend Jan. 9 Ceremonies.

Richland county Republicans today were organizing a caravan of buses and automobiles to go to Columbus Monday for the inaugural of Governor-elect John W. Bricker.

Predicting that more than 250 persons from the county would make the trip if the weather is favorable, party leaders said they were prepared to charter three or four buses at special rates if enough persons are interested in going to the capital.

Reservations for bus transportation may be made at party headquarters on North Main street, or with Ralph Hughes, 53 Douglas avenue.

Murphy Sworn Into New Office

After being sworn in as new United States attorney general in the president's study at the White House in Washington, former Gov. Frank Murphy of Michigan shakes hands with the United States chief executive. At 45, Murphy becomes one of the youngest attorney generals the United States has ever had.

Extends Holiday for 400 Pupils In Simpson Annex

Board Delays Re-opening of Classes Until Monday Because of Razing; Other Schools Resumed.

More than 6,000 pupils in Mansfield schools who returned to their classes today after a 13-day vacation probably wished they were attending school in the John Simpson building annex.

Vacation for the 400 pupils who attend classes there was extended until next Monday by the board of education last night because razing operations are still in full swing at the old building and it was not considered safe to permit children in the vicinity of the building.

Lacks Experienced Wreckers.

Classes were to have been resumed tomorrow, but S. H. Tuber, contractor on the razing project, said he had been unable to obtain experienced wreckers to work on the building, resulting in a delay in demolishing the walls.

Workmen were tearing down the upper floors of the old structure today, and it was believed that most of the building would be leveled by next Monday if the weather is favorable. About 12 men are employed on the project.

Approximately one-third of the 1,300 pupils who have been housed in the building will continue to attend classes in the eight-room annex which will be retained as a part of the new building

The remaining pupils returned to their classes this morning in the Warner Brothers building on North Main street, at Senior high school and Hedges Junior high school and in a garage building at 20 Bowman street.

Most of them were placed on half-day schedules to permit the handling of more pupils in limited space, Supt. W. L. Miller said.

OVEN TRIAL ON

First Case in Philadelphia Prison Deaths Opens.

PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — The sufferings of 25 convicts in punishment cells so hot that four prisoners "baked to death" were recalled today for recital to a jury at the first of five murder trials of former officials of the Philadelphia county prison.

Prosecutors arranged to try Frank A. Craven, former deputy warden, before taking up murder and manslaughter charges against former Warden William B. Mills, Guard Capt. James MaGuire and Guards Francis Smith and Alfred Brough. Five guards were indicted only on manslaughter charges.

The 21 oven cell survivors will be star witnesses on a list of more than 50, which includes state troopers and welfare department agents.

TAKES OATH IN BED

LORAIN, O. —(U.P.)— William Ashbolt, Lorain county state representative, took his oath of office from Common Pleas Judge D. A. Cook while confined to a hospital bed with a heart ailment. He was expected to remain in the hospital five weeks.

Japs Stride Toward Fascism In Move to Appoint New Premier

(By International News Service)

TOKYO — Japan took rapid strides toward outright Fascism today following the resignation of Premier Prince Fumimara Konoye and members of his cabinet because of disagreement over policies affecting the Sino-Japanese war.

Emperor Hirohito was expected to appoint as Prince Konoye's successor Baron Kiichiro Hiranuma, president of the privy council and widely known as the "father of Japanese Fascism."

He enjoys the widest support of the Japanese army and military circles generally and is regarded as certain to accept the premiership if it is offered to him. At present, he appears to have no rival for the post, and is said to have chosen already several prospective members of what may prove a militant and reactionary cabinet.

Baron Hiranuma left the winter resort town of Kanazawa yesterday for Tokyo, evidently in anticipation that he would be called upon to lead Nippon in future conduct of the Chinese war.

Resignation of Prince Konoye climaxed a period of rapid, but secret, political activity, which was only partly explained in Konoye's statement of his position.

In this statement, Konoye, who also was represented as relinquishing his post on grounds of ill health, declared:

"The China incident is entering a new phase and the time has come to build a new order in East Asia. To meet this situation, it is necessary to construct a new political shape and form a new cabinet to revive the public mind."

BRICKER BANS 'RIPPER' MOVE AGAINST UCC

System Won't Be Cut Apart But 'Job Grab' Appointees Will Lose Out, He Says.

PROGRAM MUST STAND

Governor-Elect Declares He Will Protect Employes Named Legitimately.

(By International News Service)

COLUMBUS—The Republican legislature will not be allowed to "rip" the unemployment compensation commission apart, but employes who gained jobs through political "manipulation" will lose their positions, Gov.-Elect John W. Bricker declared today.

"I do not intend to have a political dumping ground made of the department," Bricker said, "and persons who got on the department through political manipulation will lose out."

Calls It "Disgrace."

Bricker referred to last Saturday night's final hour confirmation of former Sen. Keith Lawrence of Cleveland as a "disgraceful episode of an outgoing party to hold political jobs with no concern for the social program" of the department.

Lawrence was appointed and confirmed as a member of the commission a few minutes before the senate in the 92nd general assembly automatically passed out of existence.

Governor Davey had sought confirmation of the appointment of Charles Leasure, Zanesville, but 'hatchet men" in the senate balked and precipitated a sit-down of administration supporters that lasted until midnight of the last day's session.

Bricker agreed there should be a remedy for "job grabbing," but said he did not favor so-called ripper legislation which was reported being prepared in the new legislature.

Opposes Ripper Bill.

"No ripper bill should be introduced which would interfere with the social program of the department," Bricker declared, "but neither should appointments be made for political purposes."

The governor-elect, who will be inaugurated as Ohio's 54th chief executive next Monday, Jan. 9, indicated that no wholesale tossing out of civil service employes from the compensation department would be undertaken.

ROGERS NAMED

New State Senator Appointed to Four Committees.

Senator P. H. Rogers, Richland county's new representative in the Ohio senate, has been given four committee appointments, dispatches from Columbus said today.

Rogers, a Republican, succeeds William F. Hurley, Lorain, as the senator from the 27th-29th district. A former representative from Lorain county, his home is in Grafton.

Senator Rogers was named chairman of the senate agriculture committee, chairman of the welfare section of the finance committee, and a member of the committees on public health and public utilities.

The four committees are among the most important in the senate. The agricultural committee chairmanship is an especially influential post.

SPURS SEARCH

Old Type $1 Bills Speeds Hunt for Youngstown Gunmen.

PITTSBURGH — (U.P.) — Detectives today searched the Pittsburgh district for a gang of bandits who last Friday stole $35,000 from the railway express agency in Youngstown, O.

After a taxi driver reported he received seven of the old type of $1 bills which might have been taken in the Youngstown robbery, police rushed to a roadhouse early today in an effort to find four men who paid the driver with the bills.

FERRY AGROUND

Attempts Made to Free Crippled Railroad Car Carrier.

ST. IGNACE, Mich.—(AP)—Attempts were being made today to free the 352-foot railroad car ferry Chief Wawatam, which went aground Tuesday on the north Graham shoals in a snow storm.

The ferry carries a crew of 33 men. It has enough fuel and food for a week. Its route is the seven-mile stretch across the straits of Mackinac and its ordinary running time is 52 minutes.

BLUNT MESSAGE SAYS U. S. MUST BE SET TO FIGHT

President Calls for Stern Resistance To Dictatorship Ideology; Address Appeals to World to Preserve Freedom, Civilized Society.

(By International News Service)

WASHINGTON—Lashing out vigorously at the dictatorships which now dominate the Old World, President Roosevelt told the new 76th congress today that the United States must be prepared to fight if freedom and democracy are to be retained here at home and throughout the western hemisphere.

His annual message to congress on the state of the nation was more than just that—it was a ringing appeal to the world, broadcast internationally in six languages, for the preservation of freedom and the institutions of civilized society, which have been uprooted and endangered all over the globe by the rise of the dictators.

Accompanying this was a stern warning to the congress that it must take steps to see to it that the United States is prepared—both in a military and economic sense—to resist the dictatorship ideology in this country.

"There comes a time in the affairs of men," said Mr. Roosevelt, "when they must prepare to defend not their homes alone but the tenets of faith and humanity on which their churches, their governments and their very civilization are founded. The defense of religion, of democracy and of good faith among nations is all the same fight.

To save one, we must now make up our minds to save all."

In a few days, he said, he would transmit to congress concrete recommendations for strengthening the United States against the forces of aggression that now surround it and the whole western hemisphere.

To protect this hemisphere, its peace and its democratic ideals, he said, we propose to do our share against storms from any quarter," and he added:

From that determination no American flinches."

This by no means implies, he continued, that the Americans stand against the world, or dissociate themselves from other nations. We still stand, he said, on an offer to sit at the council table with other countries and work for peace and diminished armament.

"But the world has grown so small," he said, "and weapons of attack so swift that no nation can be safe in its will for peace so long as any other single powerful nation refuses to settle its grievances at the council table.

"For if any government bristling with implements of war insists upon policies of force, weapons of defense give the only safety.

"A strong and united nation may be destroyed if it is unprepared against sudden attack."

The world and ourselves have learned much in the past few years in international relations, he said. In a military sense, and also in an economic sense, methods of procedure have been revolutionized in the past twenty years—in the speed and timing of attacks which follows "preliminaries of propaganda, subsidized penetration, the stirring of prejudice and incitement to disunion."

In such a changed situation, the president declared, "God-fearing democracies which observe the sanctities of treaties and good faith . . . cannot safely be indifferent to international lawlessness anywhere."

Hints At Sanctions.

There was a distinct hint of economic sanctions against aggressor nations in one portion of Mr. Roosevelt's mesage.

"Words may be futile," he said, "But war is not the only means of commanding a decent respect for the opinions of mankind. There are many methods of war, but stronger and more effective than mere words, of bringing home to aggressor governments the aggregate sentiments of our people."

Under modern conditions, the president said, adequate national defense falls into three categories:

1. Armed forces and defenses strong enough to ward off sudden attack.

2. Organization and strategic location of key economic facilities

(Continued on Page 8, Col. 1)

TEXT: Here's Roosevelt's Congress Message In Entirety

(By United Press)

WASHINGTON—The text of President Roosevelt's annual message to congress on the state of the union follows:

In reporting on the state of the nation, I have felt it necessary on previous occasions to advise the congress of disturbance abroad and of the need of putting our own house in order in the face of storm signals from across the seas. As this 76th congress opens there is need for further warning.

A war which threatened to envelop the world in flames has been averted; but it has become increasingly clear that peace is not assured.

All about us rage undeclared wars—military and economic. All about us grow more deadly armaments—military and economic. All about us are threats of new aggression—military and economic.

Storms from abroad directly challenge three institutions indispensable to Americans, now as always. The first is religion. It is the source of the other two—democracy and international good faith.

Religion, by teaching man his relationship to God, gives the individual a sense of his own dignity and teaches him to respect himself by respecting his neighbors.

Democracy, the practice of self-government, is a covenant among free men to respect the rights and liberties of their fellows.

International good faith, a sister of democracy, springs from the will of civilized nations of men to respect the rights and liberties of other nations of men.

In a modern civilization, all three——religion, democracy and international good faith complement each other.

Where freedom of religion has been attacked, the attack has come from sources opposed to democracy. Where democracy has been overthrown, the spirit of free worship has disappeared. And where religion and democracy have vanished, good faith and reason in international affairs have given way to strident ambition and brute force.

An ordering of society which relegates religion, democracy and good faith among nations to the background can find no place within it for the ideals of the Prince of Peace. The United States rejects such an ordering, and retains its ancient faith.

Must Prepare Defense.

There comes a time in the affairs of men when they must prepare to defend not their homes alone but the tenets of faith and humanity on which their churches, their governments and their very civilization are founded. The defence of religion, of democracy and of good faith among nations is all the same fight. To save one we must now make up our minds to save all.

We know what might happen to us of the United States if the new philosophies of force were to encompass the other continents and invade our own. We, no more than other nations, can afford to be surrounded by the enemies of our faith and our humanity. Fortunate it is, therefore, that in this western hemisphere we have, under a common ideal of democratic government, a rich diversity of resources and of peoples functioning together in mutual respect and peace.

The hemisphere, that peace, and that ideal we propose to do our share in protecting against storms from any quarter. Our people and our resources are pledged to secure that protection. From that determination no American flinches.

Willing to Help Peace.'

This by no means implies that the American republics disassoci-

(Continued on Page 8, Col. 1)

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

HERE'S TEXT OF ROOSEVELT'S MESSAGE TO CONGRESS TODAY

President Appears Before Joint Session of Senate, House With Annual Message on Current Status of Nation.

(Continued From Page 1)

ate themselves from the nations of other continents—it does not mean the Americas against the rest of the world. We as one of the republics reiterate our willingness to help the cause of world peace. We stand on our historic offer to take counsel with all other nations of the world to the end that aggression among them be terminated, that the race of armaments cease and that commerce be renewed.

But the world has grown so small and weapons of attack so swift that no nation can be safe in its will to peace so long as any other single powerful nation refuses to settle its grievances at the council table.

For if any government bristling with implements of war insists on policies of force, weapons of defense give the only safety.

In our foreign relations we have learned from the past what not to do. From new wars we have learned what we must do.

We have learned that effective timing of defense, and the distant points from which attacks may be launched are completely different from that they were twenty years ago.

We have learned that survival cannot be guaranteed by arming after the attack begins—for there is new range and speed to offense.

Preliminaries of Aggression.

We have learned that long before any overt military act, aggression begins with preliminaries of propaganda, subsidized penetration, the loosening of ties of goodwill, the stirring of prejudice and the incitement to disunion.

We have learned that God-fearing Democracies of the world which observe the sanctity of treaties and good faith in their dealing with other nations cannot safely be indifferent to international lawlessness anywhere. They cannot forever let pass, without effective protest, acts of aggression against sister nations—acts which automatically undermine all of us.

Obviously they must proceed along practical, peaceful lines. But the mere fact that we rightly decline to intervene with arms to prevent acts of aggression does not mean that we must act as if there were no aggression at all. Words may be futile, but war is not the only means of commanding a decent respect for the opinions of mankind. There are many methods short of war, but stronger and more effective than mere words, of bringing home to aggressor governments the aggregate sentiments of our own people.

At the very lease, we can and should avoid any action, or any lack of action, which will encourage, assist or build up an aggressor. We have learned that when we deliberately try to legislate neutrality, our neutrality laws may operate unevenly and unfairly—may actually give aid to an aggressor and deny it to the victim. The instinct of self-preservation should warn us that we ought not to let that happen any more.

Defense Curbs Threats.

And we have learned something else—the old, old lesson that probability of attack is mightily decreased by the assurance of an ever ready defense. Since 1931 world events of thunderous import have moved with lightning speed. During these eight years many of our people clung to the hope that the innate decency of mankind would protect the unprepared who showed their innate trust in mankind. Today we are all wiser—and sadder.

Under modern conditions what we mean by "adequate defense"—a policy subscribed to by all—must be divided into three elements. First we must have armed forces and defense strong enough to ward off sudden attack against strategic positions and key facilities essential to ensure sustained resistance and ultimate victory. Secondly we must have the organization and location of those key facilities so that they may be immediately utilized and rapidly expanded to meet all needs without danger of serious interruption by enemy attack.

In the course of a few days I shall send you a special message making recommendations for those two essentials of defense against danger which we cannot safely assume will not come.

If these first two essentials are reasonably provided for, we must be able confidently to invoke the third element, the underlying strength of citizenship—the self-confidence, the ability, the imagination and the devotion that give the staying power to see things through.

A strong and united nation may be destroyed if it is unprepared against sudden attack. But even a nation well armed and well organized from a strictly military standpoint, may, after a period of time, meet defeat if it is unnerved by self-distrust, endangered by class prejudice, by dissension between capital and labor, by false economy and by other unsolved social problems at home.

In meeting the troubles of the world we must meet them as one people—with a unity born of the fact that for generations those who have come to our shores, representing many kindreds and tongues, have been welded by common opportunity into a united patriotism. If another form of government can present a united front in its attack on a democracy, the attack must be met by a united democracy. Such a democracy can and must exist in the United States.

A dictatorship may command the full strength of a regimented nation. But the united strength of a democratic nation can be mustered only when its people, educated by modern standards to know what is going on and where they are going, have conviction that they are receiving as large a share of opportunity for development, as large a share of material success and of human dignity, as they have a right to receive.

Our nation's program of social and economic reform is therefore a part of defense as basic as armaments themselves.

Against the background of events in Europe, in Africa and in Asia during these recent years, the pattern of what we have accomplished since 1933 appears in even clearer focus.

Program In Motion.

For the first time we have moved upon deep-seated problems affecting our national strength and have forged national instruments adequate to meet them.

Consider what the seemingly piecemeal struggles of these six years add up to in terms of realistic national preparedness.

We are conserving and developing natural resources—land, water, power, forests.

We are trying to provide necessary food, shelter and medical care for the health of our population.

We are putting agriculture — our system of food and fibre supply—on a sounder basis.

We are strengthening the weakest spot in our system of industrial supply—its long smouldering labor difficulties.

We have cleaned up our credit system so that depositor and investor alike may more readily and willingly make their capital available for peace or war.

We are giving to our youth new opportunities for work and education.

We have sustained the morale of all the population by the dignified recognition of our obligations to the aged, the helpless and the needy.

Above all, we have made the American people conscious of their inter-relationship and their interdependence. They sense a common destiny—and a common need of each other. Differences of occupation, geography, race and religion no longer obscure the nation's fundamental unity in thought and in action.

We have our difficulties, true—but we are a wiser and a tougher nation than we were in 1929, or 1932.

Internal Preparedness.

Never have there been six years of such far-flung internal preparedness in our history. And all this has been done without dictator's power to command, without conscription of labor or confiscation of capital, without concentration camps, and without a scratch on freedom of speech, freedom of the press or the rest of the bill of rights.

We see things now that we could not see along the way. The tools of government which we had in 1933 are outmoded. We have had to forge new tools for a new role of government in democracy—a role of new responsibility for new needs and increased responsibility for old needs, long neglected.

Some of these tools had to be roughly shaped and still need some machining down. Many of those who fought bitterly against the forging of these new tools welcome their use today. The American people, as a whole, have accepted them. The nation looks to the congress to improve the new machinery which we have permanently installed.

All of us agree that we should simplify and improve laws if experience and operation clearly demonstrate the need. For instance, all of us want better provision for our older people under our social security legislation. For the medically needy we must provide better care.

Most of us agree that for the sake of employer and employe alike we must find ways to end factional labor strife and employer-employe disputes.

Touches on Reorganization.

Most of us recognize that none of these tools can be put to maximum effectiveness unless the executive processes of government are revamped—reorganized, if you will—into more effective combination. And even after such reorganization it will take time to develop administration personnel and experience in order to use our new tools with a minimum of mistakes. The congress, of course, needs no further information on this.

With this exception of legislation to provide greater government efficiency, and with the exception of legislation to ameliorate our railroad and other transportation problems, the past three congresses have met in part or in whole the pressing needs of the new order of thinks.

We have now passed the period of internal conflict in the launching of our program of social reform. Our full energies may now be released to invigorate the processes of recovery in order to preserve our reforms, and to give every man and woman who wants to work a real job at a living wage.

Time Paramount.

But time is of paramount importance. The deadline of danger from within and from without is not within our control. The hourglass may be in the hands of other nations. Our own hour-glass tells us that we are on a race to make democracy work, so that we may be efficient in peace and therefore secure in self-defense.

This time element forces us to still greater efforts to attain the full employment of our labor and our capital.

The first duty of our statesmanship today is to bring capital and man-power together.

Dictatorships do this by main force. However, we abhor their methods, we are compelled to admit that they have obtained substantial utilization of all their material and human resources. Like it or not, they have solved, for a time at least, the problem of idle men and idle capital.

Can We Compete?

Can we compete with them by boldly seeking methods of putting idle men and idle capital together and, at the same time, remain within our American way of life, within the bill of rights, and within the bounds of what is, from our point of view, civilization itself?

We suffer from a great unemployment of capital. Many people have the idea that as a nation we are overburdened with debt and are spending more than we can afford. That is not so. Despite our federal government expenditures the entire debt or our national economic system, public and private together, is no larger today than it was in 1929, and the interest thereon is far less than it was in 1929.

The object is to put capital—private as well as public—to work.

W want to get enough capital and labor at work to give us a total turnover of business, a total national income, of at least eighty billion dollars a year. At that figure we shall have a substantial reduction of unemployment; and the federal revenues will be sufficient to balance the current level of cash expenditures on the basis of existing tax structure. That figure can be attained, working within the framework of our traditional profit system.

Complicating Factors.

The factors in attaining and maintaining that amount of national income are many and complicated.

They include more widespread understanding among business men of many changes which world conditions and technological improvements have brought to our economy over the last twenty years—changes in the inter-relationship of price and volume and employment, for instance—changes of the kind in which business men are now educating themselves through opportunities like the so-called "monopoly investigation."

They include a perfecting of our farm program to protect farmers' income and consumers' purchasing power from alternate risks of crop gluts and crop shortages.

They include wholehearted acceptance of new standards of honesty in financial markets.

They include reconcilement of enormous, antagonistic interests—some of them long in litigation—in the railroad and general transportation field.

They include the working out of new techniques—private, state and federal—to protect the public interest in and to develop wider markets for electric power.

They include a revamping of the tax relationships between federal, state and local units of government, and consideration of relatively small tax increases to adjust inequalities without interfering with the aggregate income of the American people.

They include the perfecting of labor organization and a universal ungrudging attitude by employers toward the labor movement, until there is a minimum of interruption of production and employment because of disputes, and acceptance by labor of the truth that the welfare of labor itself depends on increased out-put of goods.

Here, as elsewhere, time is the deciding factor in our choice of remedies.

Opposes Cut in Spending.

Therefore, it does not seem logical to me, at the moment we seek to increase production and consumption, for the federal government to consider a drastic curtailment of its own investments.

The whole subject of government investing and government income is one which may be approached in two different ways.

The first calls for the elimination of enough activities of government to bring the expenses of government immediately into balance with income of government. This school of though maintains that because of our national income this year is only sixty billion dollars, ours is only a sixty billion dollar country; that government must treat it as such; and that without the help of government, it may some day, somehow, happen to become an eighty billion dollar country.

If the congress decides to accept this point of view, it will logically have to reduce the present functions or activities of government by one-third. The congress will have to accept the responsibility for such reduction; and the congress will have to determine which activities are to be reduced.

Certain expenditures we cannot possibly reduce, such as the interest on the public debt. A few million dollars saved here or there in the normal or in curtailed work of the old departments and commissions will make no great saving in the federal budget. Therefore, the congress would have to reduce drastically some of certain large items, such as aids to agriculture and soil conservation, veterans' pensions, flood control, highways, waterways and other public works, grants for social and health security, civilian conservation corps activities, relief for the unemployed, or national defense.

The congress alone has the power to do all this, as it is the appropriations branch of the government.

The other approach to the question of government spending takes the position that this nation ought not to be and need not be only a sixty billion dollar nation; that at this moment it has the men and the resources sufficient to make it at least an eighty billion dollar nation. This school of thought does not believe that it can become an eighty billion dollar nation in the near future if government cuts it operations by one-third.

It is convinced that if we were to try it, we would invite disaster—that we would not long remain even a sixty billion dollar nation. There are many complicated factors with which we have to deal, but we have learned that it is unsafe to make abrupt reductions at any time in our net expenditure program.

By our common sense action of resuming government activities last spring, we have reversed a recession and started the new rising tide of prosperity and national income which we are now just beginning to enjoy.

If government activities are fully maintained, there is a good prospect of our becoming an eighty billion dollar country in a very short time. With such a national income, present tax laws will yield enough each year to balance each year's expenses.

It is my conviction that down in their hearts the American public—industry, agriculture finance—wants this congress to do whatever needs to be done to raise our national income to eighty billion dollars a year.

Investing soundly must preclude spending wastefully. To guard against opportunist appropriations, I have on several occasions addressed the congress on the importance of permanent long-range planning. I hope, therefore, that following my recommendation of last year, a permanent agency will be set up and authorized to report on the urgency and desirability of the various types of government investment. Investment for prosperity can be made in a democracy.

Hits Dictators' Methods.

I hear some people say 'this is all so complicated. There are certain advantages in a dictatorship. It gets rid of labor trouble, of unemployment, of wasted motion and of having to do your own thinking."

My answer is "yes, but it also gets rid of some other things which we Americans intend very definitely to keep—and we still intend to do our own thinking."

It will cost us taxes and the voluntary risk of capital to attain some of the practical advantages which other forms of government have acquired.

Dictatorship, however, involves costs which the American people will never pay: the cost of our spiritual values. The cost of the blessed right of being able to say what we please. The cost of freedom of religion. The cost of seeing our capital confiscated. The cost of being cast into a concentration camp. The cost of being afraid to walk down the street with the wrong neighbor. The cost of having our children brought up not as free and dignified human beings, but as pawns molded and enslaved by a machine.

If the avoidance of these costs means taxes on my income if avoiding these costs means taxes on my estate at death, I would bear those taxes willingly as the price of my breathing and my children breathing the free air of a free country, as the price of a living and not a dead world.

Events abroad have made it increasingly clear to the American people that dangers within are less to be feared than dangers from without. If therefore a solution of this problem of idle men and idle capital is the price of preserving our liberty, no formless selfish fears can stand in our way.

HIGHLIGHTS OF ROOSEVELT'S MESSAGE TO CONGRESS TODAY

WASHINGTON—(U.P.)—Highlights of President Roosevelt's message to congress:

A war which threatened to envelop the world in flames has been averted; but it has become increasingly clear that peace is not assured. . . . All about us are threats of new aggression—military and economic.

* * *

Storms from abroad directly challenge three institutions indispensable to Americans, now as always. The first is religion. It is the source of the other two—democracy and international good faith.

* * *

The world has grown so small and weapons of attack so swift that no nation can be safe in its will to peace so long as any other single powerful nation refuses to settle its grievances at the council table.

* * *

We stand on our historic offer to take counsel with all other nations . . . to the end that aggression among them be terminated, that the race of armaments cease and commerce be renewed.

* * *

There are many methods short of war . . . of bringing home to aggressor governments the aggregate sentiments of our own people.

* * *

'Adequate defense' (means) armed forces and defenses strong enough to ward off sudden attack against strategic positions and key facilities.

* * *

Our nation's program of social and economic reform is . . . a part of defense as basic as armaments themselves.

* * *

All of us want better provision for our older people. . . . For the medically needy we must provide better care. . . . We must find ways to end factional labor strife

* * *

We have now passed the period of internal conflict in . . . our program of social reform. . . . The first duty of our statesmanship today is to bring capital and man-power together.

* * *

An $80,000,000,000 annual national income would substantially reduce unemployment and provide federal revenues sufficient to balance the current level of cash expenditures on the basis of the existing tax structure. That figure can be attained.

* * *

It does not seem logical to me, at the moment we seek to increase production and consumption, for the federal government to consider a drastic curtailment of its own investments.

6 YOUTHS FACE THEFT CHARGES

2 Held to Grand Jury, 2 Begin 15-Day Terms, Others Win Suspended Sentences.

Four youths were in the county jail today, two awaiting jury action on charges of breaking and entering and two serving 15-day sentences for petit larceny. Two others were given suspended sentences on the latter charge.

Arraigned in municipal court yesterday for petit larceiy, James Loveland, 22, of 120 West Sixth street; Floyd Kiley, North Franklin avenue; Anthony Sherman, 22, 306 Purdy street, and Steve Moritz, 21, rear of 118 Grace street, pleaded guilty and were sentenced to 60 days in jail.

Judge G. E. Kalbfleisch suspended the sentence in Sherman and Moritz' cases on condition of good behavior and reduced the sentences of the other two to 15 days each on the same condition.

The four were charged with looting automobiles. Police said they found a shotgun and set of chinaware valued at $16 allegedly taken by the quartet from the auto of R. A. Conant, Massillon, while it was parked on East Fourth street Dec. 24.

The two held to the grand jury under bonds of $1,000 each were Harold Young, 19, 32 Weldon avenue, and Ray Johnson, 105 North Main street.

Arraigned in court yesterday, they pleaded guilty to burglarizing the Ringside cafe, on East Third street last Saturday.

AULT TRIAL AT SUDDEN CLOSE

Highway Director Fails to Take Stand, Jury to Get Case Today.

(Continued From Page 1)

pressed because of feeling of Judge Chapman (Common Pleas Judge Charles Chapman of Ashland county) and a few others against Mr. Ault."

Ault, indicted in Ashland county, obtained a change of venue to Knox county.

Bittinger, one of Davey's principal campaign aids, is former speaker of the Ohio house and was one of 17 persons indicted in Franklin county on charges of soliciting funds in violation of civil service laws. Both Bittinger and Ault are Ashland residents.

Prosecutor Siverling rested the state's case late Tuesday after five witnesses had testified.

The original nine counts against Ault had been reduced to six. Two went out at the request of the prosecution, after which the defense won a ruling dismissing another count charging solicitation from Ernest Pion, a shop foreman, who testified that Ault asked him "why I didn't kick in the Davey campaign fund and why I didn't get the boys to kick in."

Other witnesses were William Mish, who said that on two occasions he took $5 to Ault "because I just about had to in order to hold my job;" John Jones, who said he quit his job because he was unable to do extra work given him; Gordon Schworer, with the department 14 years; Robert Greenlun, road-marking supervisor, and Martin Hetsler.

TOLD OF DEATH

BUCYRUS—Word has been received of the death in Los Angeles of Lynn Wingate, husband of the former Della Greenich of Bucyrus, which occurred Dec. 24.

Miss Pearl Wentz of North Sandusky avenue is leaving for the west coast this week to join Mrs. Wingate, who will return with Miss Wentz in the spring to make her home.

A Three Days' Cough Is Your Danger Signal

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your common cough, chest cold, or bronchial irritation, you may get relief now with Creomulsion. Serious trouble may be brewing and you cannot afford to take a chance with any remedy less potent than Creomulsion, which goes right to the seat of the trouble and aids nature to soothe and heal the inflamed mucous membranes and to loosen and expel germ-laden phlegm.

Even if other remedies have failed, don't be discouraged, try Creomulsion. Your druggist is authorized to refund your money if you are not thoroughly satisfied with the benefits obtained. Creomulsion is one word, ask for it plainly, see that the name on the bottle is Creomulsion, and you'll get the genuine product and the relief you want. (Adv.)

KOBACKER'S SAVES YOU MONEY

500 PAIRS BETTER CURTAINS

Actual Values to $1.29

A SELL-OUT at only 57c Pair

- Choose fresh, crisp Priscilla curtains with triple dots, colored figures, self figures or pin dots.
- Choose tailored in airy striped or novelty net . . . full cut. Ivory and ecru. Some with large cushion dots.
- Choose charming new cottage sets with cheerful colored figures or ball fringe.
- Choose lovely lace curtains—slotted tops ready to hang, 2 1-4 and 2 1-6 yards long. Smart self-figured designs.

36" Cretonne, yd. 6c — Colorful patterns. 2 to 20 yard lengths. Values to 15c.

24x48" RAG RUGS 24c — Hit and miss patterns. Crow foot borders. Firm weave.

SALE! LAMPS 1-3 OFF — Bridge, table, Pin-up, floor, and many novel styles. All go at— Third Floor

RAYON PILLOWS 39c — Cotton napper filled. Bright colors, pastels, and deep tones. Third Floor

HEADACHE

The ingredients in Capudine are so efficiently combined that headaches, neuralgia, and muscular pains are quickly relieved. Try this delightful remedy. Note how quickly comfort returns, you feel more cheerful, and nerves become steadier. All drug stores. 10c-30c-60c

CAPUDINE

LIGHTING FIXTURES
Electrical WIRING SUPPLIES
and
CONTRACTING
NATIONAL ELECTRIC CO.
74 N. Walnut St.

ACHING COLDS

Relieve Their DISTRESS This Easy, Quick Way!

To bring speedy relief from the discomfort of chest colds, muscular rheumatic aches and pains due to colds—you need more than "just a salve"—use a stimulating "counter-irritant" like good old warming, soothing Musterole. It penetrates the surface skin breaking up local congestion and pain resulting from colds.

Even better than a mustard plaster—Musterole has been used by millions for over 30 years. Recommended by many doctors and nurses. In three strengths: Regular, Children's (mild) and Extra Strong, 40c. Approved by Good Housekeeping Bureau. All druggists.

MUSTEROLE
BETTER THAN A MUSTARD PLASTER

The New Year Will Be Bright If You Start It Right By Installing a 'Phone!

Accuracy COMES FIRST IN Fashion Styled GLASSES

EASY CREDIT TERMS

PROTECT YOUR VISION

When it comes to scientific accuracy and absolute precision in the fitting of glasses—people who value their eyesight come here! Every prescription issued is checked and double-checked by an experienced optometrist as a double assurance for certain accuracy!

Dr. A. Tootikian
Optometrist
Located at ROGERS & CO.
25 N. Main St.

Mansfield Fireman Had Pains All Over Till He Took Vendol

Could hardly get around at times; pains ranging from neck, hands and shoulders, through back and into calves of legs. Describes marvelous relief Vendol gave.

MR. JOHN A. McCARTNEY

Mansfield people are coming forward by the dozens telling how they have gotten amazing relief from only a few bottles of Vendol, the medicine introduced here just a few weeks ago by the Vendol Man through Central Drug Store, where he is now meeting people daily and explaining all about this famous remedy.

Mr. John A. McCartney, fireman at the Mansfield Lumber Co., and residing at 173 W. 6th St., described his experience a few days ago as follows: "I had pains all over me at the time I began taking Vendol and some times I could hardly get around.

"The pains started in the back of my neck, made my shoulder stiff, my hands hurt so bad I could hardly grip anything, my left side ached and my knees and calves of my legs hurt so bad I could hardly get up after sitting a while. These pains were so bad I couldn't get restful sleep and at my age this tells on a man pretty bad.

"Vendol and the Little Vendol laxative tablets proved to be just the treatment I needed. Very soon, they had relieved my constipation and acted as a diuretic to my kidneys, helping to clearse the poisons that may have been causing all the trouble, then I enjoyed the most relief I've known in years. Now, I'm truly feeling years younger and get restful sleep all night long with no interruptions.

"This is the finest medicine I ever tried and want to advise every man and woman in this city who suffers the same way, to get Vendol without delay and see what it will do for them, too."

Give this grand medicine made of nature's Roots, Herbs and mild Alkalines a chance to help you, too. Come to Central Drug Store, Cor. Main & 4th Sts., and let the Vendol Man explain all about it. Druggists everywhere sell and recommend Vendol.

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®
NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

TOURIST CLUB MEMBERS HAVE SEALED PROGRAM

Floyd Dent Speaks on Juvenile Delinquency; Paper, Musical Selections Given By Mrs. J. C. Stout and Jean Seybold.

THE "sealed" program presented to members of the Tourist club yesterday at the Women's Club after a 1 o'clock luncheon, was a particularly interesting and well-balanced one, combining music, an educational paper, and a talk on community problems.

Floyd Dent, scout executive of the Johnny Appleseed area of Boy Scouts, and who has addressed all of the Mansfield luncheon clubs on the results of a survey of juvenile delinquency in Mansfield, presented these facts to the women of the Tourist club. With a series of charts he showed the age brackets in truancy, delinquency, thefts, property destruction and incorrigibility.

With illustrated maps he showed the centers of juvenile delinquency and the environment of those centers.

Mrs. John C. Stout gave a paper on the composers of Ohio, many of whom have gained lasting recognition, and whose works have included classical, operatic, chamber and popular music Best known of these, she pointed out, are the late Daniel Decatur Emmett of Mt. Vernon who wrote "Dixie" and other songs that have since become American folk songs, and Oley Speaks, best known for his "Sylvia."

Mrs. Stout sang three of the popular Speaks songs, "When Love Is Gone," "The Lord Is My Light" and "On the Road to Mandalay."

Jean Seybold, the Mansfield girl who has distinguished herself in piano at Ohio State university and who attended the Conservatory of Music at Fontainbleau, France, last summer, played three numbers arranged under one title, "Perpetual Motion."

About 30 members and their guests attended the luncheon and program. Mrs. Fred Berg and Mrs. Dimon Herring were hostesses. Tables for the luncheon were decorated in spring colors—pale green linen, and centerpieces of pink sweetpeas, snap dragon, lavender stock and white mignonette.

On Jan. 17 the club meets with Mrs. A. E. Merkel, 163 Bartley avenue, with Mrs. W. S. Valmore, Mrs. William Jesson and Mrs. J. W. Galbraith on the program.

Circle, Auxiliary Have Sessions, Serve Dinner

Preceding the meeting of the auxiliary to the Charles Dick Camp No. 28, the Marquis Sewing Circle met yesterday afternoon at the Memorial building for quilting. After the serving of a 6 p. m. dinner by Mrs. Maude Blakley and Mrs. Nona Heidinger, a routine session was held. Mrs. Mary Johnson was in charge.

The circle will have an all day quilting Jan. 12, and the auxiliary will hold the next regular meeting Jan. 17. A report was made that dinner had been served to 65 guests by the group Monday evening when open house was held in the hall.

Religious Education on Program of Church Class

Forty members of the Rain and Shine class of the South Main Street Evangelical church were in attendance last evening when that group met in the church parlors. Mrs. C. M. Hunter, president of the class, conducted the business meeting, and Mrs. B. F. LaFevre was in charge of devotions.

After the business session, Miss Elsie Smith gave a talk concerning her work as supervisor of religious education in the public schools of Mansfield. Later in the evening, Mrs. William Lorow and her committee, composed of Mrs. Charles Gatton and Mrs. Della Baughman, served refreshments to the group. The next meeting of the class will be held at the church on Feb. 7.

* * *

PASTORS AID.

Pastors' Aid society of St. Mark's Lutheran church was entertained yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Joseph Cairns, Bowman street, when 14 members assembled for a business meeting and social hour. Contest prizes were awarded to Mrs. George Turner, and Mrs. Harry Downs. Luncheon was served by the hostess, and the next meeting will be Feb. 7 with Mrs. C. F. Fighter, Bowman street.

* * *

CHANGE PLACE.

Members of the Past Pocahontas association will meet tonight with Mrs. Ida Crookton, 124 Flint street, instead of with Mrs. Rose Berry as originally planned.

* * *

STUDY SESSION.

When Mrs. Glen Macy, Douglas avenue, entertained members of the Notre Dame Study club last night at her home, Mrs. T. J. McDermott reviewed, "Autobiography of G. K. Chesterton." The next meeting will be Jan. 17 with Mrs. Joseph Kuebler.

Young Folks Fear Itchy Pimples

Skin blemishes are a mental and social handicap to young folks. For 30 years in millions of homes both young and old have used soothing Peterson's Ointment for relief from itchy pimples. Eczema, ugly red blotches or other irritations due to external causes. Makes the skin look better, feel better. 35c all druggists, money back if one application does not delight you. Peterson's Ointment soothing also for tired, irritated feet, and cracks between toes.

Chi Sigma Plans to Have Guest Breakfast Sunday

During the routine business meeting of the Chi Sigma sorority which was held at the Mansfield-Leland hotel last night final plans were made for a guest breakfast this Sunday morning. The affair will be held at the hotel at 9 a. m.

Arrangements are in charge of the Misses Wilma Snyder, Louella Brandt, Mary Butler, Emily Cox and Mrs. John Courtney. The next regular meeting of the sorority will be held Jan. 10 at the hotel.

* * *

MRS. PLACE HOSTESS.

Members of the Chi Sigma Mothers' club met at the home of Mrs. O. G. Place, 100 Glenwood boulevard, yesterday afternoon for luncheon and bridge. There were 11 members and one guest, Mrs. Eugene Linham, present for the affair. Plans were made to entertain the daughters at a dinner party Feb. 14. Mrs. W. W. Hammett won the high score prize. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Emil Zelenka, 52 Summit street, Feb. 7.

* * *

ENTERTAINS CLUB.

Mrs. Fred Nail, West Fifth street, entertained members of the Valencia club yesterday at bridge. Mrs. Myrtle Aungst and Mrs. C. C Pollock were the winners. The next meeting will be Jan. 17 with Mrs. Herbert Garrett, Orange street.

Enjoy the lasting beauty of this alluring wave! Smart Cutter Waves Enhance Your Personality

$5 STEAM OIL SELF-SETTING

CROQUIGNOLE

Personality

PERMANENT

This luxurious wave includes shampoo, trim and finger wave—with smart ringlet ends—A wave you'll be proud of! All expert operators!

$1.00 COMPLETE This is our regular smart $5.00 Wave

CUTTER'S BEAUTY SHOP

Richland Trust Building Canal 3455

SOCIETY & CLUBS

Snow Suits Still Popular With Toboggan Fans

DOWN she goes in a snow suit of dark blue wool gabardine whose trousers are cuffed in ribbed knit wool to keep out snow and wind. The front of her cap bends back in the wind as she swoops to a swift finish.

AP

Dance, Music, Talk By Fuller Presented for Dolly Madisons

THERE were 45 members of the Dolly Madison club present last night for the business meeting and program of the organization which was held in the Chinese room of the Mansfield-Leland hotel. After the routine session, Mary Alice Mitchell introduced the program with a novelty dance.

E. C. Fuller, head of the Mansfield bureau of identification, spoke on "Fingerprinting." This was followed by an article on the organization read by Mrs. Marie Bell.

The program was concluded with five vocal selections by the Hedges School Mothersingers. Plans were made for the next meeting to be a dinner-bridge at the hotel Feb. 7. The committee in charge of the next session includes Mrs. Mabel Bowers, Mrs. C. H. Huston, Mrs. R. E. Hutchison, Mrs. Sadie Ripper, Mrs. Viola Lloyd, Mrs. C. W. Uhler, Mrs. Curt Moore and Mrs. Clara Hicks.

Members in charge last night were Mrs. Ruth Kohl, Mrs. Faye Lehman, Miss Nell Carr, Mrs. John Kolb, Miss Mary Kolb, Mrs. Faye Roth, Miss Anna Horn and Mrs. Blanche Hirth.

Schedule of Events

THURSDAY

Circle Five, First Presbyterian church—Mrs. William Weldon, 55 Marion avenue, hostess.

W. B. A. Pioneer club—Mrs. Fred Ammeter, 244 Newman street, hostess.

Friendly club—Mrs. Theodore Witsky, Country Club drive, hostess.

Royal Neighbors lodge—Eagle hall, covered-dish dinner at 5:30 p. m., business at 7:30 p. m.

Italian Social club — Mrs. Anthony di Gregoria, 28 Auburn avenue, hostess

O. H O. club—North Lake park pavilion.

Home, Foreign Missionary societies, First Methodist Episcopal church—At the church.

Home, Foreign Missionary societies, Ladies Aid of the Central Methodist Episcopal church—At the church

Mary Markley Missionary society, St. Paul Lutheran church—Miss Rachel Collett, 680 West Fourth street, hostess.

Busy Bee club—Mrs. Cloyd Fox, South Main street road, hostess.

Circle Three, First Presbyterian church guild—Mrs. J. W. Powers, 436 West Fourth street, hostess. Mrs. Ella Anderson, Mrs. C F. Farry, associate hostesses. Miss Geneva Craig will review "Moving Millions" Sewing Circle 2 of First Presbyterian church—Mrs. Flora Lewis, 135 Glenwood boulevard, 2 p. m.—Mrs. Harry Buchan Mrs. C. M. Lutz, associate hostesses.

Circle One of the First Presbyterian church—Covered-dish dinner at 12.30 p. m. Miss Flora Lentzy will review first two chapters of "Moving Millions."

Timely Topics club—Mrs. W. C. Kessler, 795 Andover road.

FRIDAY

Jared Mansfield chapter, daughters of the American Revolution—Mrs G. J Kochenderfer, chairman.

Priscillian club — Staiger tea room, Mrs James Holcombe, hostess

Neighborhood Bible club—Mrs. B. J. Gettles, 142 Rae avenue, hostess.

G. M. D. class St Mark's Lutheran church—Mrs Earl Brandenber, 550 North Bowman street, hostess.

J. U. N. club—Mrs. Frank Samsell, West First street hostess.

Western Avenue Climbers Junior Garden club—Louise Turner 136 Rae avenue, hostess

Fireside club—Mr. and Mrs John Lump, First avenue, hosts.

L'Allegro club—Mrs J. C. Hamilton, 695 Springmill street, hostess

Jolly Times club—Iona Heichel, hostess.

Ladies' Bible class of Mayflower Congregational church—7:30 p m. Mrs Charles Swank 82 Johns avenue, hostess.

SATURDAY

La Petite club—Mrs Samuel Berger, 288 Harker street, hostess.

Penquins Keynote for Subject, Decorations at Club Luncheon

PENGUINS served as a keynote for a meeting of the Audubon club yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Van Cook, 107 Sherman avenue. Mrs. H. C. McCutchan assisted Mrs. Cook with the 1 o'clock dessert-luncheon.

The buffet table was attractively decorated in keeping with the subject for discussion during the afternoon. A large kewpie doll signifying 1939, was standing on a mirror in the middle of the table with tiny penguin figurines around it. There was also a low container of sweet peas in pastel shades on either side of the centerpiece. The table was lighted with six white tapers. Mrs. H. M. Spandau and Mrs. Ralph Race presided at the table.

Mrs. Roscoe Gage gave a paper on "Penguins" during the afternoon. Mrs. William Miller, Mrs. W. V. Campbell, Miss Nita Branson and Mrs. G. H. Franklin of Dermott, Ark., were guests of the club for yesterday's meeting.

The next meeting of this group will be on Feb. 7 with Mrs. Roy Curry and Mrs. C. M. Lutz as the hostesses.

* * *

REGULAR SESSION.

The regular meeting of the W. B. A. lodge No. 77 was held yesterday evening at the K. of P. hall with the president, Mrs. Mary Somers, in charge. At the close of the business session, a poke lunch was served. The next meeting will be on Jan. 17.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Charles Smith, Chicago, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Barney Swoveland, South Main street.

* * *

Mrs. Mae Winbigler has returned to Mansfield after spending the holiday season with friends in Akron and Cleveland.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Rowers, 216½ West Third street, have just returned from Toledo where they spent the past week visiting.

* * *

Mrs. Gordon Schwan, Overlook avenue, left today with Mrs. John Bunts, Crystal River, Fla., for Florida.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Keffer, Bloomington, Ill., former Mansfielder's, have been spending the holiday weeks with relatives here.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. King, 473 Sloan avenue, have returned after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Caston, Cleveland.

* * *

Harold Fleck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Fleck, South Main road, has gone to Venice, Fla., to resume his studies at Kentucky Military Institute, in winter session there.

* * *

The Misses Frances Hanson, Willa Hollingshead and Eleanor Fraser, all of Mansfield, were the recent guests of Mary Mae and Harold Touby on the Lexington-Bellville road.

* * *

Mrs Steve Keiser, R. D. 1, and children Alice, Bert, and Stevie, returned to their home near Mansfield after spending the holidays at Montgomery, Ala.

* * *

Mrs. Charles Stevens, Toledo, has returned home after spending several days with her sisters, Mrs. Edith H. Lindley and Miss Helen Hurst, Columbia avenue.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. James Georgopulos, Linden road, have gone to Miami, Fla., for an extended stay. They are traveling by auto and trailer.

* * *

Mrs. Bertha Droz, national senior vice president of the Daughters of Union Veterans, Mrs. Ella McHugh, president of the Mary B. Mitchell chapter, Mrs. Elizabeth Campbell and Mrs. Alice Oster, motored to Sandusky today where they served as installing officers for the Sandusky tent. The Mansfield tent will hold installation next Monday.

LUNCH TOMORROW.

Between the hours of 11 a. m. and 1 p. m. Thursday members of the Business and Professional Women's club will lunch at the Evergreens.

* * *

POSTPONEMENT.

Members of Auxiliary No. 100 will not meet until Jan. 18 at which time they will have installation of officers, it was announced this morning. The meeting had been set for tonight.

CLUB INSTALLS

GALION — Past Ohio District Governor of Kiwanis, Rev. P. E. Auer of Galion, had charge of the installation ceremonies for new officers of the Galion Kiwanis club Tuesday noon at Carmel's.

Herman F. Eichhorn is the new president. He succeeds C. L. Morkel Other officers and directors installed were: Vice president, W. F. VonBrock; secretary, G. R. McNabb; treasurer, W. A. Dickerson; directors, E. B Beall, F. R. Bertram, H. L. Plack, E. R. Pickering, F. E. Cook, C. L. Morkel and C. E. Craun.

GALION — When the annual congregational meeting of the First Reformed church was held Sunday morning the following officers were elected: elder, R. J. Heitzman; deacons, Elmer Harris and Guy Ritzhaupt; trustee, Gilbert Plack.

30 Years Success! Doctor's Formula For Ugly Surface

PIMPLES—ACNE

Here's a real chance to get after those unsightly externally caused skin flaws with powerfully soothing liquid Zemo (a doctor's marvelous prescription) for itching of eczema, pimples, ringworm and similar annoying skin irritations.

Zemo contains 10 different highly effective ingredients—that's why first applications quickly ease itching soreness and thus help nature promote FAST healing. Stainless, invisible. 35c, 60c, $1 One trial convinces! Real severe cases may need $1.25 EXTRA strength. All druggists.

INSTALL OFFICERS OF ALPHA PI SIGMA

Miss Isabel Gerstmeyer, Miss Grace Crotty, Miss Marie Kalbfleisch Continue Filling Major Posts of Sorority.

INSTALLATION of officers of the Alpha Pi Sigma sorority was held yesterday evening at the Mansfield-Leland hotel with a past president, Miss Marvel Weigand, serving as the installing officer.

Miss Isabel Gerstmeyer, who was re-elected to her office for another year, was installed as president. Miss Grace Crotty, corresponding secretary, and Miss Marie Kalbfleisch, financial secretary, were also re-elected for the coming year. Other officers installed yesterday evening were: Mrs. Mrs. Snyder, prelate; Mrs. Donald Hattman, sergeant-at-arms, and Miss Esther Pfaff, master of work.

The organization is making plans for a dance to be held sometime in the near future. The date and committee for this dance will be announced at the next meeting on Jan. 17 in the Mansfield-Leland hotel. Miss Phylis Brown was the hostess for last night's meeting, and the Misses Mary Feigenbaum and Crotty will be the hostesses on Jan. 17.

C. L. of C. Social Event Held in Rooms Tuesday

Members of the C. L. of C. had a social meeting last night in the Bird building club rooms when there were 10 tables of cards in play. Mrs. George Kentosh was in charge. Bridge winners were Mrs. Catherine Pfeifer and Mrs. Frank Barthel.

Five hundred awards were presented to Miss Sadie Day and Miss Bess Murphy. The door prize was given to Mrs. Henry Kampf, Mrs. Frank Barthel, Decatur, Ill., was a guest. Jan. 17 will be the next meeting at which time officers will be installed. Members were asked by the committee on arrangements to bring either cookies or sandwiches for the luncheon which will be served afterwards.

* * *

MEET AT PARISH HOUSE.

Members of the Dr. B. L. Sites Ladies Bible class met at the parish house of the First Lutheran church yesterday afternoon when Mrs. Birdie Finney led the devotions and conducted the business meeting. Mrs. E. L. McCready and Mrs. Pifer sang "From The Ivory Palaces." Hostesses were Mrs. A. D. Rowland, Mrs. Belle Barr and Mrs. Kagy.

Name Miss Ray Head of Varieteers Club

Miss Theo Ray was elected president of the Varieteers Bridge club last evening when the group met at the home of Miss Margery Ruhlen, 32 Greenwood avenue. Mrs. Robert Gehrisch was elected secretary-treaurer for the coming year.

Bridge was in play at two tables, and the high score prize was awarded to Mrs. Vaughn Beaty. Miss Peggy Tyrie was the recipient of the guest prize. Mrs. Arthur Berry was also a guest of the club last evening.

Refreshments were served by the hostess at small tables at the close of the evening. Miss Ray has invited the club members to her home, 227 West First street, for the next meeting, on Jan. 17.

'Art of Dress' Subject of Discussion at Meeting

"The Art of Dress" was the subject for discussion last night when members of the Beta Sigma Phi sorority met at the home of Miss Doris Goodenough, Lexington avenue. Miss Dorothea Grimes was in charge of the program.

Miss Dorothy Bacon, vice president of the sorority, conducted the business session. The next regular meeting will be held in two weeks, Jan. 17, at the home of Miss Grimes on Marion avenue. Mrs. Gene Zediker will be in charge of the program at that time.

New Under-arm Cream Deodorant safely Stops Perspiration

1. Does not rot dresses — does not irritate skin.
2. No waiting to dry. Can be used right after shaving.
3. Instantly stops perspiration for 1 to 3 days. Removes odor from perspiration.
4. A pure white, greaseless, stainless vanishing cream.
5. Arrid has been awarded the Approval Seal of the American Institute of Laundering, for being Harmless to Fabrics.

TEN MILLION jars of Arrid have been sold. Try a jar today!

ARRID

39¢ a jar at all stores which sell toilet goods. (also in 10c and 59c jars)

An Unusual 3 Day Sale of the FINEST LAMPS At Substantial Clearance Reductions

$1.00 and up

This is a splendid opportunity to buy lamps of outstanding beauty, and to save a tidy sum on each. See our distinctive selection, in all types.

Thurs., Fri., Sat. Only

Studio Gift Shop, Inc.

137 Park Ave. West Opp. Ohio Theater

REDDY KILOWATT SAYS

Relieve the suffering of colds, flu, bodily aches and pains with the healthful warmth of a safe, soft, electrical warming pad. Made of soft eider-down, and extra slip of washable material.

JANUARY SPECIAL

HEATING PADS

WESTINGHOUSE 3 HEAT HEATING PAD $3.95

ELECTRAHOT

8-inch by 11-inch. Single heat. Soft eider-down. Complete with cord. A $1.95 value.

$1.19

ROOM HEATERS

Ideal for that room that's always a wee bit chilly! Portable . . . it can be plugged in anywhere. Throws a steady, instant warmth. Values from—

$1.49 to $3.95

The Ohio Public Service Co.

Canal 4171 10 S. Park St.

Electric Rates In Mansfield Are The Lowest In History

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

—Advice—

Adviser Prints Suggestion

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX

Several weeks ago this column published a letter from a young wife and mother who signed it "Distraught." The girl was 21 years of age, had a job which paid her $12 a week, out of which she paid a girl $4 to mind her baby, bought the food and the baby's clothes. She got in such a tight spot getting Grade "A" milk for the baby that she had to pawn her wedding ring. This infuriated the "model husband."

There isn't space to quote more than one letter this week, which comes from an extremely capable lady, who papered a room to solve her domestic difficulties.

"DEAR MISS FAIRFAX:

"'Distraught's' letter moved me deeply, as I had much the same experience in my early married life. We had a girl of 9 and a baby three months old. The people to whom we rented a room in our house demanded new wallpaper. As my husband was jobless, I asked him to do the papering, which he could have done well, but he flatly refused.

"I put the house in order and the baby to sleep, and started to paper the room myself. It was cold, snow was on the ground, but we needed that rent so desperately that I started in. I got lunch too. My husband ate and went off again.

"That evening I sat down to think things over—what were the children and I getting out of life from such a husband and father? I was too tired and too ill to get supper, besides there was next to nothing in the house. So I went to bed with the baby by my side to keep him warm. My daughter, age 9, came home from school, ate what she could find for supper, studied her lessons, and went to bed. Then came my husband, demanding his supper.

"After papering the room and feeling ill, I had just enough pep left to tell him I had made up my mind to stay in bed, and if he wanted anything to eat, he could buy the food and cook it. He argued. I stood pat. He talked for hours, but finally went out and bought himself some supper. I was ill for several days, had just strength enough to crawl around, and do what was necessary for the roomers in the house who helped to pay rent. I drank only milk, so I could nurse my baby.

"After a week of this attitude on my part, my husband secured a job and come home with a pay check. I made out a list of the things I thought necessary to spend the money on, but he figured it out another way. Finally, he agreed to pay the gas and light bill, but I bought a baby buggy, because my baby was getting too heavy to take out for an airing. I bought the baby buggy second hand. My husband was dumfounded and furious.

"Next week he gave me some money to pay the most pressing bills. He was always resentful that he couldn't keep his entire pay check to himself, and he never paid a cent of rent in the house or bought me or the children any clothes, they being donated by my sister. Still he always felt he was doing too much.

News-Journal Page For Women

Fashions

By MARIAN MARTIN

First choice for a new winter-into-spring dress by style-wise matrons . . . the slenderizing JACKET frock!

Pattern 9953 may be ordered only in women's sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46 and 48. Size 36, entire ensemble, requires 5⅝ yards 39 inch.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS in coins for this MARIAN MARTIN pattern. Be sure to write plainly your SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS, and style number.

Send your order to The Mansfield News-Journal, Pattern Department, 232 W. 18th St., New York, N. Y.

Marriage Meddlers

By ADELE GARRISON

Continuation of "Married Comrades"

FOR ALMOST a second, so stark was my panic that I made no movement to lift the telephone receiver from the hook. Then Dicky's voice, with a queer brusqueness investing it, prodded me into action.

"Well!" he said, "sitting there won't get you anywhere. What's eating you anyway? Afraid of the telephone?"

"Yes, I am." I answered stoutly. "You would be too, if—"

He interrupted me with a grin.

"If I had old Phil Veritzen breathing down my neck, you mean. Yes, I think I'd side-step, too. But it's shouting sure he isn't on the wire. In all probability its Miss Whitlock, and you'll want to know what she says."

I picked up the receiver, interrupting a second ring, and the operator's voice conveyed an astonishing message to my ears.

"Is Mr. Charles Cholmondeley Welles still in your suite or has he gone?" the girl asked.

My eyes flew to Dicky's in amazement, and he stepped quickly toward me.

"Why! yes—yes he is still here." I stammered, and Dicky formed the words "For me?" with his lips without uttering a sound.

I nodded, and he stretched out his hand for the receiver. But the operator was speaking again and I could not give it up.

"I have a call for him," she said. "Will you have him come to the telephone, please?"

"He is here now, and ready to talk," I said, and I put the receiver into Dicky's hands.

"I'll explain later," he said. "Don't go away! Stick around!"

I gladly availed myself of the permission, although I had arisen and moved toward the door when he had taken the telephone.

My imagination caromed around impossible theories. Could his caller be the woman whose secret machinations against him I so dreaded? But his first words relieved that fear.

"Ah! Jim—are you there?" he asked, palpably flaunting the Oxford accent which invested his British personality.

"Well!" he demanded an instant later. "What have you found out?"

While "Jim," whoever he might be, answered that question, my husband's every muscle tensed, and his eyes above the telephone receiver waxed fiercely wrathful.

"She did that?" he demanded curtly.

"It is impossible for us to talk over this telephone," he said. "Where can I meet you a half-hour from now, or will that be too late?"

The response was evidently satisfactory, for Dicky said quickly:

"Very well! I'll be there. In the meantime, please check on that very carefully once more. It seems impossible to believe she would dare—. However, I'm not doubting your statement. What's that? Yes. I think that will be ample. I will see you in half an hour. Cheerio!"

But he looked anything but cheery when he hung up the telephone and turned to me.

"I promised to explain this to you," he said tentatively.

"You haven't time," I said with crisp good humor in my voice. "Some other time will do just as well. And I simply must have your opinion upon this letter to Miss Whitlock."

(Continued tomorrow)

HOROSCOPE

For Thursday, January 5.

THE PLANETARY configurations for this day are indicative of great advancement, progress and prosperity. Much personel preferment and esteem, as well as substantial gain, may be won by enterprise, initiative, resourcefulness and ambition. New propositions of worth and importance are assured of the endorsement of those in high places, who may prove generous with capital. Originality, invention and scientific developments may bring reward.

Those whose birthday it is may anticipate a year of great progress and prosperity. It is a time for pushing to high goals with the assurance of substantial support from capital or those in prestige and power. New projects, inventions and scientific developments should flourish, bringing personal recognition and gratification. It should be a happy year, despite hard work and some obstructions.

A child born on this day may be enterprising, energetic and have fine creative talents and much originality. It should be thoroughly practical and dependable.

A little lemon juice sprinkled over chops before they are broiled gives them a distinctive flavor.

Wife Preservers

When buying new furniture, avoid the type that have projections which may break off or catch and tear clothing.

Crabmeat, Oysters Grand Foods

By ALICE LYNN BARRY

OYSTER and crabmeat dishes provide a delightful change from the usual winter fare. An oyster bisque or some curried crabmeat will delight and surprise the family. Unexpected treats add zest to the meal and the extra effort the preparation of such dishes may entail is surely worth while. Besides a change of fare, a deviation from the ordinary is healthful.

The oyster soup requires four tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca, one teaspoon salt, dash of cayenne, dash of paprika, four cups milk, one cup finely-cut oysteters and four tablespoons butter for four large and six small portions. Combine tapioca, salt, cayenne, paprika and milk in top of double boiler. Place over rapidly cooking water, bring to scalding point (allow five to seven minutes), and cook five minutes, stirring frequently. Add oysters and butter, Reheat.

Curried crabmeat calls for two cups hot cooked rice, three tablespoons butter, one and one-half teaspoons minced onions, three tablespoons flour, one tablespoon curry powder, one and one-half cups chicken stock, one and one-half cups fresh or canned crabmeat, tablespoon lemon juice and one-half teaspoon salt. Cook minced onion with butter for three minutes. Then add flour, salt and curry powder, stirring until smooth. Next add chicken stock (liquid made from chicken bouillon cubes or canned chicken broth will serve). Cook until thickened. Add crabmeat from which bones have been removed, and lemon juice. Heat and serve with hot rice.

Eggs and Shrimps.

Belgian eggs and shrimps make a delightful Sunday night supper dish and is a favorite one of the most famous hostesses in Washington. The recipe requires one tablespoon butter, one tablespoon minced parsley, teaspoon dry mustard, one-half teaspoon salt, teaspoon paprika, few grains of capenne, one can shrimps, six hard-boiled eggs (chopped), one-half pint heavy cream and grated cheese. Melt butter in skillet, add parsley, seasonings and prepered shrimps. Heat thoroughly. Add chopped eggs and cream and cook two minutes. Pour into casserole dish. Cover with grated cheese, and brown lightly under broiler or in the oven.

A heavenly dish can be made from a filet or haddock, flounder or any other fish filet. Lay the filet in a shallow baking dish, the bottom of which is covered with bread crumbs. Pour over the fish a sauce made with one tablespoon vinegar, tablespoon Wercestershire sauce, one tablespoon lemon juice, teaspoon salt, one-half cup melted butter, teaspoon prepared mustard and one-eighth teaspoon pepper. Mix until smooth and pour over fish. Garnish with paprika and baste several times. Bake in hot oven, 450 F., for 20 minutes.

My Neighbor Says:

If new tinware is rubbed with fresh lard and thoroughly heated in the oven before it is used, it will never rust, no matter how much it is put into water. For stained tinware borax produces the best results. If a teapot or coffee pot is discolored on the inside, boil it in a strong solution of borax for a short time and all its brightness will return.

Keep flowers out of drafts as much as possible; they are more susceptible to a chill than humans.

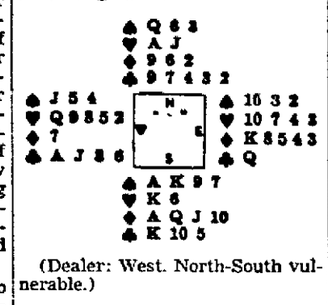
BARCLAY ON BRIDGE

By Shepard Barclay

"The Authority on Authorities"

WATCH LITTLE THINGS

AREN'T YOUR keenest opponents those fellows who seem to remember every little thing that has happened and take advantage of it if the opportunity is later presented? Some kind of inference may be drawn from practically anything that occurs on a hand. It may be useful to you, or it may prove to be unimportant, but it is always well to bear it in mind, for you never know when it may prove a deciding factor.



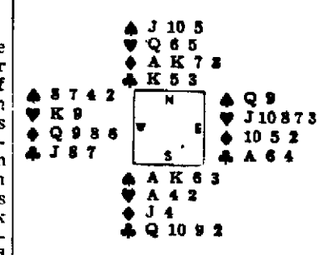
(Dealer: West. North-South vulnerable.)

In a recent duplicate tournament, after two passes East opened the bidding on this deal with a psychic 1-Diamond bid. South bid a vulnerable 2-No Trump over it, North 3-Clubs and South 3-No Trump. West led the heart 5.

Had it not been for the psychic bid, the declarer should have made sure of winning the first trick in the North hand by playing the ace, so that he could have tried a couple of finesses of the diamonds toward West while he still had hearts stopped. But the crazy opening bid gave him a clue to the probable location of the diamond K, very likely thoroughly guarded.

South therefore tried the heart J on the first trick and it held, thus producing one more trick for him than otherwise would have been possible. A first finesse of diamonds was followed by a lead to the spade Q for a second finesse, then an overtake of the heart K by the A for the third finesse. Three more spade tricks and the diamond A were then cashed, giving the declarer four-odd all told, as he had to pass up the last three. By drawing the simple natural inference from the physic bid, he made one more trick than other declarers in the game.

Tomorrow's Problem.



(Dealer: South. North-South vulnerable.)

With West leading the heart K in response to his partner's bid, how should South plan to make 3-No Trump?

THEATERS

M-G-M has a full program mapped out for the new year, with several interesting new player-combinations and the filming of stage plays and novels. Greta Garbo's first picture in more than a year is being filmed now; Norma Shearer has the lead in the tremendously popular play "The Women"; Robert Taylor, Spencer Tracy, and Wallace Beery will do "Northwest Passage"; Loy and Powell will do another "Thin Man" picture; Clark Gable, now working on "Idiot's Delight," with Miss Shearer, will make "The Great Canadian," and the glamorous newcomer, Hedy Lamarr, will make two pictures, one with Spencer Tracy and another with Robert Taylor.

* * *

"Drums" at Madison.

Alexander Korda's much discussed and highly publicized "Drums" will be offered at the Madison theater Thursday, Friday and Saturday. It is a dramatic story of a tribal rebellion in India against English authority and has Sabu, the Hindu boy actor whom Korda introduced in "The Elephant Boy." Sabu plays a small prince whose throne is secure only so long as the territory is under British protectorate. It is an English picture with Valerie Hobson and Irving Lane.

* * *

Ohio Bill Held.

The Ohio will hold "Dawn Patrol" through Friday, thus rounding out a complete week for the exciting film of sky gallantry during the World war. Errol Flynn, David Niven, Donald Crisp, and Basil Rathbone, with the latter's son, Rodion, and Michael Brooke (the Earl of Warwick) in the all-men's cast. The talking picture version measures up to the silent version which was one of the greatest aviation pictures in history.

* * *

Baby Snooks Filmed.

The singing of Allan Jones and Judy Garland and the "Baby Snooks" of Fannie Brice are highlights of the Majestic feature, "Everybody Sing." Reginald Owen, Billie Burke, Reginald Gardiner and Lynne Carver supply capable support in this romantic and hilarious comedy. Wallace Beery, Frank Morgan, and Maureen O'Sullivan in "Port of Seven Seas" is the second feature.

* * *

"Love on a Budget."

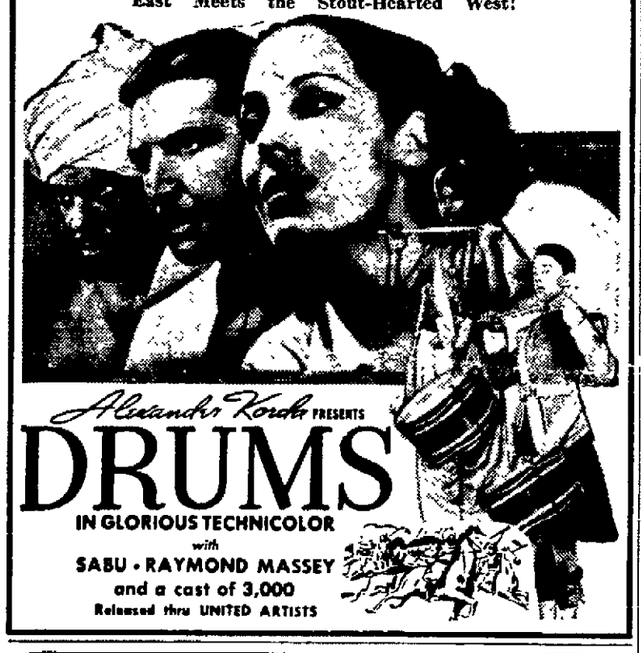
The Jones Family, popular with movie followers, goes on a budget in the latest episode of their film chronicles, which is offered at the Ritz. It shows the honeymooners (Russell Gleason and Shirley Deane) going on a budget and the budget going the way of all such adventures. One of the best of last year's musicals, "The Firefly," with Jeanette MacDonald and Allan Jones, is also being shown.

* * *

Reform School.

One of Bette Davis's earliest pictures, "Hell's House," is reissued and comes to the Park tomorrow for three days. Pat O'Brien plays an heroic villian and Junior Durkin is a youthful hero. A reform school for boys is the locale for most of the action. Donald Crisp and Irene Hervey are seen in "Motive for Revenge" on the same bill.

ELECTRICAL SCALP TREATMENTS
6 Treatments For Only $6.25
(Shampoo Included)
Martha F. Raymore Beauty Salon
134 Park Ave. West
CANAL 3740

Hurry! Last Day! Dick Powell in "Going Places"
MADISON Telephone CANAL 1600
STARTS TOMORROW!
A WOMAN ALONE, Where the Savage East Meets the Stout-Hearted West!


Alexander Korda PRESENTS
DRUMS
IN GLORIOUS TECHNICOLOR
with SABU • RAYMOND MASSEY and a cast of 3,000
Released thru UNITED ARTISTS

WARNER BROS. OHIO
NOW!
Hell Over!
THRU FRIDAY!
MEN . . . AS WOMEN NEVER KNOW THEM!..
A Picture You'll Long Remember!

ERROL FLYNN
in
"THE DAWN PATROL"
with
BASIL RATHBONE
DAVID NIVEN
One Big Week • Starts Sat.
MacDONALD EDDY
WILLARD

Greystone's
New Policy
Starts the Year Right
NO ADMISSION
NO COVER CHARGE
This Week Only
Eddie "Red" Evans
The Genial M-C.
Formerly Featured With Ace Brigode's Virginians
All Star Cast
SATURDAY
FREE MATINEE

PIMPLES From External Causes
Relieve the sore, itchy spots and help heal the ugly defects with—the tested medication in Resinol

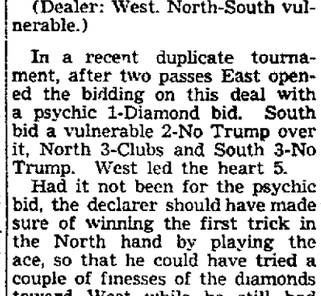
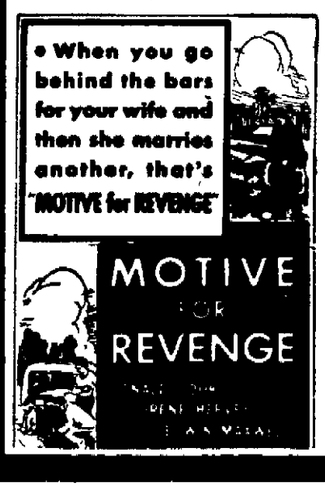
Thrifty



• La Choy Vegetable Chop Suey or Chow Mein is a delicious food for Fast days or a meatless menu. It is ready to heat-and-eat and delicious just as it comes from the can. You may add any kind of leftover meat or sea food. Serve piping hot with La Choy Soy Sauce. Your grocer is offering this delicacy with a can of La Choy Chow Mein Noodles at a low price for both cans.
La Choy Food Products, Inc., Detroit
RECIPE BOOKLET ON REQUEST

Gfrer's DeLuxe Wave $1.95
Other Permanents to $10.00
GFRER'S BEAUTY SALON
161 E. Fourth Canal 1547

TODAY ONLY!
"COME ON LEATHERNECKS" with Richard Cromwell, Marsha Hunt
"A DESPERATE ADVENTURE" with Ramon Novarro, Marian Marsh
REMEMBER! TODAY IS DINNER WARE DAY!
15 PARK 10
Hit No. 1
• When you go behind the bars for your wife and then she marries another, that's "MOTIVE for REVENGE"



STARTS TOMORROW!
Hit No. 2
Two Great Stars Together!
BETTE DAVIS
with PAT O'BRIEN
in
"HELL'S HOUSE"

MAJESTIC
ENDS TOMORROW!

JUDY GARLAND
in
"Everybody Sing"
with Allan Jones—Fannie Brice
Two Entertaining Hits!
PORT OF SEVEN SEAS
WALLACE BEERY
Featuring
Frank MORGAN • Maureen O'SULLIVAN
John Beal • Jessie Ralph
A Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer PICTURE

TODAY and THURSDAY! MAT. 15c RITZ EVE. 20c
15c Till 6 PM
2 BIG HITS!
A GIANT MIRACLE MUSICAL!

Jeanette MacDONALD and Cast of Thousands in THE FIREFLY
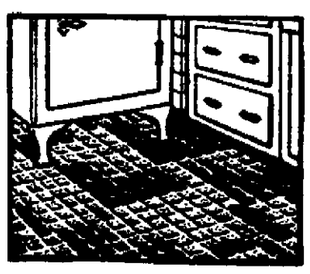
with Allan JONES • Warren WILLIAM
HIT NO. 2
Fun For All!
The JONES FAMILY
—in—
"Love On a Budget"
FRI. and SAT.
"FOUR MEN AND A PRAYER" and "STRAWBERRY ROAN"

Mansfield's Only Exclusive Floor Covering Store


An Attractive Kitchen
Starts With The Floor
And you can be sure of beauty and long wear, if you choose from our complete selection of Armstrong's and Sealex Linoleums.
Mansfield Rug and Linoleum Co.
110 North Main St. Canal 1508

Let Reynold's In '39 Bring You Beauty!
Have You Obtained Your Charm Bracelet as Yet?
With each Charm Wave Reynolds give a delightful, novel Charm Bracelet — the bracelet that everyone wants!
Charm Wave
Machineless Permanent
$2 $2.25 $2.50
REYNOLDS Beauty Studio
63½ N. Main Canal 2634

The H. L. Reed Co.
The Old Reliable
Sale!
ARROW AND ESSLEY
Shirts
All counter soiled and broken pattern shirts go on sale at clearance prices tomorrow.
1.65 Shirts 1.19
2.00 Shirts 1.39
2.50 Shirts 1.79
Counter Soiled
OUTING AND BROADCLOTH
Pajamas
2.00 Pajamas 1.39
3.00 Pajamas 2.19
3.95 Pajamas 2.79
TIES
One Lot of 1.00 Ties 69c
One Lot of 1.50 Ties 98c
A Small Group of 8.95 and 10.95 ROBES
6.95
Flannel and Rayon

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

Budge Launches Pro Career With Impressive Victory

Random Shots

CHAMPS WITHOUT CROWNS IN 1938 INCLUDE GETCHELL, DOYLE, AND SHAW.

By OSCAR RUHL,
News-Journal Sports Editor.

UNCROWNED CHAMPS OF 1938

THE referee, John Getchell, who informed the Carnegie Tech quarterback of the wrong down to permit Notre Dame to score the winning touchdown three plays later.

The fighter, Jack Doyle, who knocked himself out when he missed his opponent, fell between the ropes, and struck his head on the edge of the ropes.

The English soccer team that disbanded because eight of the players were courting and the young ladies demanded their attention.

The Santa Clara coach, Buck Shaw, who refused to play a game with Detroit with the try for extra points eliminated, and then lost the game, 7 to 6.

The horse, Cal, that darted through a gap in the fence during a race, headed for the barn, and called it quits.

The promoter at the Milwaukee auditorium who introduced mud wrestling in a hall "dedicated to the progress of the community."

The wrestling coach who painted a sign on the gym ceiling which read: "If you can read this sign you're in the wrong position."

The New Jersey high school end named Nicholas Papatheodorcomoundourpoulos, who was tough for the printers, too.

The hockey goalie who suffered slight burns when a pug crazed his hip and set fire to a box of matches in his pocket.

The freshman gridder named Hobart, who played for Hobart.

The football fan who was dreaming he was playing in a game, leaped from his bed and kicked the glass out of a window before awakening.

The golfer, Ray Ainsley, who took 19 on one hole in the National Open.

The Chicago Cardinals pro football team that demanded time for one more play before the half against the Bears and then fumbled the ball on the next play which was recovered by an opponent player, who ran 65 yards for a touchdown.

The Harvard Polo pony which kicked in the goal that won the intercollegiate indoor title for Yale.

The master of ceremonies at a banquet before the Rose Bowl game who forgot to introduce the guest of honor, Frank Thomas, Alabama coach.

The basketball timer who fired his revolver through an open skylight at the end of a game and a plump pigeon plummeted lifeless to the court.

The basketball forward who was the high scorer for both his team and the opponent, tallying 16 of his team's 45 points and accidentally scored a field goal for two of his opponent's four points.

* * *

Offered Jimmy Foxx Drink at Plate.

THE fan who rushed from the grandstand to offer a drink to Jimmy Foxx as he crossed home plate after hitting a home run

The Marquette line coach Tarzan Taylor, who drove 240 miles to see a football game and then remained in his automobile outside of the stadium to listen to the game over the radio because it was raining.

The golfer who sank a 25-yard shot from the side of a tree by bending his niblick "L" shape.

The Phillies' outfielder, Herschel Martin, who sprained his ankle demonstrating the correct way to slide into a base

The softball pitcher who had his teammates play cards behind the mound as he struck out three men in the ninth to win a championship.

The minor league manager, Jake Flowers, who won the Eastern Shore league title for the second straight year and was fired

The golfer who watched his partner make a hole-in-one and then said 'That's easy I'll make one, too" and did.

The football coach, Dana Bible highest paid mentor in the southwest, whose Texas team lost eight straight games

The pitcher Waite Hoyt, who hit his first home run in 23 years and then in spring training

The sports writer Robert Sieger of the Detroit News who took all the time to compile a list of "Uncrowned Champions" from which many of the above were swiped.

Lutherans Face Another Test

The First Lutherans edged First Presbyterian 19 to 17 in the hardest battle staged in the Class B Church league at the Y M C A last night. The Lutherans led 4 to 1 at the end of the first period and 10 to 6 at the half, but gave up the lead in the third quarter The Lutheran club made up the one-point deficit in the final period.

B. Condon, with 10 points, led the Park Baptists to a 24 to 10 victory over Mayflower, while St. John whipped First M. E., 19 to 11. First Christian decisioned Central M. E., 25 to 13.

There was a Charley McCarthy playing football for little Wagner college last fall.

SAMMY SNEAD RECEIVES HARRY VARDON PLAQUE

HOUSTON, Tex.,— (AP) —The name of Slammin' Sammy Snead, a former golf caddy, today was enscribed on a plaque destined to honor the great men of golf.

Snead, of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., was given the Harry Vardon award—the second man to win the coveted prize donated by the P. G. A. in honor of the great English golfer who died two years ago.

Helps Bishops

One of the reasons for the fine early season showing of Ohio Wesleyan's basketball team is Jimmy Reiser, veteran forward from New Philadelphia. Reiser is a sure shot from any position on the floor. He was on the Associated Press' all-Buckeye football team last fall, having starred as a pass-catching end where his basketball hands snared many passes.

Lutheran Five Hangs Up Win

Edges Presbyterian, 19-17, in Class B League.

The First Lutheran cagers are slated to get another dose of trouble at the Y. M. C. A. tonight when they engage the Mayflower Congregationals in the 8.45 p. m. game on the Class A Church league schedule.

The Lutherans, who dropped their first game of the season last week to First M E, need a victory tonight to stay in the race for the title The Methodists meet Central M E in the first game at 6:45

Episcopal and Park Baptists tangle in the second game, with St John and Temple Emanuel meeting in the final tilt.

Lutheran 19.	G	F	Presbyterian 17	G	F
Bush f	0	0	R. Collins f	1	1
Motson f	0	0	Simpson f.	0	0
Sickmiller, f	1	1	F. Wagner, f	2	1
Stewart f	0	0	Meeker c	2	1
Smith c	2	0	Hughes c	0	0
Reichert c	1	0	N. Wagner, g	1	2
Slaybaugh g	3	0	D. Collins g.	0	0
LeMunyon g	2	0	Malone g.	0	0
Mayflower 10			Baptist 24.
	G	F		G	F
Southward f	0	0	Rayburn f.	1	0
Roth, f	0	0	Hershey f	3	1
Stoughton f.	0	1	Hulit f	0	0
Huss, f	0	0	B. Condon, c	5	0
Heilman c	1	1	Stehle c	2	0
Roadpouch, c	0	0	G. Murphy, g	0	0
Miles, g	0	1	B. Murray g	0	0
Cole g	0	0	C. Condon g	0	1
Laird g	2	1	Lantz g	0	0
First M E 11			St. John's 19
	G	F		G	F
Ray f	3	0	Hamilton f.	1	1
Pfahler f	1	0	Moyer f	2	0
Rimmler f	0	0	Schaff f	0	0
Miller c	0	0	Brubach c	1	1
Garn g	1	1	Krumm g	0	1
Maxwell g	0	0	Columbus g.	1	0
Ammeter g	0	0
Christian 25			Central M. E.
	G	F		G	F
Nixon f	2	2	Baker f	1	0
Durbin f			Jones f	1	1
Hammet f	1	1	Au f	1	0
Fleming c	0	0	Stretch c	1	1
Tapper c	0	1	Heifner g	0	1
Moorhead g	3	1	Hostetter g	1	0
Shirley g	1	1

PANTHERS TRIM RANGERS IN SETTLEMENT GAME

Led by Weber, who tallied 10 points, the Panthers defeated the Rangers, 23 to 18, in a Junior Optimist club league game at the Friendly House yesterday The Panthers led 9 to 6 at the half. The Rams whipped the Indians, 16 to 7, in the other game

Rangers 18.	G	F	Panthers 23.	G	F
Altomonte f	4	0	Jacka, f	1	1
Carbetta, f	0	0	Perry f	3	0
Miller f	0	0	Schadek f	2	0
Sumption f	1	0	Weber c	4	2
Romano c	3	0	Colangelo g.	0	0
Christ c	0	0	Massine g.	0	0
Gossum g.	1	0
M Sferio g	0	0
Vetrano g	0	0
Indians 7			Rams 16.
	G	F		G	F
P Sferio, f	1	1	Carbetta, f	3	1
Pegg f	0	0	Treneff f	0	0
C Carbetta c	0	0	R Konves f	0	1
J Geiger g	2	0	Jackson f	0	0
Giorioso, g	0	0	Leitenberger c	1	0
			F. Carbetta g	0	0
			Zartman g	0	0
			Hamilton, g	2	0
			F Conves g	1	0

KNOCKS OUT RAMEY

ROCHESTER, N. Y.—Joey Boscarino 139, Rochester, knocked out Wesley Ramey, 135½, Grand Rapids, Mich., (5).

HOUSTON Tex.—Irish Eddie McGeever, 142 Scranton, Pa. outpointed Kenny La Salle, 148, Houston, (10).

BOWLING SCORES

Wolf, Hollingsworth Lead Scoring in Tire League.

GAMES of 188, 224 and 223 enabled Wolf of the Tire Room to set the scoring pace in the Mansfield Tire league at the Meder alleys last night. His 635 total, however, failed to help his teammates win more than one game from Curing Room No. 1.

Hollingsworth of the Foremen shot a 632 from scores of 195, 224 and 213 to lead his team to a clean sweep over the Mill Room, led by Willard's 601.

Schmidt of the Air Bag No. 1 compiled a 609, but Curing Room No. 2, paced by Weakland's 601, took two games.

Curing Room No. 2.
Wolf	143	119	253	415
Bakl	148	132	139	419
Tschantz	187	143	146	476
Weakland	224	155	222	601
Weems	232	156	161	549
Totals	934	705	821	2460
Air Bag No. 1.
Berry	138	158	178	474
Stanningis	140	138	125	403
Stutz	135	102	136	373
Leathers	149	130	128	407
Schmidt	204	223	182	609
Handicap	51	51	51	153
Totals	817	802	800	2419
Foremen.
Hollingsworth	195	224	213	632
J Leathers	192	174	216	582
I. Cutting	169	131	119	419
C Schultz	131	181	185	497
Appland	177	189	190	556
Totals	864	899	923	2686
Mill Room.
Shively	167	215	156	538
Hock	157	146	132	435
McGregor	127	128	185	440
Willard	200	202	199	601
Grohol	161	181	208	550
Totals	812	872	880	2564
Curing Room No. 1.
J McPhern	169	176	175	520
J. Rissler	149	183	143	475
R. Metcalf	182	185	157	524
L. Rissler	162	190	181	533
Forrest	194	180	159	533
Totals	856	914	815	2585
Tire Room.
Gross	154	192	180	526
Estep	172	173	147	492
Cline	96	150	122	368
Thieding	188	163	171	523
Wolf	188	224	223	635
Handicaps	7	7	7	21
Totals	805	909	850	2564
Columbia Warehouse.
Morgan	113	117	160	390
Francis	131	116	138	385
Doert	132	126	110	368
Beer	77	129	108	314
Beal	149	217	161	527
Handicap	15	15	15	45
Totals	617	720	692	2029
Factory Office.
Troll	182	152	164	498
Mochel	103	126	120	349
Clark	117	112	163	392
Mahoney	165	166	135	466
Martin	160	137	185	482
Totals	727	693	767	2187
Mansfield Tire Service Stores.
Messmore	164	177	150	491
Yahraus	132	145	100	377
Ellis	163	185	129	469
Metcalf	131	133	157	421
Haley	176	163	214	553
Totals	766	803	752	2321
Breaker Assembly.
Schmidt	157	163	193	513
Burdett	135	167	158	460
Schultz	162	144	196	502
Minard	192	141	130	463
Eberts	179	170	184	533
Totaist	825	785	861	2471
Air Bag No. 2.
C Weiland	115	132	226	473
Roser	130	148	119	397
Fisher	109	107	129	345
Stevens	188	182	150	520
Kissane	172	138	183	493
Totals	714	707	807	2228
Main Office No. 2.
Bell	180	149	155	484
Davis	143	132	133	408
Dalton	97	130	151	378
Linster	134	156	166	456
Rinehart	166	170	206	542
Totals	720	737	811	2268
Maintenance.
Hock	140	136	177	453
Laird	105	144	167	416
Wentz	179	124	134	437
Tucker	136	208	156	500
Donnellan	145	196	172	513
Totals	705	808	806	2319
Shipping.
Berry	147	141	142	430
Keifer	115	130	103	348
West	104	94	113	311
Steltz	99	120	137	356
Heckert	100	135	104	339
Handicap	51	51	51	153
Totals	616	671	650	1937
Main Office No. 1.
Lichtenberger	195	156	200	551
Young	143	130	127	400
Kuhn	129	125	126	380
Hoffman	166	116	143	425
Fenn	172	183	158	513
Totals	805	710	754	2269
FORFEIT.
Product Development.
E. Donnan	144	153	169	466
R. Painter	191	154	121	466
R Graboskey	141	190	173	504
Hansen	127	114	130	371
Dunn	144	177	168	489
Totals	747	788	751	2296
Inspection.
Jim Stecker	180	193	195	568
S Leuthold	128	107	106	341
VanHarlinger	113	127	112	352
Mason	114	141	160	415
Fulwider	147	138	141	456
Handicap	16	16	16	48
Totals	698	752	730	2180

MILLER DECISIONED

ROCHESTER, N Y. — (AP) — Freddie Miller of Cincinnati was decisioned by Jackie Callura of Toronto last night. Miller, former featherweight champion, weighed 126¾: Callura, 125.

Julius Heil Wisconsin governor, backs the famous Heil Products bowling team of Milwaukee.

Cook Optimistic as Barons Extend Victories

After dropping several early games, the Cleveland Barons have recovered winning form, and Coach Bill Cook predicts the club will lead the International league. Some of the stars of the team are pictured with Coach Cook. The Barons meet Hershey, Pa., in Cleveland tonight.

Forward Pass Rule Changed

Revisions to Help Both Offense and Defense.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo — (AP)—Football fans probably will be treated next season to some variations of one of the game's most spectacular plays—the forward pass.

Qualified observers predicted that as a result of two minor changes in rules made by the national rules committee in closing its yearly session at Broadmoor yesterday there would be greater use of the "shovel" or short pass back of the line of scrimmage and far less "screening" on long aerials

One revision will help the offensive team This provides that if an ineligible player is hit by a forward pass, the penalty shall be loss of down and 15 yards, instead of loss of the ball.

The other change will aid the team defending against passes It will require that all ineligible players stay in the three-yard "zone" at the line of scrimmage until after a pass is thrown, thus reducing the number of players going downfield.

The committee also decreed the football warrior must wear thicker pads at thigh and knee, must wear a headguard at all times and his cleats must be enlarged to a half-inch in diameter at the end.

Resume Play In City Loop

Clubs Swing Into Action Again Monday Night.

Hostilities in the City Class A basketball league will be resumed on the Mansfield high planks Monday night when the circuit presents its final program in the opening round championship race.

Heading the two-game program will be the meeting between the undefeated Yuncker Sports and the Westinghouse Electric combine who clash in the second tilt at 8:30 o'clock.

Monday evening's card opens with a battle between the Herrick Hi-Speeds and the Elks Lodge club.

Cohen Looks Over Baseball Situation

Norman Cohen, Toledo attorney, who has taken an option on the Mansfield franchise in the Ohio State league, was a visitor in the city Tuesday.

Although he has made no definite plans to operate a club in the class D circuit, Cohen said that he would return later in the week to confer with Mansfield business and civic leaders to learn whether the city is interested in the revival of organized baseball. Cohen, in his brief stay, visited the available Mansfield baseball parks.

He was accompanied by Paul Shank, president of the league, and Ollie Marquardt, manager of the Clinton club in the Three-I league.

Sexton, Welch Tangle Friday

Sedalia Farmer to Return After Long Absence.

Frank Sexton, giant matman from Sedalia, will defend his Ohio heavyweight wrestling title in Mansfield on Friday night. Promoters of the Quality club announced yesterday that they had signed the powerful grappler to oppose Cleve Welch of Cleveland in the top battle of a three-ply card in the Armory.

Sexton's last visit to this vicinity was three years ago, while he was still a student at Ohio State university. He was then a gangling youth with plenty of determination, lacking the finesse obtainable only through continued work on the professional pad.

The past three years have treated Sexton well. He has added weight and now tips the beam at the 230 mark and stands six feet, three inches in height. His speed has increased noticeably and he moves easier, despite the increased weight.

Welch is unknown locally, never having appeared here before. He comes well-rated, however, and the fact that Sexton has returned is ample proof that he seriously considers the Clevelander as a threat to his supremacy. They will wrestle for two out of three falls, with a time limit of one hour. Two more attractive bouts will be on the card, which starts at 8:30.

Apostoli, Conn Tangle Friday

Open 1939 Punch Parade in Madison Garden.

NEW YORK—(UP)—The 1939 punch parade opens in Madison Square Garden Friday night and the two men who meet in the major event may rule two divisions before the year ends.

The battle matches Billy Conn of Pittsburgh, a 21-year-old Irish youth making his New York debut, with Freddie Apostoli of San Francisco, "half-crowned" middleweight king.

A little over two years ago Conn had to have his trousers patched so he could run down to Fairmont, W Va., to make his first ring appearance, for which he received $3. Friday he participates in a main event at the Garden, his first fight on the big time. Astute observers predict he'll be light-heavyweight king by 1940.

Apostoli is recognized as middleweight champion by the New York commission, while Solly Krieger of New York holds the title insofar as the National Boxing association is concerned.

Conn, tall brown-haired son of a Pittsburgh steamfitter, has won four times over former champions during his three years in the ring. He beat Teddy Yarosz twice, Abe Risko and Vince Dundee once and split in two fights with Krieger.

The youngster is on the short end of 8-5 betting for Friday's brawl.

Calhoun Paces O. S. R. In Win

Scores 23 Points in Game With Lodi Cagers.

Calhoun and Murphy again set the pace as the reformatory cagers continued their winning ways at the institution yesterday by taking the Fetzer Brothers of Lodi into camp by a 57 to 41 count.

Calhoun contributed 23 points to his team's total, while Murphy scored 15. Mong was high for the visitors with 15.

The first period ended in a 12-12 tie, but the inmates went ahead in the next quarter to hold a 28 to 24 lead at halftime. The reformatory added to its lead in the third period, which ended 41 to 31.

O. S. R. 57.	G	F	Fetzer Bros. 41.	G	F
Taylor, rf	0	0	Freeman, rf.	2	1
Murphy, lf	7	1	Mong, lf	7	1
Hutchison, lf	0	0	Leatherman, c	0	1
Calhoun c	11	1	Roberts c	1	0
Lancaster c.	0	0	W. Wilson rg	5	0
Price, rg	3	1	H. Wilson, lg.	4	0
Doran, rg	0	0
Law rg	0	0
Brown, lg	5	0
Maver, lg.	1	0
Fetzer Brothers, Lodi	12	12	7	10
O. S. R.	12	16	13	16

Referee—C. Herrick.

REMAINS IN FRONT

Boston continued its domination of the National Hockey league race today, keeping four points ahead of the pressing New York Rangers by scoring a 2-1 victory over the Americans from Gotham before 10,000 fans last night.

GRANTED RACE DATES

CLEVELAND—(U.P.)—The North Randall Racing association today had been granted 33 days of running races for 1939 by the Ohio racing commission.

Gus Glad He's Through With Alumni, Campus

By HENRY McLEMORE

LOS ANGELES — (UP) — E. C. Henderson, known to the trade as "Gloomy Gus," is grateful that the three fates who guide human destiny — Tom, Dick and Harry — have seen to it that at least he is finished with alumni and sorority sisters.

After 29 years of coaching football, mostly collegiate, Henderson is headed for Detroit to serve as top man for the professional Detroit Lions.

"It will be mighty fine," he beamed, "to coach a team where the players are playing because they love the game and not because some dewy-eyed maidens from a sorority have saucily refused to give them the first waltz at the junior prom unless they make the team. Half the big fellows I coached at college came out for football, not because they liked the game, but because of some sweetheart's desire to see them make a letter."

Before he turned to coaching professional pigskinners, Henderson served six years as head coach at Southern California, and eleven years at the University of Tulsa.

"It is a peculiar thing," Henderson told me, "but as soon as a man signs to coach a college team all the graduates of that college are automatically granted riparian rights on the coach's scalp, and given the privilege to build a nest in his hair. Once in his hair they stay there until he resigns or is fired. If you build teams they demand character, and if you build character they want teams. A pro team has no alumni association. The supporters of a pro team contribute nothing more to the scholarship fund than the price of a ticket. All they want is football and I believe we will be able to give it to them at Detroit."

Henderson goes to Detroit bearing an impressive record as a coach. He came to U. S. C. in 1919, when the Trojans were push-overs, and in five years lifted them to national prominence. In 1924 he led them into their first Rose Bowl game, and an easy win over Penn State. From USC, the man they call "Gloomy Gus" moved to Tulsa, which was then strictly jerkwater insofar as football was concerned. Before he left he saw a Tulsa team ranked sixth in the United States.

His last job, and the one he has right now, is that of coach of the Los Angeles Bulldogs. His bulldogs have won 49 games and lost five in the last three years.

16,725 See Don In Garden Debut

Former Amateur Monarch Wins In Straight Sets From Outplayed Elly Vines.

By LAWTON CARVER

NEW YORK — (INS) — J. Donald Budge, California's long-legged, freckle-faced red-head, was launched today on a professional tennis career that threatens to become both an artistic and a financial success, surpassing the wildest dreams of the son of a none too prosperous laundry man.

Artistically he was somewhat better than all right at Madison Square Garden last night as he made his debut as a touring trouper, defeating Ellsworth (Slim) Vines by 6-3, 6-4, 6-2, and from a financial standpoint he started, to put it in a few words, toward a fortune. The capacity crowd was counted at 16,725 and the gross receipts totalled $47,120.

Vines Plays Stooge.

Thus was another star inducted into the ranks of the professionals with Vines again playing stooge, a role he embraced when he left the amateurs to meet Tilden in 1934 and still was playing as late as two years ago when he was the foil for Fred Perry in the latter's defection.

Thus, too, was started a nine week's tour through approximately 60 cities for Budge and Vines as the former works his way toward $75,000 guaranteed him by Promoter Jack Harris, who also is a little amazed by it all He expected Budge and Vines to go over, but envisioned no such assemblage as the complete sellout which greeted the spectacle on green canvas under lights.

That canvas covering over a composition floor hard as marble and the trickery of the lights so strange to him, were expected to contribute to the downfall of Budge.

But instead it was he who played good—not great but good—tennis and beat the admitted monarch of the professionals. In fact, Budge didn't have to be great. Vines was pretty terrible at times, caught as he was repeatedly by his own errors. In a few words, Vines had all the pace on the ball for which he is famous, but was sadly lacking in control, and, under the circumstances, the outcome was inevitable. His volleying and his forehand—next to his serve most important factors in his game—simply bogged down and left him stranded.

To get downright technical, Budge's really superb backhand, his serves, his sporadically good forehand and his adequate volleying won the match against an opponent who was either badly off his game or extremely lazy. Vines did not look very good, especially when he repeatedly blew leads and was overhauled.

Match Lacks Appeal.

Finally, in the last set, Vines actually seemed subdued as he went on to a one-sided 6-2 loss that ended the match and everything for the time being. While two of the greatest sluggers of all time slugged through a good part of the match it lacked appeal because of Vines' wildness and was quite unsatisfactory as a spectacle Some of the customers went so far as to emit a jeer by way of giving vent to their disappointment.

By the middle of March all this may be changed. Vines lost tour-opening matches at the Garden against both Tilden and Perry and went on to handy victories before the thing was over. However, if he is going to wind up ahead of Budge on the series he will have to play a lot better tennis than he displayed last night.

COLLEGE BASKETBALL

Illinois 35, Cornell 34.
Duquesne 54, Western Reserve 33.
Purdue 52, Western Illinois Teachers 30.
Ohio Wesleyan 49, Marietta 45.
Mt. Union 45, Lawrence Tech (Detroit) 37

HIGH SCHOOL BASKETBALL

Fostoria 27, Fostoria St Wendelin 26.
Lorain 25, Sandusky 24.

Reserve Finds Going Tough On Hardwood

Suffers 2nd Straight Loss to Duquesne Five.

COLUMBUS—(UP)—The Western Reserve basketball team encountered rocky going toward its goal of emulating the remarkable record of the unbeaten-untied Red Cat football team last fall.

After winning five games from Ohio squads, the Reserve cagers have dropped two games to outstate outfits. First loss was to powerful Indiana last week, and last night Duquesne tripped the Cats, 54 to 33, at Pittsburgh.

While not expecting to win every game, the Red Cat five was determined to call a halt to the two-game losing streak tonight against Penn State at State College, Pa.

Only other contest on the books tonight finds an invading Lawrence Tech club from Detroit playing Akron. The Michigan visitors lost a 45 to 37 decision to Mt. Union last night.

Ohio Wesleyan's high-scoring Bishops rolled up a 46 to 31 score over Marietta at Delaware last night and then had to wait out a Pioneer rally. The Bishops finally pulled out a victory, 49 to 45, after a bad scare. Steve Nesha, Marietta center, tallied 20 points, while Bill Rohr of Wesleyan scored 14.

Charles Jones Leads Figures

Sports 193 Average in First Third of Season.

Sporting a 193-pin average in 33 games, Charles Jones of the Mansfield Printers leads the figures in the Commercial B league at the conclusion of the first third of the season.

Harold LeMunyon of the Heilman Grocers is in second place with a 192 mark, and Henry Stauffer of the Burghardt Cafe and Pete Linster of the Mansfield Rugs are tied for third place with 191 averages. The average leaders follow:

C Jones	193	J Dunn	184
LeMunyon	192	C. Willis	184
Stauffer	191	Young	183
Linster	191	H. Hipp	183
Diamond	190	Flood	183
Y. Jones	189	Yuncker	183
Bookman	189	Fuston	183
Hazelwood	188	Selby	182
Smith	188	F. Willis	182
Adams	187	Daum	182
Maier	187	Swank	181
Heilman	187	Hursh	181
Messimer	187	R. Anthony	180
Gimble	185	Warren	180
Geiger	185	Altman	180
Johns	185

HAT and TIE Cleaning Special

1 Man's Hat
Expertly Cleaned and Blocked

AND

3 Neckties
Dry Cleaned and Finished

AT THE VERY SPECIAL PRICE OF 50c

AT ANY OF THESE DRY CLEANERS WITH PLANTS:

MORGAN'S Cleaners and Furriers — Canal 1788
SOWASH BROS. Dry Cleaning — Canal 1212—Canal 1670
FUSCO'S Dry Cleaning — Canal 1114—Canal 2727
SWAN'S Dry Cleaning — Canal 4433

AND IN ADDITION AT ANY OF THE FOLLOWING:

Dent's Dry Cleaning — Canal 2660
Dick's Modern Dry Cleaning — Canal 4544
Hayden & Riggs — Canal 2594
Moon Cleaning and Pressing — Erie 3702
Nagle & Bauer — Erie 2325
Peter Schnerer — Adams 2773

Schweitzer's Dry Cleaning and Tailoring—Erie 3834

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

ROMANCE, INC. + + +

By OREN ARNOLD

(Copyright, 1938)

CHAPTER 28

At 9:10 Thornton was dressed, but he telephoned Sara Sue before going to Peaches' home.

"Sara Sue? Sorry to interrupt you—you were dressing?—but I wish advice on one more detail. Shall I drive my own car tonight, or take Peaches in a taxicab?"

Sara Sue smiled. That was just like him! He was still a kid, despite his years and degrees. He needed big-sistering. He still was not sure of himself. He probably was jittery with nervousness.

"Doesn't matter," she ruled. "Or maybe—yes, take the taxi. It will keep your attention free. And—your arms!"

"I beg pardon? Oh, arms. Ha ha. Yes."

What would be expected of him in that regard? The thought startled him.

"Shall I—?" he stammered into the phone. "It would seem—ill timed—that is, in view of the—"

"Listen, Thornton Holgate," Sara Sue cut in, not too gently nor sympathetically. "I am not telling you what you should do tonight, but I am telling you that every man who had ever made any headway with Geraldine Pomeroy has been a heavy petter . . . Yes, petter. Necker. Whatever you want to name it. She flings woo. She likes her men—"

Sara Sue halted, ashamed of herself. That sounded spiteful, and was, however truthful it was also.

—"Oh, I'm afraid I've done all I can, now, Thornton. You'll have to paddle your own canoe tonight, old dear!" She was a little bit exasperated with him—as well as terribly in love with him. She couldn't—just couldn't — tell him any more, tonight, about making love to another girl!

At 9:30 o'clock Thornton was helping Peaches into his taxi.

Their greeting had been most cordial. He had, in all truth, been momentarily dazzled by the brilliance of her. For the first time he had seen her—so to speak—in full array. Her black eyes and hair, her expert makeup, her natural eagerness to go to this dance (and with one of the current campus heroes) made Peaches gorgeous to behold. Nobody in fact had ever denied that Miss Pomeroy could be beautiful.

Tonight she had paid special attention to her costume, for a very special reason. It was known about the town and campus that Don Romero del Celiedor, captain of the Mexican football team, would lead the grand march at midnight with whatever American girl he should choose. Inevitably there would be competition! Moreover, the other and momentarily greater campus hero would be there—he who of late had been neglecting Peaches.

Her Spanish evening gown was of whitest satin. It was tight, almost too form fitting, from the shoulders to a line below the hips—then it flared theatrically with a hundred tiny ruffles. Her hair dress was in loose flat waves close to her shapely head, a complete change from the styles of the past spring and summer, but the small low knot behind was concealed by Peaches' mantilla, a gorgeous white lace on a golden comb.

Two spots of color adorned her further. One was a half-open red rose over the left ear. The other, not colorful in itself, nevertheless held all of color and seemingly all of beauty known to this universe, caught and reflected and held and displayed dazzlingly and pageantry around her. It was a bracelet of diamonds — a rather well-known bracelet given to Peaches by her father when she had been chosen for the Rice yearbook beauty pages the year before. Many a man, and many a girl, had already admired the Pomeroy bracelet. The expensive piece merited all the admiration it had received.

* * *

Poor Thornton tried with reasonable success to tell the truth—that Peaches looked beautiful. Any man could have been proud of her, then. Nevertheless, he persistently looked glum. And felt glum. He wasn't sure why.

They talked some in the taxi He lapsed into his rather cold formality, with no cause, wondering at the conflict of emotions within him. He thought, almost hysterically, of the possibilities of petting. He could not bring himself to touch her, and yet could not tell himself why.

"You may find the crowd a bit slow at first, Thornton," she was saying. "I don't know what you are used to back east—you are new in Rice—but some of this gang knows how to have a good time."

"Oh, I dare say!"

"The party will get peppy later," she winked, meaningly, "even if it starts off slow. It always does."

He swallowed hard. He felt that he understood, too well.

It meant that a couple of hours would be necessary for her and her crones to become sufficiently intoxicated. It meant that most of the conventions would then be discarded. It meant that Peacnes would expect him to go the pace with her.

He took a deep breath. Well, he asked for this. He wasn't meeting anything blindly, and he wasn't going to be a nonconformist. Again he resolved to go her pace this night, even if it killed him!

* * *

The number of young men asking to take Sara Sue Davis to the International ball, up to a sort of unofficial closing time Saturday noon, totaled nine. Since September the news had gotten around in Houston as well as on the Rice campus that the widow Davis was back in society and was, if anything, more charming than ever before. Five of the requests came from Rice students, one from the faculty (a rather likeable Dr. Swartz, in chemistry), and three from outside. One of the outside three was first, and he was lucky.

He was Mr. T. J. Sanders, head salesman for Columbia Sporting Goods corporation. Like any good salesman, he had planted his sale weeks before, cultivated it right and won the harvest. He was ahead of Bob Towne just by 24 hours. Worthington Gurley had even asked to take Sara Sue—but young Worthington had encountered a magnificent adventure in the intervening weeks, and so now would take his charming new wife, Marcia.

* * *

Sara Sue had given much thought to the age-old question of what to wear to this ball. Many of the girls would be in Spanish costume. She investigated that, found that she could rent one for $15 and make one for a little more.

"But I am a poor widder woman, T. J.," she told him, "and $15 looks as big as the football stadium."

"I will take up a collection," he jibed. "But I don't care what you wear. Come in your slacks and I'll still bet $50 you are the belle of the ball."

He would have won his bet.

Some girl, it seems, has to dominate every dance in North America. Some one girl whose personality and beauty stands out. It is the American way.

Sara Sue had the looks and personality, and the prominence. Nature had seen to the former, and the newspapers recently had seen to the latter. She and her cottage for Counsel in Romance had been publicized in every paper from the New York Times to the Houston Press, inclusive, the syndicated feature services having shown only a little less enthusiasm than the home-town editors. Sara Sue's beauty was nationally known. She had, in fact, been contacted by at least two movie talent scouts, and had received them rather coldly, having her own ideas about where happiness lay.

Inevitably, therefore, people at the dance centered their attention largely on her. People who knew her pointed her out to people who didn't, and introduced her. At least a dozen men tried to introduce her to the Mexican football captain, Don Romero Celiedor; it got to be a joke between them.

In the final decision, Sara Sue had worn one of the three evening dresses she already owned. It was a relatively simple—hence exceptionally becoming — creation in "Rice blue." Only contrasting color was gray. The blue and gray, Rice colors. Who would have thought they could make such a beautiful gown?

* * *

Other girls asked each other that, and answered that it was Sara Sue herself who made it beautiful. It had been chosen for taste, not for cost nor flash. It made her look 16 at a distance, 18 up close; she who was actually 23.

She and T. J. saw Thornton Holgate during the first intermission, chanced to stop dancing only a few feet away. In the gay rush of greetings (in which Peaches Pomeroy took no part) Thornton showed genuine pleasure.

"I am proud of you, Sara Sue!" he declared, untactfully. "You look charming! Does she not, Mr. Sanders?"

Mr. Sanders was nodding and declaring he would tell the cockeyed world she did, and several more couples crowded up to talk. Peaches led Thornton away.

Big Bob Towne came to claim Sara Sue for the next dance—he had wheedled three dances off T. J.'s program. Laughter and conversation filled the great ballroom now. That intangible atmosphere of relaxation and gaiety which can be created only by a college crowd was taking hold. The music was more than excellent. The hall itself—the big University club—had been elaborately decorated to resemble a hacienda, rich in the figurative and literal color of Mexico and Spain. A few people could and did speak Spanish to each other, and practically everybody else was laughingly trying it.

T. J. Sanders would catch some man talking attentively to Sara Sue, sidle up to him ominously, twist his own imaginary mustache and speak fiercely, "You lak thees senorita, my fran? You make thee fight wiz me, HAH?" Then he would draw a pretend dagger and strike a pose.

After a while he acquired a letter opener (snitched from the club secretary's desk) which really gleamed like a dagger, and that added zest to his act. Sara Sue told him he was childish. But he was not; he was a happy swain showing off, which is a masculine privilege.

* * *

During the intermission between dances four and five—when almost everybody knew almost everybody else—Bob Towne and Don Romero staged an impromptu act in the middle of the floor.

A cute little girl with the orchestra had come out to sing and tap dance, and she wore a bull's head of papier mache. Don Romero, full of mischief, siezed the false head, slipped it over his own head and shouted "VIVA EL TORO! VIVA MEXICO!"

Bob Towne instantly snatched a bright red shawl from some girl's costume and challenged the "bull" to a fight. The orchestra drummer, joining the spirit of play, furnished sundry roarings on his drums, and everybody shrieked and laughed hilariously. Especially in the end, when the "bull" caught the brave matador and tossed him out of the ring.

(To Be Continued)

RADIO PROGRAMS

(All programs subject to change without notice.)

Today's Programs

1070-WTAM-220 CLEVELAND	700-WLW-428 CINCINNATI	1030-CKLW-291 DETROIT	750-WJR-400 DETROIT
4:00—Backstage Wife	Kitty Keene	Sleepy Valley	Three Aces
4:15—Stella Dallas	Midstream	" " "	News Room
4:30—Vic and Sade	Beautiful Life	" " "	Reminiscing
4:45—Girl Alone	The Hatterfields	" " "	" " "
5:00—Dick Tracy	Houseboat	Rhythm-Rhaps'y	U. S Navy Band
5:15—Your Family	Terry & Pirates	Johnson Family	March of Games
5:30—Jack Armstrong	Jack Armstrong	Ayres Band	Radio Folks
5:45—Orphan Annie	Announced	Child's Corner	Musical
6:00—Tom Manning	Don Winslow	Stop and Go	Stevenson News
6:15—Evening Prelude	Announced	" " "	Howie Wing
6:30—Gordon Band	Denton Barber	Exciting Mom'ts	Inside of Sports
6:45—Lowell Thomas	Lowell Thomas	Dance Music	Musical
7:00—Amos and Andy	Amos n' Andy	Fulton Lewis	County Seat
7:15—Edwin C. Hill	Melody Grove	Stabile Band	Lum and Abner
7:30—Fireside Reveries	Stabile Band	Turner Marson	Ask it
7:45—Watkins Band	Inside of Sports	The Big Top	" " "
8:00—One Man's Family	Man's Family	College of Music	Gangbusters
8:15—		" " "	" " "
8:30—Tommy Dorsey	Tommy Dorsey	Hallstead Band	Paul Whiteman
8:45—		" " "	" " "
9:00—Town Hall	Town Hall	Talent Tour	Star Theater
9:15—	" " "	" " "	" " "
9:30—	" " "	Percy Faith	" " "
9:45—	" " "	" " "	" " "
10:00—Kay Kyser	Kay Kyser	Famous Trials	Edgar Guest
10:15—	" " "	" " "	" " "
10:30—	" " "	Sky Melodies	Reminiscing
10 45—	" " "	" " "	" " "
11:00—Bulletin Board	Paul Sullivan	Club Reporter	Jack King
11:15—Music You Want.	WLW Spotlight.	Spotlight	Hamilton Band
11:30—	Announced	Jurgens Band	Vincent Lopez

Thursday's Programs

107-WTAM-220 CLEVELAND	700-WLW-482 CINCINNATI	1030-CKLW-291 DETROIT	750-WJR-400 DETROIT
8:00—Health and Home	Time to Shine	Happy Joe	Crowley Revue
8:15—	Peter Grant	" " "	Stevenson News
8:30—Whistler & Dog.	Gospel Singer	" " "	Musical
8:45—Remember?	Chuck Wagon	" " "	" " "
9:00—Myrt and Marge.	Paul Allison	Doc Sunshine	Mrs Page
9:15—Hilltop House	Myrt and Marge	Happy Hal	Party Line
9:30—Kitty Keene	Hilltop House	Syncopators	Joyce Jordan
9:45—Gospel Singer	Linda's Love	Homechats	Bachelor's Child
10:00—Central City	Wheels go 'round	School of the Air	Kitty Kelly
10:15—John's Wife	Uncle Sam	" " "	Myrt and Marge
10:30—Just Plain Bill	Ed McConnell	Heartsong Hour	Hilltop House
10:45—Woman in White	Goldbergs	Singing Strings	Stepmother
11:00—David Harum	Linda's Love	Woman's Page	Mary Taylor
11:15—Lorenzo Jones	Vic and Sade	" " "	Musical
11:30—Widder Brown	News Flashes	Black & White	Big Sister
11:45—Road of Life	Road of Life	Gloomchasers	Aunt Jenny
12:00—Voice of the Farm	Editor's Da'ght'r	Val Clare	Kate Smith
12:15—The O'Neills	The O'Neills	Livestocks	Nancy James
12:30—Linda's Love	News Flashes	Organ Recital	Helen Trent
12:45—Editor's D'ghter	Farm and Home	Bradford Band	Our Gal
1:00—Jean Ellington		Happy Gang	The Goldbergs
1:15—Noon Resume	Farm News		Beautiful Life
1:30—	Announced	Virginia Fair	Road of Life
1:45—Happy Gilmans	Happy Gilmans	Musicale	This Day
2:00—Betty and Bob	Betty and Bob	London Calling	Linda's Love
2:15—Grimm's Da'ghter	Grim's Daughter	Girl from Maine	Editor's D'ghter
2:30—Valiant Lady	Valiant Lady	Sancutary	Lavole Band
2:45—Church Hymns	Church Hymns	" " "	Musical
3:00—Mary Marlin	Mary Marlin	Val Clare	U. of Mich.
3:15—Ma Perkins	Ma Perkins	Rich Band	" " "
3:30—Pepper Young	Pepper Young	Sleepy Valley	Concert
3:45—Guiding Light	Guiding Light	" " "	" " "
4:00—Backstage Wife	Kitty Keene	Sleepy Valley	Four Clubmen
4:15—Stella Dallas	Midstream	" " "	News Room
4:30—Vic and Sade	Beautiful Life	" " "	Vignettes
4:45—Girl Alone	The Hatterfields	" " "	" " "
5:00—Dick Tracy	Houseboat	Rhythm Rhaps.	Questions
5:15—Your Family	Jamboree	Turf Reporter	Let's Pretend
5:30—Jack Armstrong	Jack Armstrong	Crimson Trail	Musical
5:45—Orphan Annie	Announced	Lazaro Ensemble	" " "
6:00—Evening Prelude	Jon Winslow	Stop and Go	Stevenson News
6:15—	Announced	" " "	Howie Wing
6:30—Tom Manning	" " "	Sportcast	Inside Sports
6:45—Lowell Thomas	Lowell Thomas	Saxo-Piano	Musical
7:00—Amos and Andy	Amos n' Andy	Fulton Lewis	County Seat
7:15—Vocal Varieties	Vocal Varieties	Radie Harris	Doris Rhodes
7:30—Four Stars Tonite	Don't Believe It	Don't Believe It	Joe Penner
7:45—Gordon Band	Inside Sports	Hobby Horses	" " "
8:00—Rudy Vallee	Rudy Vallee	Montreal Orch.	Kate Smith
8:15—	" " "	" " "	" " "
8:30—	" " "	Heaven & Home	" " "
8:45—	" " "	" " "	" " "
9:00—Good News, 1939	Good News, '39	War Veterans	Major Bowes
9:15—	" " "	Yar Concert	" " "
9:30—	" " "	Famous Facts	" " "
9:45—	" " "	" " "	" " "
10:00—Bing Crosby	Bing Crosby	Weber Band	Number Please
10:15—	" " "	" " "	" " "
10:30—	" " "	Doc Sunshine	U. S. at Work
10:45—	" " "	Hamilton Band	" " "
11:00—Bulletin Board	Paul Sullivan	Club Reporter	Jack King
11:15—Music You Want.	Sweet Adeline	Grier Band	Noble Band
11:30	Stabile Band	Williams Band	Cab Calloway

Today's Programs

WHKC, COLUMBUS (640:468)

P.M.
4:00—To be announced.
4:15—"Midstream."
4:30—Wayne and Dick.
4:45—"Mad Hatterfields."
5:00—Mark Love.
5:15—The Johnson Family.
5:30—Hank and Slim Newman.
6:00—The Spectator.
6:15—Benny Bee.
6:45—John Agnew.
7:00—Fulton Lewis, jr.
7:15—Eddie Ewald's Minstrels.
7:45—Joachin Gill's Orchestra.
8:00—Len Salvo.
8:15—"Tidbits from Everywhere."
8:30—"Cats and the Fiddle."
8:45—"Bookshelf."
9:00—Abram Ruvinsky.
9:15—Midstream.
9:30—The Two Keyboards.
9:45—The Hatterfields.
10:00—Lawrence Salerno and Piano.
10:15—The Johnson Family.
10:30—Hank and Slim Newman.
10:30—The Spectator.
10:15—Lazaro Ensemble.
10:30—Sports by Sweeney.
10:45—John Agnew.
11:00—Fulton Lewis, jr.
11:15—Radie Harris.
11:30—Joachin Gill's Orchestra.

Thursday's Programs

WHKC, COLUMBUS (640:468)

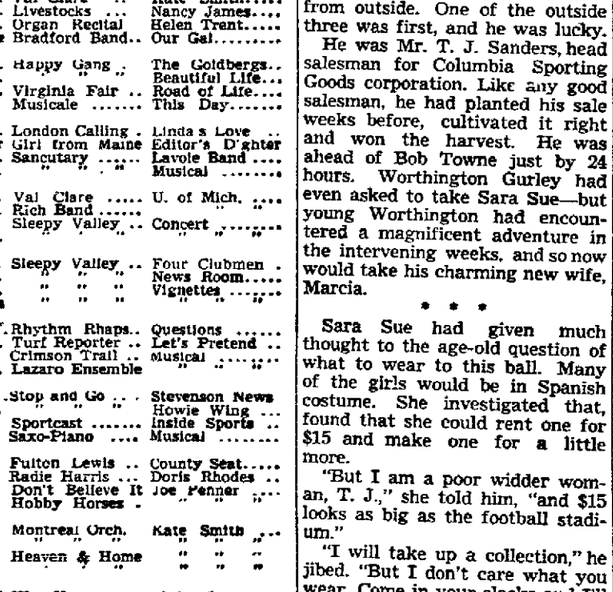
A.M.
8:00—Morning Melodies.
8:30—Buckeye Four.
9:00—What's New.
9:15—"Melody and Verse."
9:30—Newscast.
9:40—Trouble Shooters Program.
10:00—The Nation's School of the Air.
10:30—John Metcalf's Choir Loft.
10:45—Charley Freshwater's Cowboy Band.
11:15—"The Georgia Crackers."
11:30—"The Party Line."
11:45—Music and Livestock Markets.
12:00—"The Neighbor's Noon Hour."
P.M.
12:30—The Spectator.
12:45—Grain Program.
1:00—"Red" Joyner.
1:15—The Happy Gang.
1:30—Dance Orchestra.
1:30—Dance Orchestra.
2:00—Listen with Leo.
2:15—"The Girl from Maine."
2:30—Ed Fitzgerald's Revue.

RECOMMENDED (Tonight)

WEAF-NBC—9 Fred Allen; 10 Kay Kyser's Class.
WABC-CBS—8:30 Paul Whiteman Band; 9 Theater of Stars.
WJZ-NBC — 7:30 Heidt's Brigadiers; 10:30 Public Interest in Democracy.

THURSDAY

WEAF-NBC—1:30 p. m. Words and Music; 6 Opera Preview. WABC-CBS—3 Music Hour. WJZ-NBC—5:15 Hans Christian Anderson Stories.



Facts For Business Men

Habit is a great factor in human behavior. Folks hereabout, have The News-Journal habit—and along with their newsreading they have developed the ad reading habit.

This just means that it's too bad when your advertisement isn't in The News-Journal: You've lost a chance to tell the buyer what you have to sell.

The News-Journal Audited Circulation 19,123 Daily A. B. C.

REVENGE BY FIRE

WATERTOWN, N. Y. — (U.P.) — The person with a grudge against Harold Rosenburger took an unusual way to get his "revenge," police decided. A small bonfire was built under one tire of Rosenburger's parked automobile. Before the blaze was discovered the tire was destroyed.

STOCK LISTED IN AMSTERDAM

Broker Files Westinghouse Common in Netherland City.

NEW YORK —(AP)— Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Co., common stock was put forward today as the latest of a growing list of American shares traded in Amsterdam.

A New York brokerage house, Laboucherl & Co., announced it would file the listing in the Netherland city to start trading Thursday to broaden the market for the stock.

A recent report showed 176 American companies with stocks listed in Amsterdam as well as on the New York stock exchange.

LEGAL NOTICE
BIDS
FOR TOILET ADDITIONS TO BOWMAN STREET SCHOOL
PROJECT D

Sealed proposals will be received by the Board of Education of the Mansfield City School District at the office of Dr. J. H. Bristor, Mansfield, Ohio, Clerk of the Board of Education of Mansfield City School District, Richland County, Ohio, until twelve o'clock (NOON) E.S.T. (12:00), Thursday, January 26, 1939, for General Construction Work, Heating and Ventilating, Plumbing and Electric Wiring in connection with toilet additions for Bowman Street School Proposed to be built in said District.

Plans and specifications are on file with the Clerk at Mansfield, Ohio, and may be secured, together with Bidding Forms and Information to Bidders, from the Architect, Charles W. Conklin, Farmers Bank Building, Mansfield, Ohio. When proposals are filed they may not be withdrawn for a period of thirty (30) days after the time of receipt of bids.

Proposals to be publicly opened and read aloud at a meeting of the Board of Education held immediately after the closing time for the receipt of bids in the office of the Board of Education in the Richland Trust Building.

Proposals shall be on Bidding Forms provided, to be written with ink or typewriter, signed by the individual bidding or an officer of company bidding and accompanied by a certified check or bid bond in an amount equaling Five Per Cent (5%) of the total work bid upon, Payable to Dr. J. H. Bristor, treasurer of the Board of Education, and shall be filed with the Clerk not later than the closing date stated. Seal bid and endorse "Bids for Toilet Additions for Bowman Street School." The successful bidder will be required to furnish a satisfactory bond in the amount of one hundred percent (100%) of the contract sum.

The Board of Education reserves the right to reject any or all bids and to waive informalities.

DR. J. H. BRISTOR, Clerk,
Board of Education,
Mansfield City School District,
Mansfield, Ohio.
(Dec. 28, Jan. 4, 11, 18, NJ '39)

SHERIFF'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE

The State of Ohio, Richland County.
COMMON PLEAS COURT.
Case No. 24409.

Jennie Bennett Berkhiser (formerly known as Jennie Bennett), Plaintiff, vs. Roy E. Lohr, et al., Defendant.

In pursuance of an Order of Sale issued in the above entitled action, I will offer for sale at Public Auction, at the door of the Court House in Mansfield, in the above named County, on Saturday, the 28th day of January, 1939, at 10:00 o'clock A. M., the following described real estate, situate in the County of Richland, and State of Ohio, and in the Township of Sandusky, to-wit:

Being a part of the East half of the Southeast quarter of Section Twenty-five (25), Township Twenty (20) and Range Twenty (20), commencing at a stone at the Southeast corner of said tract; thence West with the South line seventy-four (74) perches to a stone; thence North One Hundred Twenty-six (126) perches to a stone; thence east seventy-seven (77) perches to a stone, thence South one hundred twenty-six (126) perches to the place of beginning, containing sixty (60) acres, more or less.

Subject to all legal highways and subsisting rights-of-ways.

Said Premises Located about 4 miles southwest of Ontario, Sandusky Township, County and State aforesaid.

Said Premises Appraised at $3,900.00.

TERMS OF SALE: CASH.

E. P. LONG,
Sheriff of Richland County, Ohio.
By FRANK E. ROBINSON,
Deputy.
A. G. Masters & Thomas J. McDermott,
Attorneys.
(Dec. 28, Jan. 4, 11, 18, 25, NJ '39)

SHERIFF'S SALE IN PARTITION

Glenn A. Bookwalter, vs. Katherine Wolf, et al.

By virtue of an Order of Sale in Partition, issued from the Court of Common Pleas of Richland County, Ohio, and to me directed, I will offer at Public Sale, at the door of the Court House, in the City of Mansfield, Richland County, Ohio, on Saturday, January 7th, A. D., 1939, at 10 o'clock a. m. of said day, the following described lands and tenements:

Being lot No. 1519 of the consecutive number of lots in the city of Mansfield, Ohio.

Said premises located No. 156 Newman St., City of Mansfield, County and State aforesaid.

Appraised at $3,500.00.

Terms of Sale: One third cash, one third in one year and one third in two years.

Sheriff's Office, Mansfield, O., Dec. 2nd, 1938.

E. P. LONG,
Sheriff.
FRANK E. ROBINSON,
Deputy Sheriff.
H. M. RUST,
Plaintiff's Attorney.
(Dec. 7, 14, 21, 28; Jan. 4, N-J, '39)

LEGAL NOTICE

Charles L. Lintz, residence unknown, will take notice that Rose Mary Lintz has started her action against him in the Common Pleas Court of Richland County, Ohio, being cause No. 24474, for divorce, custody of child, alimony, and other proper relief on the grounds of gross neglect of duty and extreme cruelty. The same will be for hearing on or any time after January 12, 1939.

JOS. A. BAYER,
Attorney for Plaintiff.
(Nov. 30, Dec. 7, 14, 21, 28, Jan. 4, NJ '39)

NOTICE OF HEARING FOR PAROLE

Mansfield, Ohio, Dec. 30, 1938.

No. 36337, Vaughn William Watkins, a prisoner now confined in the Ohio State Reformatory, Mansfield, admitted from Richland County, convicted May 9, 1938, of the crime of O. M. V. W. O. C. and serving a sentence of 1 to 20 years is eligible for a hearing before the BOARD OF PAROLE, on or after March 1, 1939.

The Board of Parole,
By J. J. FEENEY,
Parole and Record Clerk.
(Jan. 4. 11. NJ '39)

NOTICE OF HEARING FOR PAROLE

Mansfield, Ohio, Dec. 30, 1938.

No. 36162, Paul Rhodes, a prisoner now confined in the Ohio State Reformatory, Mansfield, admitted from Richland County, convicted March 29, 1938 of the crime of Brk. & Ent. N/S. and serving a sentence of 1 to 15 yrs. is eligible for a hearing before the BOARD OF PAROLE, on or after March 1, 1939.

The Board of Parole
By J. J. FEENEY,
Parole and Record Clerk.
(Jan. 4, 11, NJ '39)

NOTICE OF HEARING FOR PAROLE

Mansfield, Ohio, Dec. 30, 1938.

No. 35195, Roy Willis Means, a prisoner now confined in the Ohio State Reformatory, Mansfield, admitted from Richland County, convicted Sept. 1, 1937 of the crime of Robbery and serving a sentence of 10 to 25 yrs. is eligible for a hearing before the BOARD OF PAROLE, on or after March 1, 1939.

The Board of Parole
By J. J. FEENEY,
Parole and Record Clerk.
(Jan. 4, 11, NJ '39)

LEGAL NOTICE

Notice is hereby given, that Edward Kromer, 1012 Winnebago St., Sandusky, O., has been duly appointed and qualified as administrator in the estate of G. W. Marston, deceased. Late of Mansfield, Richland County, Ohio. Date 1/3, 1939.

C. J. ANDERSON,
Probate Judge Richland County, Ohio.
(Jan. 4, 11, 18, N-J, '39)

VITAL STATISTICS

Death Notices

GREEN, Mrs. Lela Tilva—Wife of Joseph Green of Pavonia, Ohio, passed away at the Mansfield General hospital Tuesday evening after short illness. Body was removed to the Geiger Funeral Home where friends may call and where services will be held 2:30 Friday afternoon in charge of Rev. Dickey of Pavonia. Burial Saturday in the Oak Grove cemetery, Logan, Ohio. (Geiger Funeral Home.)

WILL, Mrs. Anna M.—Wife of John Will, died Tuesday evening at the home in East Mansfield, after a brief illness. Funeral services Friday afternoon at 2:00 at the Wappner Funeral home in charge Rev. E. G. Corwin. Body will be at the Davison home (Mrs. Davison is her daughter) in East Mansfield until Friday morning. (Wappner Funeral Directors.)

Card of Thanks

WE WISH to thank our neighbors and friends for their kind help and sympathy during the death of my dear husband; also the Rev. Grover Swoyer for his consoling words; also the singers; the Finefrock funeral home for their cooperation; the Reformatory Employes, also the Mansfield Masonic bodies for their beautiful flowers.
Mrs. Geo. Marston and Family.

Cemetery Lots—Monuments

MEMORIALS
MANSFIELD MONUMENT CO.
Authorized Rock of Ages Dealer
At Cemetery Gate. Canal 1970.

Florists; Funeral Designs

ALL KINDS blooming plants, large selection cacti and exotic plants. Wonder Gardens, Mansfield-Galion Road. Dover 4896. We deliver.

KAFER'S FLOWERS
Canal 3106 41 N. Mulberry
Just A Little Different
KAFER'S FLOWERS.
28 Park Ave. West Canal 3896

LEGAL NOTICE
BIDS
FOR TOILET ADDITIONS TO HEDGES STREET SCHOOL
PROJECT F

Sealed proposals will be received by the Board of Education of the Mansfield City School District at the office of Dr. J. H. Bristor, Mansfield, Ohio, Clerk of the Board of Education of Mansfield City School District, Richland County, Ohio, until twelve o'clock (NOON) E.S.T. (12:00) Thursday, January 26, 1939 for General Construction Work, Heating and Ventilating, Plumbing and Electric Wiring in connection with toilet additions for Hedges Street School proposed to be built in said District.

Plans and Specifications are on file with the Clerk at Mansfield, Ohio, and may be secured, together with Bidding Forms and Information to Bidders, from the Architect, Charles W. Conklin, Farmers Bank Building, Mansfield, Ohio. When proposals are filed they may not be withdrawn for a period of thirty (30) days after the time of receipt of bids.

Proposals to be publicly opened and read aloud at a meeting of the Board of Education held immediately after the closing time for the receipt of bids in the office of the Board of Education in the Richland Trust Building.

Proposals shall be on Bidding Forms provided, to be written with ink or typewriter, signed by the individual bidding or an officer of company bidding and accompanied by a certified check or bid bond in an amount equalling Five Per Cent (5%) of the total work bid upon, payable to Dr. J. H. Bristor, Treasurer of the Board of Education, and shall be filed with the Clerk not later than the closing date stated. Seal bid and endorse "Bids for Toilet Additions for Hedges Street School." The successful bidder will be required to furnish a satisfactory bond in the amount of one hundred percent (100%) of the contract sum.

The Board of Education reserves the right to reject any or all bids and to waive informalities.

DR. J. H. BRISTOR, Clerk,
Board of Education,
Mansfield City School District,
Mansfield, Ohio.
(Dec. 28, Jan. 4, 11, 18, NJ '39)

LEGAL NOTICE
BIDS
FOR TOILET ADDITIONS TO BUSHNELL SCHOOL—PROJECT E

Sealed proposals will be received by the Board of Education of the Mansfield City School District at the office of Dr. J. H. Bristor, Mansfield, Ohio, Clerk of the Board of Education of Mansfield City School District, Richland County, Ohio, until twelve o'clock (NOON) E.S.T. (12:00), Thursday, January 26, 1939, for General Construction Work, Heating and Ventilating, Plumbing and Electric Wiring in connection with toilet additions for Bushnell School proposed to be built in said District.

Plans and Specifications are on file with the Clerk at Mansfield, Ohio, and may be secured, together with Bidding Forms and Information to Bidders, from the Architect, Charles W. Conklin, Farmers Bank Building, Mansfield, Ohio. When proposals are filed they may not be withdrawn for a period of thirty (30) days after the time of receipt of bids.

Proposals to be publicly opened and read aloud at a meeting of the Board of Education held immediately after the closing time for the receipt of bids in the office of the Board of Education in the Richland Trust Building.

Proposals shall be on Bidding Forms provided, to be written with ink or typewriter, signed by the individual bidding or an officer of company bidding and accompanied by a certified check or bid bond in an amount equalling Five Per Cent (5%) of the total work bid upon, payable to Dr. J. H. Bristor, Treasurer of the Board of Education, and shall be filed with the Clerk not later than the closing date stated. Seal bid and endorse "Bids for Toilet Additions for Bushnell School." The successful bidder be required to furnish a satisfactory bond in the amount of one hundred percent (100%) of the contract sum.

The Board of Education reserves the right to reject any or all bids and to waive informalities.

DR. J. H. BRISTOR, Clerk,
Board of Education,
Mansfield City School District,
Mansfield, Ohio.
(Dec. 28, Jan. 4, 11, 18, NJ '39)

LEGAL NOTICE
NOTICE OF REDEMPTION OF BONDS

Notice is hereby given that The Richland Hotel Company has deposited with the undersigned, as Trustee for the bond holders of the second mortgage bonds of The Richland Hotel Company, the funds with which to redeem all of the issued and outstanding second mortgage bonds issued by said The Richland Hotel Company dated March 1, 1930; and the undersigned hereby gives notice to all holders of said bonds that said bonds are hereby called for redemption on March 1, 1939 at $101.00, plus accrued interest to that date; and that no coupons attached to said bonds which may become due and payable after March 1, 1939 will be honored for payment.

Holders of said bonds are advised to present the same to the undersigned for payment on or after March 1, 1939.

THE FARMERS SAVINGS & TRUST COMPANY, TRUSTEE.
By P. M. Eliot, Trust Officer.
Weldon and Huston,
Attorneys.
(Jan. 4. 11. 18. 25. Feb. 1. 8, NJ '39)

NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION

To whom it may concern:

Notice is hereby given that on the 28th day of December, 1938, The Ohio Tire Company, by virtue of a resolution of the shareholders, elected to dissolve and completely wind up its affairs, and that a certificate to that effect has been duly filed in he office of the Secretary of State at Columbus, Ohio.

J. E. LA DOW,
C. K. DYE,
GLENN DAVIDSON,
Directors of The Ohio Tire Company.
(Jan. 4. 1, NJ '39)

LEGAL NOTICE

Robert J. Denny, last known address 716 Market Street, New Orleans, La., will take notice that on the 27th day of December, A. D. 1938, Mary Denny, filed her petition in the court of Common Pleas, Richland County, Ohio, being cause No. 24565, praying a divorce from said Robert J. Denny, on the ground of Gross Neglect of duty, and alimony, and that said cause will be for hearing on and after February 8th, 1939.

MARY DENNY.
By Frank S. Culp, her atty.
(Dec. 28, Jan. 4,11,18,25 Feb. 1 NJ '39)

VITAL STATISTICS

Funeral Directors

WAPPNER
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Canal 3919 Canal 1060

Geiger Funeral Home
Canal 4900 173 P. A. W.

FINEFROCK'S
Funeral Service
100 West Fourth Street
Canal 3100

JONES AMBULANCE—Invalid coach. Modern, prompt, careful. Recommended by physicians. Canal 4000 day or night.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Lost and Found

LOST—Singer Portable Electric. No. AE506830 is unlocated.

Reward Will Be Paid
for any information regarding this machine. Singer Sewing Machine Co., 48 Park Ave. W. Canal 2452.

LOST—Thursday, lady's white gold Benrus wrist watch in downtown section. Reward. Canal 3328

LOST—Tan and white hound, near Chesterville. License No. 451. V. Brandenburg. Adam 2099.

LOST—Female Beagle, 5 months old. Black and white; tan head. E. B. Baker. Spring 2907.

LOST—Small Beagle pup, 6 months old, vicinity Fourth and Elm. Reward. Canal 4950.

LOST—Ladies yellow gold round Alvin wrist watch, Sunday. Call Canal 2372. Reward.

LOST—Oval Cameo pin, New Year's eve. Call Canal 2441.

Personals

COURT TESTIMONY taken—reasonable rates Public Stenographer, 26½ S. Main. Canal 2460.

Special Notices

Save Much Trouble
Public Accountant will make balance sheets, and financial statements, assist in income and all other tax reports. Teach simplified system anyone can write up, part time, low cost arrangement. Erie 4679, Ralph E. Race, 74½ N. Main.

Newark "Olde Towne" Beer and Ale
Free Delivery Canal 4551

SULFOX
A safe treatment for Neuritis. Erie 5325 or Your Druggist.

FUR remodeling, restyling, short jackets and capes. January prices. Lining reasonable. Mrs. Robb, Canal 2283.

FURS—Complete fur service. Capes, Etons, Chubbies, re-styling, cleaning. Myrtle Wright, Erie 4908.

Travel and Transportation

BUCKEYE STAGES SYSTEM
EFFECTIVE OCTOBER 15, 1938
For Mt. Vernon, Columbus:
7:20, 11:20 a. m.; 3:20, 5:20 p. m.

For Lodi, Medina, Cleveland:
7:00, 10:20 a. m.; 2:20, 6:20, 9:20 p. m.

Foor Wooster, Canton, E. Liverpool, Cleveland:
*9:00, 10:50 a. m.; *1:00, 2:50, *5:00, 6:55 p. m.
(*) Canton only.

For Shelby:
*6:15, 7:20, *8:20, 9:55 a. m.; 12:15, 1:55, 4:00, 5:40, 7:40; S 9:40 p. m.
(*) Daily except Sundays, holidays.
(S) Saturdays, Sundays, holidays.

For Plymouth, Willard, Norwalk, Sandusky:
9:55 a. m.; 1:55, 5:40 p. m.

For Mt. Gilead, Delaware, Columbus:
10.30 a. m.; 2:30, 6:30, 9:30 p. m.

For Mt. Vernon, Newark, Zanesville:
7:20, 11:20 a. m.; 3:20, *5:20 p. m.
(*) Newark only.

INSTRUCTION

Miscellaneous Instruction

LEARN a paying profession. Low tuition. Easy terms. Betty Jean Beauty School, Mansfield Ohio.

HELP WANTED

Male

STEADY WORK

National manufacturer expanding the Mansfield factory branch will start several men in steady and permanent work immediately. No experience in our line required as those selected will be given special training in our methods. Positions should pay, when experienced, between $40 and $50 per week, but those selected should be able to live on $25 per week for the first two weeks. Men who are now employed need not apply. Applicants must be neat appearing, honest, aggressive and of good health.
Apply at Room 201 Richland Trust Bldg., Mansfield, Thursday morning, between 10.30 and 12 noon only. See

MAKE 1939 A PROSPEROUS YEAR

READ AND USE THRIFTY NEWS-JOURNAL WANT ADS

CONTINUED FROM PRECEDING PAGE

RENTALS

Suburban Homes

SUBURBAN — House for rent, good condition; close to school, large garden. L. O. Clark, Ontario. O.

BUSINESS SERVICE

Beauty Aids

We are now presenting the new Charm Machineless Wave. Ask for your free charm bracelet.

REYNOLDS
BEAUTY STUDIO
631½ N. Main Canal 2364

DeMilo Oil Permanent Waves $1.75 to $6.50. For appointment call:
De Milo Beauty Salon
Over 4th St. Mkt. Canal 1556

Gfrer's Beauty Salon
Now at 161 E. 4th. Canal 1547.

$5.00 Machineless Wave $3.50
RINEHART'S BEAUTY SHOP
264 W. Fifth Canal 2491

Croquignole Permanent $2.00
VIOLET'S BEAUTY SHOPPE
111 Reba Ave. Canal 5115

Heating and Plumbing

NEW installations and repairing plumbing, heating and sheet metal work. Antrican, Canal 1171.

Miscellaneous Services

PIPE thawing with an electric thawing machine, price reasonable. Midway 3833.

Moving—Trucking—Storage

MOVING and all kinds of hauling. Elec. Refrigerators. Reliable service. Mack. Canal 3568. 298 W. 6th

HAMMAN TRUCKING CO. gives consideration to furniture by well packing ft. M. S. Baith. Canal 3239.

A. NEWMAN—Light hauling, ashes and cans, old furniture and junk taken as pay. Erie 1409.

MOVING and general hauling. Prompt service. Reasonable rates. Canal 1857. Adam 2883.

Painting—Paperhanging

FEIGENBAUM'S
PAINTERS—DECORATORS
Canal 4641—Canal 4696

SPECIAL on enamels, varnishes, floor paints. Economy Paint & Wallpaper, 29 S. Main. Canal 1444.

Sweeper and Washer Service

ELECTRIC MOTORS rewound and repaired. West End Electric Repair Shop, Marion Ave. Road. Erie 5283.

Tinning—Roofing

WAGNER BROS.
24 East Second Spring 3759

Upholstering—Refinishing

UPHOLSTERING, Repairing, Cleaning, Cushions Rebuilt, Slips. Willard Smith Erie 1312.

MISCELLANEOUS

Farm Equipment

FARMERS!

It's time to oil harness. Have it done now! It will preserve your harness and add much to the life of it.

Farm Bureau Co-op Ass'n.

One Slightly Used F-12 Tractor Like New $485.00.

G. L. ROGERS
345 Park Ave. East Canal 4187

BETTER FARMING WITH David Bradley Farm Operating Equipment

Sears Roebuck & Co.

"You can't make hay now" but you can make money by buying used hay loaders here. Now!
FRED C. MILLER—GALION, O.
"Everything for the Farm."

1 USED New Idea manure spreader, 1 used Ohio spreader. Both good condition. Cheap. Myers Farm Supply. 132 N. Main.

WE ARE PAYING 65c per hundred yellow ear corn. Delivered our mill. Hanley Milling Company.

Good Things to Eat

REVITALIZE

Help nature to help you sensibly—Drink fresh made vegetable and fruit juices. Any quantity. We deliver. Kellogg's, Third St. Market.

FRESH home killed meats — Pork Tenderloin, Spareribs, Backbone. Sausage, Home-rendered Lard. Leedy's Farm Mkt., Orchard Park.

FRESH PORK — All kinds beginning Wednesday morning and Thursday. We deliver. Also electric meat grinder. Poplar 4824. Shellhaas.

FRESH PORK — All kinds starting Friday. Ponhaus. Lard 8 lbs. 90c. Smoked sausage now. Cole's Mifflin.

Volunteer Food Store
Open Evenings and Sunday.
26 East First Canal 3541

AUSTRALIAN White Ducks for table or breeding; Chickens and Potatoes. Ross. 39 East. Walnut 4734

B. & O. MARKET, 303 N. Mulberry. We accept relief orders. Canal 2224.

MISCELLANEOUS

Auction Sales

C. O. Robinson, N. S. Robinson. General AUCTIONEERS. Walnut 4821 or Adam 4727. We sell farms.

Building Materials

SALVAGE MATERIAL

for sale at John Simpson Jr., High. Fire Escape, bricks, slate, all kinds of used lumber.

For sale at our yard—Plumbing, doors, windows, new and used lumber, roofing and insulation.

BARGAIN PRICES

Mansfield Wrecking & Materials Co.
585 N. Main Canal 3498

LUMBER BARGAINS — Storm Sash and Storm Doors. By installing them you save 31% of your heat loss, and can control the humidity. No more frosted windows. Storm Doors $5.48; 24x24 2-lt. Storm Windows glzd. $2.11. We can finance on monthly payment plan. Canal 1291. Burkhart Lumber Co., 21 Elm St.

LUMBER—Chestnut and native hardwood. Geo. Miller, 11 miles southeast on Possum Run Road.

Electrical Fixtures and Appliances

Lighting Fixtures
Electric Contracting
NATIONAL ELECTRIC CO.
74 N. Walnut Canal 2272

Try a News-Journal Classified Ad

Household Goods

CLEARANCE

2 piece Bed Davenport Suite. Slide out base. Chair has reversible cushion. Regular $89.95. Priced for clearance.

$59.95
Montgomery Ward & Co.

Maytag Special $49.95, reconditioned, square tub washer. Like new.

BELL MUSIC CO.
26 So. Park Canal 2284

Knee Hole Desk, only $12.85
HEDGES
Factory Furniture Co.
30 South Main Adam 3219

HOOVER and Eureka Sweeper rebuilt like new, bargain. Also one horsepower single phase motor. Erie 5283. West End Electric Shop, Marion Ave. Road.

JANITROL gas fired unit fits into your present furnace or boiler to make it an automatic gas heating plant. The Gas Co.

LIBRARY TABLE, dining table, four chairs, sideboard, 3 piece wicker suite, 50 lbs. top icer. Erie 2989. 344 W. Sixth St.

See Our Used Furniture Bargains.
QUALITY FURNITURE

WE REPAIR all makes of washers. Free estimates. Canal 2572. Maytag Sales and Service, 57 S. Main.

PHILCO RADIOS
Sold and Serviced by
W. E. JONES—146 Park Ave West.

NEW innerspring mattress. A $22.50 value. Special $9.95. Home Furniture Exchange, 134 N. Main.

RADIOS — New and used. Lowest prices. Biggest trade-in allowance in city. 56 East First.

TWO 9x12 used rugs; excellent condition, $15 and $20. Home Interiors, 78 N. Main. Canal 1867.

CIRCULATOR — Round Oak, swing panels throw heat in front. Large size, $10. Adam 4969.

20-INCH circle mirror. Special $1.49 Batson Furniture Co. 44 West Fourth St.

20% OFF on Demonstrator model radios. O. P. S. Canal 4171.

Live Stock

BUCYRUS Livestock Commission — Horses, dairy cow auction Wed. Cattle, calves, hogs, sheep auction Sat. Daily market quotations

NINE large type Berkshire pigs, 12 weeks old. Mile north and half mile west of Shenandoah Sam Walker.

12 CHESTER WHITE PIGS, also 2 butchering hogs. Trimble Road, north of Roseland, H. B. Robertson.

JERSEY COW, freshen soon, 4 weeks old Jersey calf eligible to register. R. L. Aten, Route 2, Lexington

SOW due to farrow last of January; also cow, fresh soon. W. W. Kanaga, R. D. 2, Bellville, Ohio

12 MILK GOATS—Sell separately or group. Stiecker on Pulver List Road Poplar 2901.

ONE good bay gelding 4 years old. Sound, well broke. Call Adario 1384.

ONE good Hampshire boar. Jesse Huston, Shiloh Phone 2881 Shiloh

FOR SALE—13 pigs, 7 and 8 weeks old. Avery Hale, Walnut 4725.

GREY Jersey cow. Fresh in April. Call Erie 1825.

Wearing Apparel

RECONDITIONED Suits & Overcoats $3.95 up. New Suits O-Coats, $9.95. Ohio Brokerage, 111 N. Main.

MISCELLANEOUS

Miscellaneous for Sale

FOR SALE—Briggs Stratton gasoline motor, good condition. Great Smith, 3 miles southwest Johnsville, Route 42, Phone 27R2 Johnsville.

GRAVEL $1.35 YD.
Limestone, also all kinds driveway materials. Erie 2872.

FOR SALE—Good cord wood delivered, reasonable. Any lengths. Call before noon or after 6 p. m. Poplar 4882.

WATER
32 S. Adams Canal 4551

PEANUTS, raw, fresh roasted, salted. Wholesale and retail. Ritz Nut Shoppe, 127 N. Main.

1 ELECTRIC D. and K. water booster pump with automatic switch. Erie 5349.

Musical Instruments

EUGENE SMART
The Music Shop and Studio
5 PARK AVE. W.
SECOND FLOOR
Open Every Evening
You can buy a new or used instrument on the rental plan. We invite you to stop in or call.

A Real Music Store
JAMES F. HOPPE
Pianos and Musical Instruments Exclusively. 128 W. 4th. Open Eves.

Old Gold and Jewelry

BEST PRICES paid for old jewelry, gold teeth, rare coins, diamonds. N. Haring, Jeweler, Park Theater Bldg. Spring 1785.

SACRIFICE—Perfect diamond about ¾ karat for $200. Mandel's, 123 N. Main St.

Poultry and Supplies

BOWER PRODUCE CO.
Will have plenty of poultry for New Years. Canal 3144. 250 Ashland Road.

BABY CHICKS each week. White Wyandottes and Rocks. Custom hatching. Sherman Bowden. Canal 5310.

Radio and Supplies

Zent's Radio Service
54 E. Third Canal 3441

Grassick Radio Repair
38 Wayne St. Erie 1125

Sewing Machines

AFTER Christmas bargains Floor samples, demonstrators, trade-ins, etc. Prices start at $3.95. White Electric Sales Co., 27 So. Main. Canal 2168

Store, Office Fixtures and Equipment

$50.000 STOCK
Consisting of chairs, tables, bar stools, counters, griddles, coffee urns, sinks ranges, ice boxes, cash registers, bars, back bars, steam tables, beer pumps, etc.
NO REASONABLE OFFER REFUSED. TERMS
Complete restaurant and Beer Garden outfit. $225. Down payment $75.
KOOL-RITE Electric Beer System
NO ICE—NO COILS—NO WASTE
See it operating, it will amaze you.
DELIVERIES AVAILABLE ANYWHERE.
STANDARD STORE FIXTURE CO.
1022 Superior Ave., Cleveland, Ohio.

BAR and restaurant fixtures, new and used. Terms. Call or write Bob Adelman, Court Hotel, Mansfield. Amster Klrtz Co., Akron.

Typewriters and Supplies

BARGAINS
In good used typewriters. Terms.
Mansfield Typewriter Co.
34-38 W. Third. Canal 4395 - 3695.

REBUILT Portable Typewriters $20.00 up. Orr Typewriter Co., Ohio Theater Bldg.

Wanted to Buy

WE BUY all kinds of raw furs and hides, Mifflin Lake Fur Co., Mifflin, Ohio. D. & W. Auto Wrecking on Wednesdays and Saturdays

FINANCIAL

Money to Loan

CASH TO LOAN
FOR PERSONAL USE.
On Your Own Security.
Amounts $25 to $1,000
Pay bills; put all debts into one, reduce payments, meet emergencies, bargain with cash.
THE CITY LOAN
74 N. Main Canal 3596

MONEY — All purpose Quick, confidential service. Low cost. Crawford Finance, Inc., 401 Walpark.

GOING!
GOING!
GONE!
SOLD PIGS
THE FIRST DAY!

FOR SALE—6 pigs, 8 weeks old, $5.00 apiece. Erie 4815. T. J. Harper.

To Advertise Livestock For Sale
Call CANAL 4251 -- Charge Your Ad

REAL ESTATE

City Homes for Sale

SOUTH MAIN ST.—6 room, modern, livingroom with fireplace, diningroom, kitchen, closed rear porch, 3 bedrooms and bath up, hardwood floors throughout, hot water heating system, laundry trays, garage. This home is in very good condition. Price $4300, terms. Bell Realty Co., Canal 2111, Canal 2348. Spring 5449.

HURRY TO WOODLAND
Magnificent 4 bedroom brick veneer, double garage, large shrubbed lot. Reduced to only $8300, down payment $1000. One of the greatest bargains ever offered. Joe Seibert. Canal 1162.

A REAL VALUE
Parkwood Blvd.—6 room modern, home. Can be bought for about ⅔ value. Owner leaving city. Robinson & Terman. Canal 1631.

EAST THIRD—Near Ashland Road, 2 homes, one 8 rooms and bath, and 5 rooms and bath. Renting for $36 monthly. $2800 for both of them. Down payment $1000. Joe Seibert, Canal 1162.

NEW HOMES—$4250 UP
Call HUNT
Canal 1875, Res. Canal 4688, Canal 5349

Abstracts—Title Insurance.
THE GUARANTEE TITLE CO.
Walpark Bldg. Canal 3140

BY OWNER—House modern and up-to-date. New school district. Modern Homes. Canal 3173.

NEW 4-room house. Everything modern. Private owner. Box 819-A, News-Journal.

NEW 6-room brick veneer, West Side, $6,000, terms. Geo. Snider. Erie 1477.

Try a News-Journal Classified Ad.

MISCELLANEOUS

Coal Truckers

EGG COAL, $4.75; 2-in. Lump, $5.00; 4-in. lump, $5.25; Big Lump, $5.75; Stoker, $4.50; Nut and Slack, $2.50; Pocohontas, $8.75; Ky. Kona $7.75; Ky. Gem, $7.25; Southern W. Va., $7.25; Northern W. Va., $6.50. Erie 2313.

BEST FOR LESS
Southern Ohio Coal, clean 4-in. lump, $5.25. Very special egg coal, $4.25; nut and slack, $2.75. Prompt service. Walnut 1087.

Sugar Creek Coal!
Single tons $5.00
Two tons or more 4.85
In bu. baskets del. 3 for 1.00
ADAM 2558.

HIGH GRADE OHIO COAL
Stove and furnace lump, $4.75; reforked 4" lump $5.50. Buckeye White Ash, $6.00. G. H. Mosier. Poplar 3871

REMY'S Coal Special — Muskingum County Lump, $5.25; Eggs $4.50; Stoker $3.60. Low ash. Walnut 6044.

REAL ESTATE

City Homes for Sale

The Best Buy
The large residence of 10 rooms furnished for light housekeeping 111 North Mulberry St. with income of $130 per month, is a splendid buy at $6250; or unfurnished for $4750; shown by appointment, call us.
MID-OHIO CORP'N
Canal 1234 — Adam 1860

Close to Highland Ave.
On Bennett St.—A 5-room all modern home in good condition, lot large enough for another house, for only $3100 with terms. On the market for a few days only.
Chas. N. Blackman
REALTORS
29 Arthur Ave. Canal 1388

CENTRAL REALTY
CURT J. BURKHART
161½ So. Park. Canal 3536
All kinds of Real Estate Financing

Farm and Land for Sale

3 Miles
Southeast of Mansfield
7-room house, barns, slaughter house, 18¼ acres land including 3½ acres black raspberries, 3 acres peaches. Price $3000, $1500 down. H. T. Seneff. Canal 3170.

160 Acres Near Shenandoah
All level land, good productive soil, complete set of buildings, 10 room house, large barn with straw shed. Owner is sacrificing. Price $7000. C. Connor, Canal 3170.

28 Acres, south, 7 room house, barn, electric available, on state route, price $2,000, $500 down. Balance monthly.
A. F. CORNELL
18½ South Main Canal 3560

321 CRES. 1¼ miles from town on state route, 9-room house, 2 barns, silo, electric, well, cistern, springs in pasture, some fruit, 40 acres good timber. Trade for city property. John A. Vanderbilt, Lexington.

NEAR MANSFIELD—91 acres, slightly rolling, good buildings, electricity, only $7000, might trade on city property. Joe Seibert. Canal 1162.

FOR SALE OR RENT—Small property, new buildings with electric. William Fisher, Amoy.

REAL ESTATE

Farm and Land for Sale

Wonderful Farm Just Off Route No. 42
117 Acres—Everything in A-1 condition, this will make a good farming or dairying proposition. 8-Room house, bank barn, silo, good outbuildings, spring water for house and barn and also in the woods; 100 Acres under cultivation, balance in pasture and timber. Summer cottage, ideal for cottages. This farm has all been limed, will produce any kind of farm crops, fine location, 8 miles south of Mansfield. Just off Route 42. Ask for Mr. Eby, Dover 1089.
Chas. N. Blackman
REALTORS
29 Arthur Ave Canal 1388

FARM TRADE
90 acres good land 6 miles north, 10-room house with electric and furnace, plenty of out-buildings, 2 wells and some timber. Will trade on 6-room house in Mansfield. Call Jim Peyton, Canal 3170.

12 MILES SOUTH—63 acres of wellcared for ground, 12 acres in timber; running water, good buildings, electricity close, owner will sell with $500 down payment or trade on rental property. Call Bill Stomps, Canal 3560, 18½ So. Main.

FOR SALE—To settle estate, 80 acres farm, known as Sturts farm, 2 miles north of Rome.

Lots for Sale

SUBURBAN TRACTS—Located new Mansfield-Ashland Road on U. S. Route 42. 4 miles from Mansfield, 127 to 200 ft. frontage, 1¼ to 3½ acres. Price $200 to $400. $50 down, $10 per month. Ohio Realty, Canal 2460, Canal 4328.

Real Estate Dealers

TO RENT OR BUY—CALL:
L. E. ERNSBERGER
Canal 1113 Canal 1282

B. W. Knapp Agency
Erie 1731 403 Richland Trust

Shaull-Mayberry & Balliett
Canal 1329 Eves. Canal 3947

AUTOMOTIVE

Automobiles for Sale

GUARANTEED
Reconditioned Used Cars
—at—
Mansfield's Lowest Prices.
MOHICAN CHEVROLET
140 Park Ave East Canal 1109

CARS! CARS! CARS!
All makes, all models, all prices. Sold to close accounts, trades and terms to suit. 475 Sherman Place.

1937 PLYMOUTH DeLuxe Trunk Sedan, $475. Heater, defroster, low mileage. Private party. Terms. Canal 4354.

30 FORD TUDOR—Very clean, new tires, perfect shape. $95. R. R. Auxter. Basement Fourth St. Mkt.

1937 TERRAPLANE— DeLuxe Coach. Heater, new tires, A-1 condition, 1 owner. Box 633B, News-Journal.

1934 FORD DeLuxe Tudor, radio and heater, exceptionally clean, $195. Hinkle Motors, 104 N. Diamond.

Slashed Prices! Save up to $100
WEIDNER MOTOR SALES
12 E. Second Canal 3466

REPOSSESSED CARS—All makes, all models. Franklin Finance Co. 50 W. 6th St., or Poplar 2855.

DODGE AND PLYMOUTH
COLBY & EARICK, INC.
20th Year—76 West Third.

TWO 1930 Ford Model A Tudors. Very clean, good tires. R. E. Moorhead, 37 Park Ave. W.

SAFETY TESTED Used Cars. The prices are right! Douglas Miller, Inc., 55 N. Diamond.

1934 STUDEBAKER 4-door de luxe sedan. A rare bargain at $195. 475 Sherman Place.

1938 DARK GREEN Plymouth Coach, heater, defroster, radio, no tax, $570. Erie 5230.

SEE our display of fine used cars. Crider Motors Corp., 161 Park Ave. E.

1928 CHEVROLET TUDOR. Good motor, tires, $30. Walnut 4876.

1930 FORD Tudor, first $45 takes it. 475 Sherman Place.

AUTOMOTIVE

Automobiles for Sale

33 FORD COACH A-1, $125. '30 Chev Coupe or extra good coach, $62.50; '29 Whippet Coach, runs good, $15. Closing out several good cheap cars—you set the prices. H. Miller. Rear 100 Marion. Poplar 2041.

Accessories—Tires—Parts

AUTO PARTS
FOR OLD AND LATE MODELS
Heaters, radios, generators, starters, radiator and hub caps, lamps and lens, fuel pumps, tires and tubes, batteries, axles, bearings, mufflers and pipes, door locks and handles, speed meter service, windshield wiper exchange, ignition parts, glass installed.
D. & W. AUTO PARTS CO.
209 N. Adams Canal 1545

GLASS
Auto Plate and Window Glass
Mirrors Reslivered.
MANSFIELD PLATE & WINDOW GLASS CO.
208 N. Main Canal 1302

AUTO RADIOS
10 used Motorola Auto Radios. Assume balance due and continue small weekly payments.
Goodrich Silvertown Stores

NEW and used parts, glass installed. Want to buy—Something. Universal Parts Co., 200 Ashland Rd., Mansfield, O.

Auto Glass Installed
Cates Auto Wrecking, East Mansfield

SPECIAL! 1 tire regrooved free with each tire $2 and over. Basement Tire Store, 73 Park Ave. E.

FOUR 7:00x16 slightly used white sidewall tires. Buchan Auto Supply, 31 S. Main.

TWO 5:50x17 used passenger car tires. Very good. 20 N. Weldon Ave.

Trucks—Tractors—Buses

1930 CHEVROLET TRUCK, good condition, heavy duty 10-ply tires and stock rack. 78 Lily.

AUTOMOTIVE

Auto Trailers

FOR SALE
Five repossessed House Trailers, ranging from $100.00 to $550.00. Must be sold at once, no reasonable offer refused. On display at TRAILER CITY
FOR RENT
House Trailers from $10.00 per month up, including electricity, showers, hot water, laundry facilities and inside flush toilets. 5 trailers to choose from.
TRAILER CITY

16-FT. WELL-BUILT streamlined house trailer, roomy with full, complete bed. Midway 3022.

FOR SALE—House trailer, excellent condition. Elwood Davis, Mount Gilead. Phone 237-L.

Miscellaneous Auto Services

HOW LONG would you keep chairs, tables or beds standing around the house with broken arms or legs? Then why run an automobile, costing many times the value of chairs or tables, with damaged fenders, front ends, or doors. See the Franklin Body Shop, 8 N. Franklin, for needed repairs.

MOTOR TUNE-UP
Have your motor adjusted now for winter weather and greater efficiency. Forts Auto Electric, 65 N. Franklin.

Auto Blocks Welded
Johnson's Welding Shop
618 S. Diamond Canal 4690

Spring, Wheel, Axle, Frame Service.
Reindl & Hissong
183 N. Franklin Canal 1112

GET A "MOTOR TUNE-UP" now for easy winter starting. J. A. Armstrong Garage, Adam 2064

Motorcycles—Bicycles

Used Bicycles $8 Up
Peat's Hardware. 180 Lexington Ave.

Try a Mansfield News-Journal Classified Ad for Quick Results.

NEW Year Selection of Cars Low Prices!

1937 Dodge 4-Dr. Sedan. Heater and defroster; radio. This car has 20,000 miles, one owner excellent condition.
Was $625
Now $595

1937 Dodge 2-Dr. Heater and defroster. Has had seat covers on from the day it was new; one owner, low mileage.
Cut From $600 to $565

1937 Ford Coach. Equipment includes a heater and radio; 20,000 miles; one owner. Last month's price would have been $525.
Now $445

1937 Chev. Master DeLuxe Coach. Heater; one owner;; 18,000 miles. We sold one like this before Xmas for $530.
See This at $450

1936 Dodge Coupe	$450	1936 Dodge Coach	$450
1935 Pontiac Coupe	$350	1936 Chevrolet Coach	$375
1935 Plymouth Coupe	$295	1935 Plymouth Sedan	$315
1933 Plymouth Coupe	$165	1933 DeSoto Sedan	$235

Colby & Earick, Inc.
—20th Year—
Diamond Below Fifth Canal 1751
Dodge & Plymouth Distributors

START 1939 FREE FROM DEBT AND FINANCIAL WORRY—LOANS $10 TO $500

Use Interstate's Reduced Payment Plan to reduce your obligations. Consolidate your bills and have only one place to pay. For example:

$3 Pays $100
6 Pays 200
9 Pays 300

Interest reduced on all amounts above $100. Our loans are made the same day you apply. You can ask all the questions you desire and you will receive friendly courteous service, which will place you under no obligations whatever.

Our loans are made on furniture, automobiles, livestock and other personal property.

We also specialize in School Teacher Loans.

The Interstate Loan Company
204-205 Walpark Building, Park Avenue West
Phone: Canal 4474, Mansfield, Ohio

JUST KIDS By Ad Carter

IT AIN'T THE DUCHESS—
I'M PROUD OF MY FAMILY TREE—
SO I GIVES MY FAMILY TREE A GOOD LOOKIN-UP AN' WHAT DOES I FIND?
I FINDS ONE UNCLE WHAT WAS A TRUANT OFFICER AN' ANOTHER WHAT WAS A DOG-CATCHER— I TELL YUH-THE FAMILY IS TERRIFIC!

COAL & FUEL

ALL THE DEALERS LISTED HERE HAVE THEIR OWN SCALES AND YARD

Nut Slack $2.90; Ohio Lump $4.70 and $5.25, King Heat $5.90; Modoc $6.50 Raven Beauty W. Va. $6.65, Black Heart Ky $6.85, Dixie King $7.20 Kentucky King $7.50 Huffville $7.50. Oil Treated Stoker at lowest prices. Canal 2800.

Economy Coal Co.

Will-Burt Stoker
Automatic Air Control. Save up to 30% of your fuel bill, besides enjoying an even temperature. Call for further information.
Richland Electric
14 N. Diamond Canal 3524

OHIO LUMP $5.50
Simon Small & Sons
Coal and Coke Canal 2566

Let Us Be Your Coal Man!
Hecht & Casey
Rear W. 6th Canal 4630

COAL — COKE
Canal 1877 Canal 3434
VOEGELE BROS.

S. G. Roush Coal Co.
200 E. Fourth Canal 1881

COAL ORDERS

When you place a coal order with us, we feel it is an obligation not only to supply you with good coal but to give you courteous service and to render complete satisfaction.

Be Wise — Order Now You'll Find Price and Quality Right at—KALLMERTEN & BAER
17 E. 5th St. Canal 3520

Ohio Furnace Special, $5.25; Besco 4" Ohio Lump, $5.75; Black Hawk Ohio Lump, $6.25; Big Jim W. Va., $6.50; Ky. Standard, $7.25 Dorothy Gordon, W. Va., $7.50, Blue Bell, Ky., $7.50
B. F. SPENCE COAL CO.
CANAL 2191.

COAL BARGAINS! It pays to buy here. Black Diamond Stove and Furnace, $4.95, Black Diamond Big Egg, $5.25; Black Diamond Lump, $5.95; Red Hot W. Va. Lump, $6.35; Chilton Eagle W. Va., $6.60; Ky. Beauty Lump $6.75; Low Ash Ky. $6.95; Blue Grass Ky. Block, $7.50. Estes Coal & Ice, 575 N. Main. Canal 1555.

HOCKING Valley egg coal, $5.00 per ton, 2 ton for $9.00. Hocking Valley large lump $6.00, 2 ton for $11.00. Northern West Va. large lump $6.00, 2 ton $11.00. These coals are cash on delivery. Nutter Coal Co. Canal 5466.

Hocking Lump $5.00; Wandy Low Ash, $5.25.
ROCKY FORK COAL CO.
Canal 4012.

SLAB WOOD
$2.25 Cord—Gravel $1.25 Yard Delivered—Adam 1967.

FOR BETTER GRADE OF COAL
F. MORITZ COAL Co.
25 Orange St. Canal 3254

KASNER COAL CO.
Omar Block, $7.25; Egg, $7.00 Other fine coals 100% Union Canal 1727.

Hunt's Coal Yard
Southern Ohio Lump and West Virginia Coal.—Adam 4773.

GLASGOW'S DIRECT COAL CO. Good clean coal from $5.25 up; also wood. 190 West Sixth. Canal 3660

Hard Maple Wood
Green and Dry. Poplar 3850.
Southern Ky. Coal $6.90.

Appleman Coal Co.
300 P. A. East Canal 4430

SLAB WOOD $1.50 per cord George Miller, 11 miles southeast Possum Run Road

FUNK COAL CO.
Buckeye White Ash, $6. Erie 3680.

W. Va. Red Ash Lump
FREER & SON. CANAL 1496

Fireplace Wood $3
Furnace Wood $2.50. Erie 2721.

Don't Wait To Buy a Car—Sale Ends Jan. 10th

— SAVE UP TO $100 —

PRICES SLASHED ON OUR ENTIRE STOCK!

Everyone Said Cars Couldn't Be Sold at These Low Prices — But We're Doing It!

1936 LaSalle 4-Dr. Trunk Sedan. Here is a real buy. A dark green finish and the broadcloth trim looks like the day it left the factory. The condition of this car throughout and the acessories on it make this a real buy. Be sure to see this practically new car at this slashed price. One owner. Sold new by us. Was. $685. Now $595

1935 Plymouth 2-Dr. 4 new tires, clean original paint, good cloth trim, locally owned, lots of good miles. Was $325. Now $245

1938 Pontiac DeLuxe 6 2-Dr. Heater, defrosters, steering column gear shift, and other accessories; 10,000 miles; sold new by us. Was $695. Now .. $645

Buy With Confidence
We Give a Written Warranty With Every Car
All Cars In Our Clean, Warm Showroom

1934 Ford Tudor. Glossy original jet black finish, mohair trim; 4 practically new tires, heater. Was $225. Now .. $175

1935 Pontiac 2-Dr. Touring. Heater, all dual, mohair trim. This car is really clean inside and out. Must be seen. Was $375. Now $295

1935 Pontiac 4-Dr. Touring. Knee action, hydraulic brakes; no-draft ventilation, 4 exceptionally good tires, large radio, locally owned, low mileage, absolutely spotless original dark green finish. Was $395. Now $325

1938 Chev. 2-Dr. Touring Sedan. 1 owner, low mileage, knee action, large heater and other accessories. Was $630. Now .. $545

1937 Chev. 2-Dr. Touring. 1 owner, 15,000 miles, knee action, heater and other accessories. Was $545. Now .. $465

1937 Chev. 4-Dr. Touring. 1 owner, 12,000 miles, heater, defrosters, and other accessories. Was $525. Now .. $455

30 Ford Spt. Coupe. Was $95. Now $65

29 Chev. Coupe. 1 owner. Was $85. Now $65

37 Pontiac 8 2-Dr. Touring. Was $645. Now $535

31 Packard 4-Dr. Was $150. Now ... $65

35 Plymouth DeLuxe 2-Dr. Touring. Was $345. Now.. $275

35 Others To Choose From

1937 Plymouth DeLuxe 2-Dr. Touring. 1 owner, low mileage, heater, all dual equipment. Was $515. Now .. $460

1935 Ford DeLuxe Tudor. This car is very clean inside and out; heater, locally owned. Was $295. Now $225

1934 Ford DeLuxe Coupe. New dark maroon paint, good tires, completely reserviced. heater. Was $225. Now $150

1931 Willys Knight 4-Dr. DeLuxe. 1 owner, original jet black finish, locally owned. Was $145. Now $95

1937 Pontiac DeLuxe 8 4-Dr. Touring. New extra large heater with factory dual defrosters; less than 15,000 miles, 1 owner, broadcloth trim. Was $665. Now $595

1937 Chev. 1½ Ton Truck. 8:25 tires dual rear; 1 owner, locally owned. Was $445. Now .. $345

1933 Pontiac 2-Dr. Original dark blue finish, good tires, 1 owner; sold new by us. Was $225. Now $160

1930 Chev. 2-Dr. Good tires, cheap transportation. Be sure to see it. Was $85. Now $45

1931 Pontiac 4-Dr. The cleanest one you've seen. Lots of unused miles. Was $195. Now.. $135

WEIDNER MOTOR SALES
12 E. SECOND Pontiac and GMC Trucks CANAL 3466

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®
NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

POPEYE—Private Property—No Trespassing!

I COMED UP HERE WIT' SUSIE
SUSIE?
SUSIE, THE SHE-NIMP'
OH, SO THE SEA-NYMPH'S NAME IS SUSIE?
YAS, I NAMED THE SHE-NIMP' SUSIE
SHE WAS A SHE-NIMP' WIT'OUT A NAME SO I YAM GO'NER CALL HER SUSIE, THE SHE-NIMP'
WHY, POPEYE, THAT IS LOVELY
I LIKE IT
YOU STAY AWAY FROM MY SWEETIE!
!!
WHAT DO YOU MEAN-YOUR SWEETIE?

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE—No "Cent."

By Harold Gray

YEP- MOSE MEDDLE- THAT'S ME-AND I'M SURE GLAD TO HELP GENTLEMEN LIKE YOU- MY BOYS HAVE SURROUNDED THAT WHOLE PATCH O' WOODS AND BRUSH- THEY'LL HAVE TH' KID ANY MINUTE-
AH, HOW CAN I EVER REPAY YOU? I MENTIONED FIVE HUNDRED REWARD-
SPLIT THAT AMONG THE MEN- TO YOU, MY TRUE FRIEND, I SHALL INSIST ON GIVING ANOTHER FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS--AH, TO HAVE MY POOR, DELUDED ONE SAFE-
SHUCKS-YOU DON'T HAVE TO DO THAT--BUT IT'S SURE GENEROUS O' YOU-
RECKON I KNOW HOW YOU MUST BE WORRIED- POOR KID- RICH KIDS ARE HELPLESS--AND TOO--SHE'S--BE-- YOU SAID--?
AH, YES- MY POOR NIECE- SHE HAS DELUSIONS- ALWAYS SHE MUST BE GUARDED- BUT SHE ESCAPED- THE POOR, POOR MAD ONE-
I KNEW IT- SOME BUSY-BODY IN THAT CROWD SAW US GO BY ON TH' LOWER ROAD- SOME BLABBER-MOUTH- WORLD'S FULL OF 'EM--SURE LUCKY I HAD A HUNCH AND TURNED OFF UP THE SIDE LANE WHEN I DID, EH?
ARF!

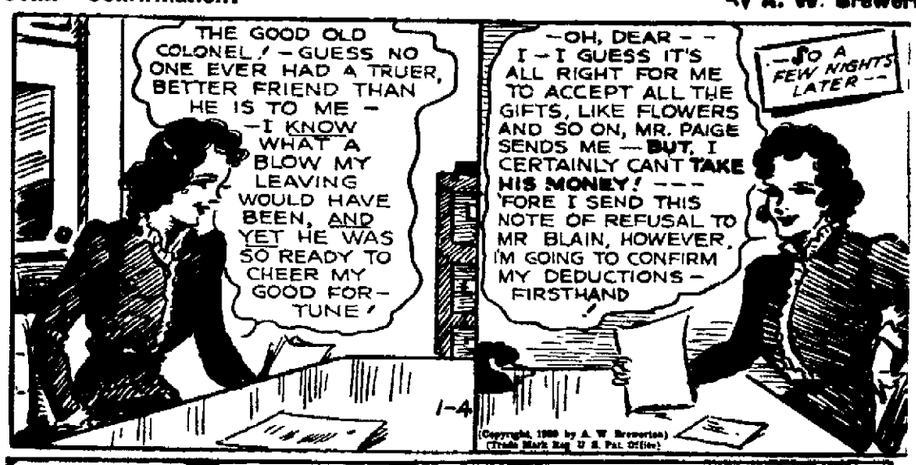
THE NEBBS—Ambitious Ernie.

By Bel Hane

WHO'S EATING IN THEIR ROOM?
MR DUMPTY-- HIS WIFE SAYS HE'S INDISPOSED
RUDY, POOR ERNIE ISN'T AT ALL WELL--I MADE HIM STAY IN THE ROOM- DO YOU THINK WE OUGHT TO HAVE A DOCTOR?
I SAW THE TRAY GO UP TO HIM--ANY-BODY WHO CAN EAT PAN CAKES, HAM AND EGGS AND TOAST AND COFFEE AND STAY IN-BED IS ONLY AMBITIOUSLY SICK!!
THERE'S A GUY! IF HE HAD AN OUNCE OF ABILITY AND ENERGY WITH HIS NERVE, THE GOVERNMENT WOULD BE BORROWING MONEY FROM HIM--BUT HE'S AS HOLLOW AS A SEWER PIPE!

PAM—Confirmation!

By A. W. Brewerton



THE GOOD OLD COLONEL!—GUESS NO ONE EVER HAD A TRUER, BETTER FRIEND THAN HE IS TO ME— —I KNOW WHAT A BLOW MY LEAVING WOULD HAVE BEEN, AND YET HE WAS SO READY TO CHEER MY GOOD FOR-TUNE!
—OH, DEAR— I—I GUESS IT'S ALL RIGHT FOR ME TO ACCEPT ALL THE GIFTS, LIKE FLOWERS AND SO ON, MR. PAIGE SENDS ME—BUT, I CERTAINLY CAN'T TAKE HIS MONEY!— 'FORE I SEND THIS NOTE OF REFUSAL TO MR BLAIN, HOWEVER, I'M GOING TO CONFIRM MY DEDUCTIONS— FIRSTHAND!
—SO A FEW NIGHTS LATER—
HA-HA! YEP, GUESS I'M GUILTY, PAM!— MIGHT HAVE KNOWN YOU'D FIGURE IT OUT! —AND I GET YOUR POINT OF VIEW NOW, TOO!— OF COURSE, YOU'RE RIGHT!
MR. PAIGE—I KNOW YOU WERE JUST BEING WONDERFULLY KIND —AND I DO APPRECIATE IT—
BUT— THAT'S HOW I FEEL
YOU ARE ABSOLUTELY CORRECT—BUT I DO WISH YOU'D LET ME LOCATE YOU SOME— SOME PLACE, WHERE—OH—DO YOU KNOW—REALLY, I'D HATE TO LEAVE THE GOOD OLD COLONEL, EVEN TO— —GET MARRIED!

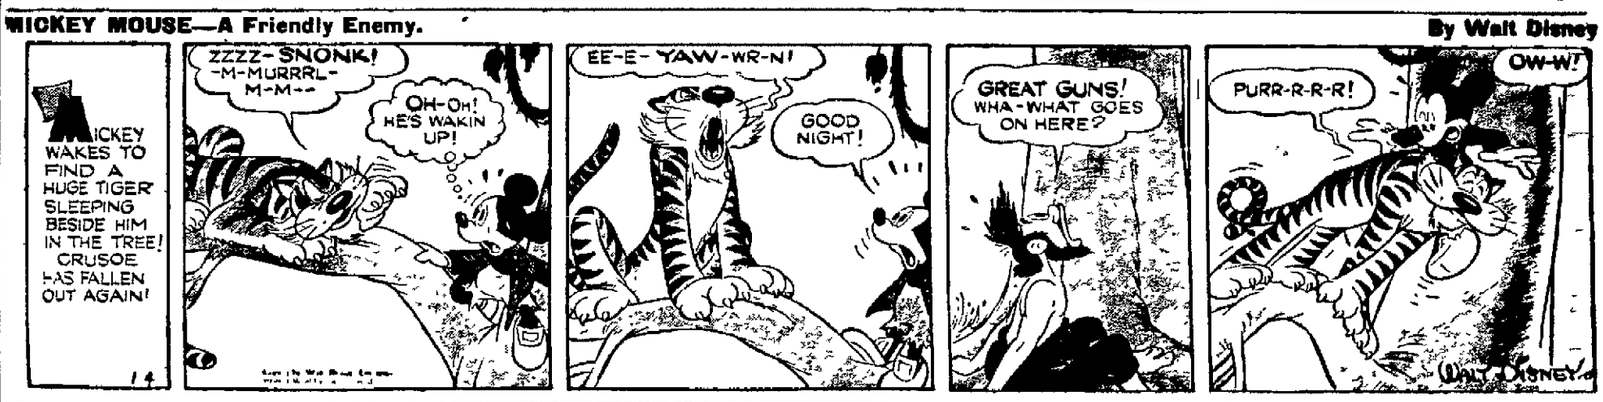
BRICK BRADFORD—In the Fortress of Fear.

By William Ritt and Clarence Gray

MARVELOUS? ONE SNAP OF MY FINGERS AND WE FIVE ARE SURROUNDED!
LOOK! A LIVING WALL OF STRENGTH! THROUGH WHICH NO ONE COULD ENTER—OR ESCAPE!
AND NOW, MY YOUNG FRIEND, I HAVE ADMIRED THAT BEAUTIFUL SILKY BEARD OF YOURS SINCE I FIRST SAW IT—MAY I TOUCH IT?

MICKEY MOUSE—A Friendly Enemy.

By Walt Disney



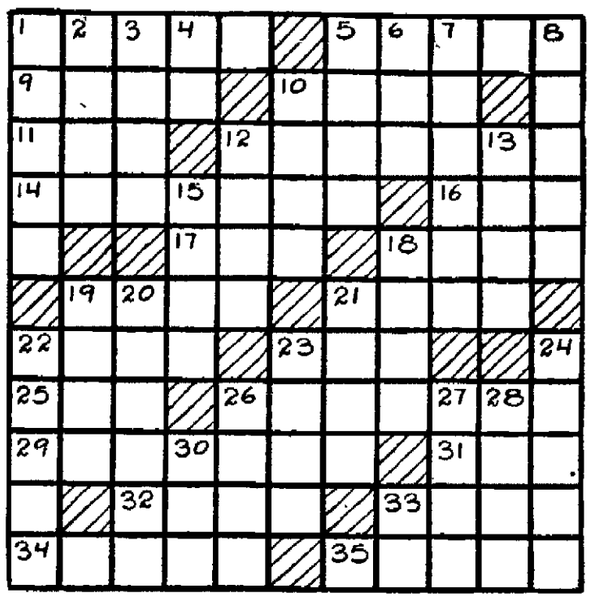
MICKEY WAKES TO FIND A HUGE TIGER SLEEPING BESIDE HIM IN THE TREE! CRUSOE HAS FALLEN OUT AGAIN!
ZZZZ-SNONK! -M-MURRRL- M-M--
OH-OH! HE'S WAKIN UP!
EE-E-YAW-WR-N!
GOOD NIGHT!
GREAT GUNS! WHA-WHAT GOES ON HERE?
PURR-R-R-R!
OW-W!

JUDGE PUFFLE

By Gene Ahern

—SO THAT'S IT, EH?—YOU MEAN THE CHIEF JUST GAVE ME THE BASKET OF MONEY SO HE COULD WIN IT BACK FROM ME PLAYING THAT INFERNAL GAME OF TICK-TACK-TOE?—
—WELL, BY MY BOOTS, TERRY,— HAD I KNOWN IT BEFOREHAND, I'D BE SIPPING A SHANDYGAFF NOW IN THE CARD-ROOM OF AN OCEAN-LINER FLYING TO ENGLAND!
TH' CHIEF'S FUNNY THAT WAY, JEDGE!—HE GIVES MONEY AWAY FOR TH' FUN OF WINNING IT BACK!—HE WON'T PLAY TICK TACK-TOE EXCEPT FOR MONEY AND IF YOU HAVEN'T ANY, HE GIVES YOU A WAD TO LOSE!— —IT'S HIS IDEA OF PROFIT!—
THE NEXT TIME THE JUDGE WILL HAVE ON HIS RUNNING-SHOES—

CROSS WORD PUZZLE



ACROSS

1—Particle
5—Mild
9—Thin tin plate
10—Approach
11—Nothing but 12—Disclaim
14—Giant killed by David
16—Girl's name
17—Perish
18—Emmets
19—A shaded walk
21—Interdiction
22—Price of transportation
23—Also
25—Any super-natural object
26—Cougar
29—Abolish
31—A sock made of goat's hair
32—Chinese secret society
33—Southern constellation
34—Main axis of a plant
35—Languished

DOWN

1—The theater
2—A nimbus
3—Very small brook
4—Printer's measure
5—Exclamation of disbelief
6—Receptacle for wine (Eccl.)
7—The East
8—Gapes
10—Quote
12—Irish Free State assembly
13—Upon
15—Inactive
18—An age
19—Construct
20—Scholastic society
21—Wanting
22—Fashions
23—A pungent odor
24—Ponder
26—A color
27—Rotate
28—Border
30—Eastern university (abbr.)
33—Three-toed sloth

Answer to previous puzzle.

C	O	M	A		C	A	R	R	O	T
A	V	E	R		A	D	A			A
B	E	R	M	E	J	O		O	R	P
I	R	E		M	U		T	R	U	E
N			D	I	N		H	A	I	R
	M	E	E	T		F	I	N	N
M	O	A	N		P	E	N			B
E	A	S	T		A	A		S	H	A
S	T	Y		I	N	T	O	N	E	S
A			B	O	G		N	A	R	E
S	I	R	E	N	S		A	P	E	D

Chuckle Corner

A Boston neurologist says benzedrine gives the same lift as alcohol without the bad effects. The drug store may yet resound with "Sweet Adeline."

* * *

An Indiana couple celebrating their golden wedding anniversary say they have got along so well because when one would start a quarrel, the other always walked out. There's also the advantage of the fresh air to consider.

* * *

A paragrapher asks where a dictator goes when and if he wants to laugh. That's easy—a peace conference.

* * *

FORECAST FOR 1939. The great discovery is coming to Maine and Vermont that they're a part of the United States after all.

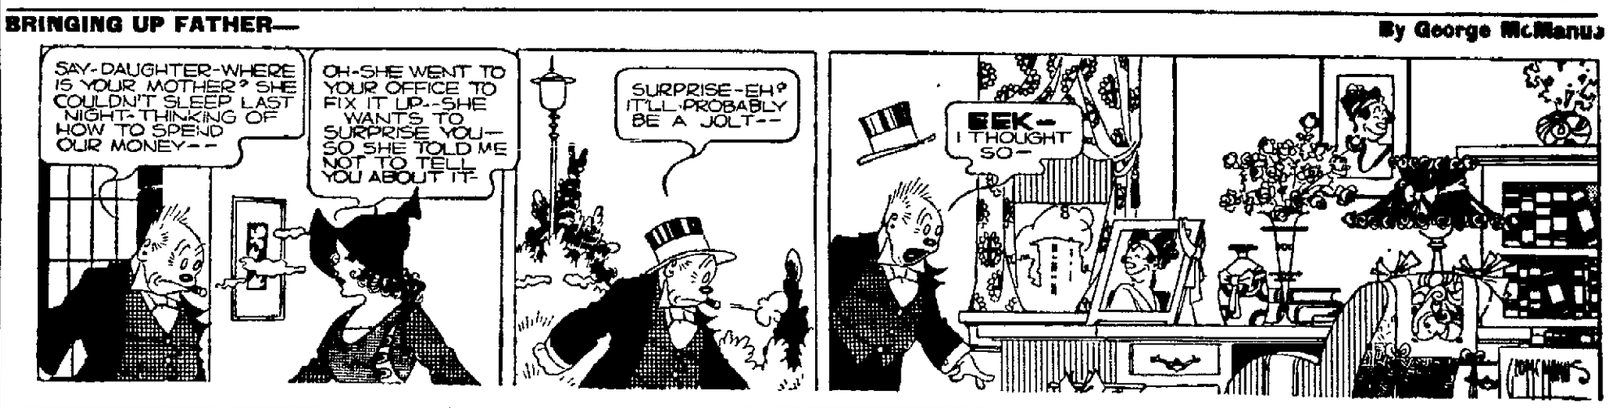
AIRSPIN TOMMY—Saved—But Only to Face a New Danger!

By Hal Forrest

ANY MORE OF YOU LUGS THINK I AIN'T TH' NEW BOSS HERE?
NOT ME, PEE-WEE, NO, SIR! NOT ME!
ME NEITHER!
THEN I'LL BUMP THIS DIZZY DAME, WITHOUT ANY MORE SQUAWKIN'!
SUFFERIN' CUTTLEFISH! WOT'S THAT?

BRINGING UP FATHER—

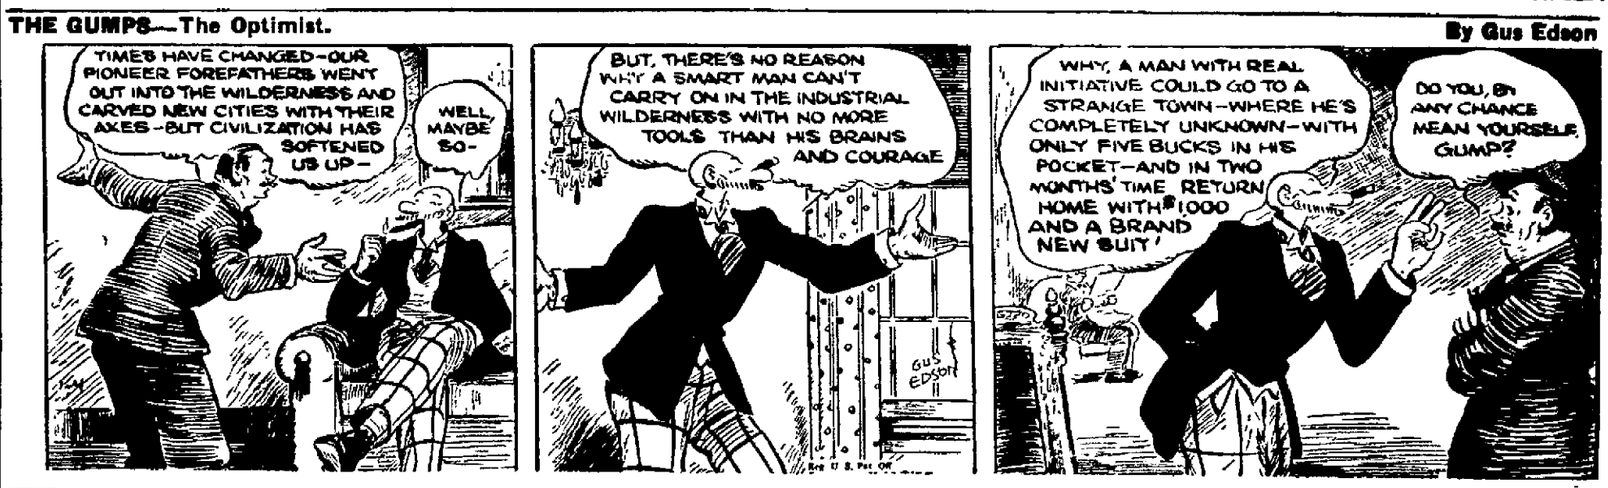
By George McManus



SAY-DAUGHTER-WHERE IS YOUR MOTHER? SHE COULDN'T SLEEP LAST NIGHT-THINKING OF HOW TO SPEND OUR MONEY--
OH-SHE WENT TO YOUR OFFICE TO FIX IT UP--SHE WANTS TO SURPRISE YOU— SO SHE TOLD ME NOT TO TELL YOU ABOUT IT-
SURPRISE-EH? IT'LL PROBABLY BE A JOLT--
EEK— I THOUGHT SO—

THE GUMPS—The Optimist.

By Gus Edson



TIMES HAVE CHANGED-OUR PIONEER FOREFATHERS WENT OUT INTO THE WILDERNESS AND CARVED NEW CITIES WITH THEIR AXES-BUT CIVILIZATION HAS SOFTENED US UP-
WELL, MAYBE SO-
BUT, THERE'S NO REASON WHY A SMART MAN CAN'T CARRY ON IN THE INDUSTRIAL WILDERNESS WITH NO MORE TOOLS THAN HIS BRAINS AND COURAGE
WHY, A MAN WITH REAL INITIATIVE COULD GO TO A STRANGE TOWN—WHERE HE'S COMPLETELY UNKNOWN—WITH ONLY FIVE BUCKS IN HIS POCKET—AND IN TWO MONTHS' TIME RETURN HOME WITH $1000 AND A BRAND NEW SUIT!
DO YOU, BY ANY CHANCE MEAN YOURSELF, GUMP?

LI'L ABNER—Fatherly Pride.

By Al Capp

SQB MAH NEW HUSBIN, NAME OF LI'L ABNER, DONE LEFT ME TH' MINUTE WE WAS MARRIED UP. THET PROVES HE DON'T LOVE ME!
CONTRARIWISE, CHILE!— IT PROVES HE DO!
HE DIDN'T WASTE A MINUTE T'GIT GOIN' T' SUPPORT YO'! HE TOOK A SHOOTIN'-IRON, A HAMMER, A DRILL AN' PAPPY AN' WENT DIRECLY T' TH' DOGPATCH BANK. KETCH ON?-HE'S GONNA BE A BANKER!-YO SHOULD BE PROUD O' HIM!
WHY, SON!- AH JEST HAPPENED T' THINK O' IT!- YO' CAIN'T START BEIN' A BANKER AT THIS TIME O' NIGHT!- TH' BANK HAIN'T OPEN!
DOGPATCH TRUST CO
I'LL OPEN IT!
HE DONE OPENED TH' BANK DOOR WIF A HAIR-PIN!- MY, HE SHO' HAS LOADS O' TALENT FO BEIN' A BANKER!
SO THEY'VE GOT A NIGHT WATCHMAN!- I'LL AWAKEN HIM WITH A GENTLE TAP!!

LOANS WITHOUT ENDORSERS

READ HOW YOU CAN BORROW $20 TO $300

Visit or phone our office. There is no red tape or delay. You answer a few questions. Our representative visits your home. Then you sign the papers and usually get the money the day you apply. Friends need not sign with you and there are no credit inquiries among your relatives or neighbors. Our rates are less than lawful maximum on all loans over $100. Repay a little each month. To apply, phone or visit office.

HOUSEHOLD FINANCE CORPORATION "Doctor of Family Finances" 152 Cities, Est. 1878

7th Floor, Richland Trust Building, Canal 4208

Hear Edgar A. Guest Wednesdays, CBS, WJR. Also news, time and weather, mornings, WJR.

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®
NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

STOCK TRADERS AWAIT MESSAGE BY PRESIDENT

Pivotal Issues Provide Only Action in Exchange; Show Fractional Gains.

BULLETIN

NEW YORK — (AP) — Wall Street was inclined to regard President Roosevelt's message to congress as "constructive" today. Securities prices advanced moderately just before the chief executive's remarks were printed on financial news tickers, and after a half hour pause while the message was studied, made further gains.

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK—The stock market inclined to slightly lower levels today, although a few pivotal issues managed to struggle ahead for fractional gains.

Lower a bit were U. S. Steel, General Motors, Chrysler, New York Central, Pennsylvania, Kennecott, American Smelting, Montgomery Ward, International Harvester, Boeing, Douglas, United Aircraft, Standard Oil of New Jersey Goodyear and General Electric.

Moderate gains were recorded for Bethlehem, U. S. Rubber, Sears Roebuck, Anaconda and Union Carbide.

Most traders kept out of the market pending delivery of the president's message on the state of the nation.

Bonds were mixed and quiet. Commodities were irregular. Foreign markets were steady and quiet.

With steel production starting the new year at approximately double the operating rate in the first week of 1939, the "Iron Age" forecast a "slowly advancing trend" the rest of January.

Rail and construction orders for steel, the trade publication noted, are conspicuous in the new year business.

Keeping the rising building curve before the financial district was the monthly report of the "Engineering News-Record," showing December engineering construction awards totaled $339,250,000, the highest for any similar period since 1927.

Investment Issues

(Furnished by Livingston, Williams & Company).

Am Bus Shares	3.68	4.07
Can Inv Fund	4.10	4.45
Century Shares Trust	23.18	24.92
Chemical Fund	10.62	11.49
Dividend Shares	1.39	1.50
Fidelity Fund, Inc.	20.58	22.59
Fund Investors, Inc.	18.98	20.52
Geo Putnam Fund	14.90	15.91
Incorp Investors	18.65	20.05
Keystone Custodian B 2	21.93	24.05
do B 3	14.75	16.20
do K 1	14.42	15.81
do K 2	11.61	12.90
do S 2	15.00	16.61
do S 3	14.55	16.14
do S 4	5.48	6.13
Mass Invest	22.09	23.44
Maryland Fund	6.05	6.68
National Investors	6.11	6.50
New England Fund	13.90	14.95
N. Y. Stocks, Inc.—
Bank Stocks	7.46	8.03
Bldg. Supply	9.17	9.87
Elec Equip	8.53	9.18
Insurance	9.31	10.02
R R Equipment	9.25	9.96
Machinery Stocks	9.16	9.86
Mdse Stocks	7.84	8.44
Metal Stocks	9.78	10.51
Oil Stocks	9.08	9.76
Steel	9.44	10.16
Agr Stocks	8.00	8.61
Avia Stocks	10.91	11.73
Chemical Stocks	9.19	10.20
Rail Stocks	4.88	5.19
Public Utilities	6.62	7.21
Quarterly Inc. sr.	11.72	12.83
Selected Am Sh Inc.	10.08	10.99

GRAIN MARKET

TOLEDO GRAIN

TOLEDO — (AP) — Grain on track (26c rate New York—nominal.)

Wheat No. 1 red 71-72c; No. 2 red 70-71c.

Corn No. 2 yellow 52½-53c. No. 3 yellow 51-52c.

Oats No. 2 white 32-33c. No. 3 white 29½-32c.

Soy beans No. 2 yellow 77½-78c.

Grain in store, transit billing attached, wheat 5-5½c above track quotation; corn 5-5½c above, oats 3c above; soy beans 5-5½c above.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO—(AP)—Wheat—May 70⅝-70⅞c; July 70⅝-70⅞c; Sept. 72¼-71⅛c.

Corn—May 53½c; July 54⅛-54⅜c, Sept. 55⅝-55¾c.

Oats—May 30¾-30⅛c; July 29⅞c.

Rye—May 49¼c, July 49¼c; Sept. 49⅞c.

MARKET QUOTATIONS

OHIO STOCKS

Quotations furnished by Gaylord W. Bahl, jr., associate member Cleveland Stock Exchange.

	Bid	Asked
Central National Bank	6	7½
Cleveland Trust	71	77
National City Bank	23½	25¾
Union Bank of Com	25	30
Brewing Co. of Am	6¼	6½
Central Ohio Steel	7½	8½
City Ice & Fuel, com	9¾	10
City Ice & Fuel, pfd	76	79
Cleve Elec Ill, com	34½	36
Cleve Elec Ill, pfd	111	111½
Cleve Railway, com	19	21
Cliffs Crop	20¾	21⅞
Dow Chemical, com	132½	133
Eaton Mfg. com	25⅜	25
Electric Controller	69	70
Empire Steel, com	4¾	5¾
Empire Steel 6s	50	54
Faultless Rubber	15½	16
Firestone Tire, com	23⅝	24
Firestone Tire 6%, pfd	98¾	99½
Gen Tire & Rubber	23½	24
Halle Bros	13	20
Hanna 8%, pfd	98½	99
Ideal Electric, pfd	40	50
Interlake Steamship	35	40
Jaeger Machine	17	17¾
Lima-Cole-Sole, com	3½	4
Lone Star Gas	8⅜	9
Mansfield-Leland Hotel, pfd	10	12
Medusa Cement	17½	18
McKee "B"	30	33
Myers, F E	51	52
National Ref, com	4⅛	5
National Ref, pfd	60	70
Ohio Seamless Tb, com	4½	5½
Ohio Seamless Tb, pfd	4½	47
Ohio Brass	24	26
Ohio Oil	6⅝	7⅛
Ohio Pub Serv 5%, pfd	88	90
Ohio Pub Serv 6%, pfd	98	100½
Ohio Pub Serv 7%, pfd	105	107
Otis Steel	13⅞	14¼
Renner Brewing	½	¾
Richman Brothers	34	35
Richland Hotel, com	25	30
Richland Shale Brick, com	12	15
Seiberling Rub, com	6	6½
Selby Shoe	13	14
Shelby Salesbook, com	90	95
Sherwin-Williams	111	112
Tappan Stove, com	12	13
Upson Walton	4	4½
Van Dorn, com	3½	4
Waco Aircraft	7	8
Warren Ref	1½	2
Weinberger Drugs	13⅜	14⅝
Youngstown Sh & Tb, pfd	80½	81

INSURANCE STOCKS

	Bid	Asked
Aetna Casualty	113	117
Aetna Fire	48	50
Aetna Life	27½	29
American Surety	52¼	53¼
Glen Falls Fire	44¼	46¼
Globe Republic	13¾	15¼
Globe and Rutger	26	29
Great American	25	26½
Hanover Fire	31¼	32⅝
Hartford Fire	72¼	74⅜
Home	30⅝	32⅝
Massachusetts Bond	55½	57½
National Fire	61¼	63¼
Northwestern Nat'l	121	126
Phoenix Insurance	77½	80
Rossia Insurance	4¾	6¼
Westchester Fire	34½	36⅛

LIVESTOCK

ASHLAND LIVESTOCK

ASHLAND—Total receipts 1250 head. Hogs—175-220 lbs. $7.80-8; 220-250 lbs. $7.50-8; lights $5-8.50; fat sows $617; stags $5-6; boars $4-7; sows and pigs $30-40.

Cattle—Steers $7-9.60; heifers $7-8.65; fat cows $5.50-7; canners $3.50-4.50; bulls $6-8.80; milk cows $30-90.

Veal Calves—Tops $12; seconds $11-11.50; medium $10-11; common and heavies $9-10; culls $6-8.

Sheep—Stock ewes $3-5; fat sheep, $2-4; culls $1-2; bucks $3-5; fat wethers $4-6.

Lambs—Tops $9.25; seconds $8.850; light weights $7-8; common $6-7.

CLEVELAND LIVESTOCK

CLEVELAND — (AP) — Cattle 300 steady; steers 1,200 lb. up prime $11-11.50, 750-1,100 lb. choice $9-10.50; 600-1,000 lb. choice $9-10; heifers $8-9; cows $5-6; bulls $6-7.50.

Calves 450; 50c lower; choice $12-12.50.

Sheep and lambs 1200; 25c lower; choice $9-9.35; wethers $4-4.50; ewes $3.50-4.

Hogs 1,000; 10c higher; heavy 250-300 lbs. $7.10-7.75; medium 220-250 lbs. $8; good butchers $8-8.25; yorkers $8.25.

PITTSBURGH LIVESTOCK

PITTSBURGH—(AP)—(U. S. and Pa. Dept. Agr.)—Hogs 200; steady; 160-200 lb. $8.15-8.25; 240 lb. $8; 290 lb. up $7-7.35; sows $6.50 down.

Cattle 50; best steers yesterday $10.50; load yearlings $9.25; low cutter cows $4.25-4.50; bulls $7 down; calves 100; steady; good and choice vealers $12-13.

Sheep 200; lambs scarce; quoted steady, good and choice lambs $9.50-10; good sheep $4-4.25.

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT BONDS

(Sales in $1,000)

(In dollars and thirty-seconds)

Sales			High	Low	Last
7	Tr 3⅜	'43-41 Mh.	106-27	106-27	106-27
7	3⅜	'47-43	109-30	109-30	109-30
12	3¼	'45-43	109-28	109-27	109-28
38	3¼	'46-44	110-1	110-1	110-1
1	4	'54-44	114-17	114-17	114-17
26	2¾	'47-45	107-6	107-4	107-6
4	2½	'45	106-12	106-12	106-12
3	3	'48-46	108-24	108-23	108-23
1	3½	'49-46	109-12	109-12	109-12
103	4¼	'52-47	119-3	119	119-3
11	2¾	'51-48	105-22	105-22	105-22
15	2½	'53-49	102-24	102-20	102-20
17	2½	'52-50	102-25	102-22	102-25
41	2¾	'54-51	104-6	104-6	104-6
7	3	'55-51	107-8	107-6	107-8
12	2¾	'60-55	104-21	104-18	104-20
1	2¾	'59-56	103-13	103-13	103-13
36	2¼	'65-60	102-25	102-21	102-23
15	2¼	'63-58	102-28	102-28	102-28
1	Fed F M3	'47-42	106-1	106-1	106-1
2	3	'49-44	106-27	106-26	106-26
15	HOLC 2¾	'39-39	102-11	102-11	102-11
2	2¼	'44-42	104-10	104-10	104-10
6	3	'52-44	106-27	106-26	106-27

U. S. TREASURY BALANCE

WASHINGTON—(INS)—The U. S. treasury balance as of Dec. 30 was $3,083,505,924.62.

LOCAL MARKETS

GRAIN

Prices, corrected to noon daily are those paid to producers. Obtained from Hanley Milling company, Mansfield Hay and Grain and Lantz Mills. Differential in prices paid by various firms shown.

Wheat No. 1 red	66c
Wheat No. 2 red	65c
Corn, No. 2 yellow ear, (new)	62-65c
Oats, No. 2 yellow	22-26-28c
Buckwheat, per hundred lbs.	$1-1.10
Barley	40-50c

Mansfield Hay & Grain

HAY

Baled Timothy (deliv.)	$7.00
Baled Clover (deliv.)	$8.00
Baled Straw (deliv.)	$6.00

LIVESTOCK QUOTATIONS

W. A. Kearns Packing Co.

CATTLE

Good Cattle	$8.00-9.00
Medium Cattle	$6.00-7.00
Common Cattle	$5.50-6.00
Bulls	$5.00-6.00

CALVES

Prime Veals	$9.00-10.00
Choice Veal	$8.50- 9.00
Common Veal	$6.00- 7.00

LAMBS

Choice Lambs	$8.00-9.00
Good Lambs	$8.00-8.50
Medium Lambs	$5.50-6.00
Sheep	$2.00-3.00
Clipped Lambs	$7.00-7.50

HOGS

Hogs, 180-220 lbs.	$7.50
Hogs, 220-250 lbs.	$7.50
Hogs, 250-300 lbs.	$7.00
Sows	6½c a lb.

DAIRY QUOTATIONS

Page Dairy

Cream	24c

POULTRY QUOTATIONS

Bower Produce Co.

Heavy Hens, 6 lbs. and up	16c
Heavy Hens, 5 lbs. and up	14c
Leghorn Hens, 4 lbs. up	12c
Leghorn Hens, under 4 lbs.	10-11c
Fancy Rock Broilers, 5-6 lbs.	17c
Rock Broilers under 3½ lbs.	14c
Colored Broilers, 5 lbs. and up	16c
Colored Broilers, 3-4 lbs.	14c
Leghorn Broilers, 3 lbs. up	11c
Leghorn Broilers, under 3 lbs.	11c
Heavy Stags	8-10c
Old Leghorn Stags	7c
Ducks	10-13c
Pullet Eggs	20c
Brown Eggs	24c
White Eggs	25c

PRODUCE

COLUMBUS PRODUCE

Arizona iceberg head lettuce prices were down slightly as 5-dozen crates sold mostly around $3.25 and 6-dozen sizes around $2.75. According to shipping point information, dealers feel this item has reached the low point and that higher prices may be seen within the next few days. Locally grown leaf lettuce prices were quite unsettled, however, very little change in prices were noted as most sales ranged from 80c to 90c for 10-pound basket.

No changes were reported in prices of butter, eggs, dressed and live poultry.

FARMERS' MARKET

Cabbage—50-lb. bags, 40-45c.

Carrots—Half bu. basket, best 40-45c, poorer quality lower.

Celery—Hearts, doz. bunches, 85-90c.

Leek—Doz. bunches, 25c.

Lettuce—10-lb. baskets, 80-85c.

Parsnips—Peck baskets, 30-35c; bu. basket, $1.10.

Potatoes—100-lb. sacks, Ohio, Rural Russets, grower's grade, best, $1.50-1.60, poorer quality, $1.25-1.35; Cobblers, U. S. No. 1, $1.50-1.60; Idaho Russet Burbanks, U. S. No. 1, $2.15-2.25; Mich., Russet Rurals, U. S. No. 1, $1.50-1.65; Commercials, $1.25-1.35; Me. Green Mountains, $1.85; Chippewas, $1.85; N. D., Early Ohio, $1.75; N. D., Bliss Triumphs, $1.75-1.85; Fla., Bliss Triumphs, bushel crate, U. S. No. 1, $2-2.25; Texas, Bliss Triumphs, 50-lb. bags, $2; Calif., Bliss Triumphs, bushel boxes, $2-2.25.

Butter (creamery extras) — Pound prints, 30c; rolls, 30c, tubs, 30c; cubes, 31c.

Eggs (buying price)—Current farm receipts, 26c; graded central Ohio firsts, 27c; seconds, 22c.

PITTSBURGH PRODUCE

PITTSBURGH—(INS)—Produce:

Poultry: Steady. Heavy hens 18-21c; Leghorns 14-16c; Red broilers 17-19c; Rock broilers 18-20c; roosters 11-12c; ducks 16-18c; geese 15-16c; turkeys 20-30c.

Butter: Weak, 92 score 27c; 89 score 26c; 88 score 25½c; standard 26½c.

Eggs: Weak. Nearby current receipts 23½c; white extras 29½c.

CLEVELAND PRODUCE

CLEVELAND—(AP)—Butter: steady; creamery extras in tubs 31c lb.; standards 29½c.

Eggs: weak; prices paid shippers in 100-case lots, furnished by the Cleveland Butter and Egg board, extras 57 lbs. and up, candled light, yolks clear, 26c a dozen; extra firsts 56 lbs. and up 25c; current receipts 55 lbs. and up 22½c.

Live poultry firm; colored fowls, heavy 22c a lb.; medium fowls 17c; leghorn fowls 16c; light, 13c; leghorn springers, 5 lbs. and up 14c; light, 12c; average 16c; fancy rock springers, 5 lbs. and up 22c; colored, 20c; ducks, 6 lbs. and up 18c; average run 15c; ducks small 12c; turkeys young hens and toms under 18 lbs. 30c; over 18 lbs. 28c, old toms 16c, old hens 18c, No. 2, 15c, old roosters 13c, leghorn 11c, capons, 8 lbs. and up 28c, geese, fat 19c, ordinary 16c.

Local fresh dressed poultry—firm; heavy fowls 27c; medium 24c; roasting chickens, large 28c; average 25c; ducks 25c, ordinary 22c, leghorn fowls 20c, young turkeys, over 18 lbs. 32c, under 18 lbs. 35c; geese 25, capons 35c.

Government graded eggs: U. S. extras, large white in cases 31c; U. S. standards, large in cases 29½c U. S. extras, medium white in cases 28c; U. S. standards, medium white in cases 26c.

Potatoes—Old, $1.00-2.15 a sack of 100 lbs.; new $1.75-1.90 a bushel.

Sweet Potatoes $1.35-2.25 a bushel.

NEW YORK

	Bid	Asked
Enk Am	34¾	36¾
Biks Tr	43½	45½
Brooklyn	72	75
Cen Han	83½	86½
Chase N	31½	33½
Che B & T	42½	44½
Corn Ex	52	54
First Nat	1630	1655
Guar Tr	228	238
Irving Tr	10	11½
Manhattan	15½	17
Mfrs Tr	38¾	40¾
do pfd	51¾	53¾
Natl City	24½	26½
N Y Tr	86½	91½
Con B N Y	12¾	14⅛

CHICAGO

	Bid	Asked
Chi T-T	137	143
Contl Ill	80	82
First Nt	227	235
Harris	295	305
Nor Tr	510	520

TORNADO STRIKES

Man, Wife, Killed By Twister In Southern Town.

MONTGOMERY, La. — (AP) — Ross Metcalfe, 35, millwright, and his wife were killed and their three-and-one-half year old son, Willie, injured when a tornado struck this town 225 population last night.

The high wind was confined to a narrow area but several business buildings and numerous private homes were damaged.

NEW YORK STOCKS

NOON PRICES

(Furnished By Vercoe & Co.)

RAILS

A T & S F	41⅝
B & O	8
C & O	38½
C & N W	⅞
Erie	2⅞
N Y Central	21⅝
N Pacific	14⅛
Penna	23⅞
Reading	18½
St. Paul	½
So Pacific	21¼
Un Pacific	97½

INDUSTRIALS

Alaska Jun	10
Mead Corp	11⅝
Am Com Alc	10⅝
Am Fr Power	3½
Am Home Products	45½
Am Can	100⅜
Am Rad & St San	18⅛
Am Sugar	22
Am T & T	150
Am Tobacco	86
Am Sumatra	18½
Armour new	5⅞
Borden	16⅝
Canada Dry	18⅞
Col Gas & SElec	7⅛
Commonwealth & So	1⅝
Continental Can	43½
Curtiss Wright com	7⅛
Curtiss Wright A	27⅛
Crosley Radio	10⅜
Commercial Credit	56¾
DuPont	153¾
Twenty Century & Fox	2
Gen Asphalt	20½
Gen Elec	40⅝
Gen Food	39⅞
Gillette Razor	8
Hecker Prod	11
Grand Union	1½
Allied Stores	11
Intntl Harvester	59½
I T & T	9⅛
Kroger	21⅝
Libbey Owens Ford	53⅜
Loews Theaters	54½
Mont Ward	50⅞
Nat Biscuit	25⅜
Nat Dairy Prod	25⅛
Nat Distillers	27⅞
Owens Ill Glass	69¾
J C Penney	77¾
Radio Corp	8⅛
Sears Roebuck	73⅝
Spicer Mfg	15⅞
Standard Brands	7⅜
U S Industrial Alc	23⅝
Sperry	46⅜
Un Aircraft	40½
Un Biscuit	16
Un Corp	3⅛
Un Carbon & Carbide	89½
Warner Bros	6⅞
Woolworth	49⅞
Westinghouse Elec	118½
Wilson Pkg	4⅞
Proctor & Gamble	56⅛

OILS

Atlantic Ref	22¼
Barnsdall Oil A	19¼
Cont Oil	30¼
Midcon Pet	16¼
Ohio Oil	9⅞
Phillips Pet	43⅜
Pure Oil	10⅞
Consolidated Oil	9
Socony Vac	13¾
Stand of Calif	28½
Stand of Ind	28½
Stand of N J	52⅜
Texas Corp	47½
Trans Am Corp	7
Houston Oil	8

STEELS

Am Rolling Mills	22
Bethlehem	78¼
Crucible	46⅜
Otis Steel	14⅛
Republic	24⅝
U S Steel com	69¼
U S Steel pfd	118

MOTORS, RUBBERS, EQUIPMENT

Am Loco	29¾
Bendix	28⅝
Briggs Mfg	30½
Chrysler	82¾
Continental Motors	3½
Elec Autolite	34⅝
Ford Canada A	22½
Gen Motors	50⅛
Stewart Warner	12⅜
Goodrich Rubber	24⅜
Goodyear	37⅞
Hudson	8¾
Mack Truck	29½
Motor Wheel	15½
Nash Kelvinator	8¾
Packard	4⅝
Reo Motor	1⅞
Studebaker	7½
Timken Roller	53¼
U S Rubber	51⅝

COPPER AND MINES

Am Smelters	51½
Anaconda	14⅝
Intntl Nickel	32
Kennecott	42⅝
Park Utah	2¼

CURB STOCKS

Alum Com Am	131
Am Gas & Elec	32⅝
Ark Nat Gas	2⅛
Interlake Iron	5¼
Distiller Seagram	19¾
Cities Service new com	7½
Cities Service pfd	48⅝
Elec Bond & Share	11¼
Hiram Walker	49⅜
Lone Star Star	9
Niagara Hud Pwr	7⅝
Schenley Distillers	16⅞
Swift & Co	19
Equity Corp	⅝
Rustless Iron	12⅛

Court Tells N. Y. Mayor He Can Call Heckler a 'Bum'

NEW YORK—(U.P.)—Mayor F. H. LaGuardia got away again today with calling a man a "bum."

The $100,000 slander suit of William Weidberg, a lawyer, was thrown out of court by Justice Thomas C. Kadien, jr.

At a political meeting Oct. 26 Weidberg heckled the mayor and the mayor told the crowd: "They are now throwing the bum out. The politicians are not acquainted with these really fine audiences and they pick up a bum in a gin-mill and send him over here to break up the audience."

Justice Kadien ruled that although Weidberg had attempted to show that LaGuardia meant he was "a vagrant and debauchee in the habit of using spiritous liquors to excess or intoxication in a gin-mill," it was the justice's opinion that the mayor's words were "at their worst, merely abusive and ill chosen."

CRASH KILLS YOUTH, 23

FREMONT—(AP)—Wayne Furman, 23, of Genoa, was killed and Harold Heilman, 17, of Genoa, was injured when an automobile in which they were riding struck a bridge abutment one mile north of Lindsey, O., Tuesday.

BUYS FRANKLIN FINANCE FIRM

Lima Company Purchases All Assets, Sets Up Branch Office Here.

A quarter of a million dollar transaction in which the Colonial Finance company of Lima purchased the assets of the Franklin Finance company here, was announced today by L. B. Hamilton, secretary and manager of the firm.

Hamilton, newly named manager of the branch office, said the Colonial Finance company began operating the Mansfield office as one of its 38 branches in seven states, yesterday.

In making the announcement, Hamilton said the firm would now deal in personal loans in addition to automobile financing which had constituted 90 per cent of the Franklin Finance company's business.

The Franklin Finance had operated in Mansfield for the past 16 years and in December paid its quarterly dividend on preferred stock.

The stock, owned principally by Mansfield interests, was sold outright to the Lima institution, Hamilton added.

Hamilton, who has been secretary-manager of the Franklin Finance company since it was formed 16 years ago, said there would be no change in personnel here.

The Colonial Finance company has taken a five-year lease on the present quarters together with an adjoining storeroom which will be used for expanding the office space.

Remodeling of the office will get under way within a few weeks and is expected to be completed by April 1.

An annual report and financial statement of the Colonial Finance company, prepared by Ernst and Ernst, certified public accountants, showed the firm had net assets of $5,162,153 as of last October.

With Congress and Ohio's Legislature

CONGRESS

Today.

House and senate meet in joint session to hear President Roosevelt deliver annual message (1 p. m., EST.)

Tuesday.

All house members and newly-elected senators took oath; Speaker Bankhead re-elected.

Senate received report of campaign investigating committee charging some relief funds had been used for political purposes.

House received Dies committee report blaming subversive activity on labor department's failure to deport aliens.

OHIO LEGISLATURE

Today.

Senate in adjournment until Monday.

House meets to receive rules committee report, after which it will adjourn until Monday.

Tuesday.

Governor Davey in speech before house and senate warns them to resist New Deal "encroachments" on state rights.

Governor-elect Bricker announces he will ask legislature for authority to re-organize unemployment insurance system and wrest it from control of Democrats.

Senate prohibits senators from making long-distance calls at state expense from outside state house.

NEW YORK EGGS

NEW YORK — (AP) — Eggs 43,506; weak. Mixed colors: Special packs 25½-25¾c; standards 24¾-25c; firsts 23½c. Mediums 22c; dirties No. 1, 21½c; average checks 20-20½c.

Refrigerator, specials 23¼-23¾c; standards 22¾c; firsts 20¾c; mediums 19¾c.

FEDERAL LAND BANK

4	due	1946-44	111¼ 111¾
3¼	due	1955-45	106⅝ 106⅞
3	due	1955-45	105⅝ 105⅝
3	due	1956-46	105⅝ 105⅝
3	due	1956-46	105⅝ 105⅝

SET FOR VOTE

Council to Decide on 3.2 Beer Ban at Session Feb. 7.

An ordinance designed to prohibit the sale of 3.2 beer on Sunday, given its second reading in council last night, set the stage for the final action on the measure at council's next meeting, Feb. 7.

Without comment, council heard the reading and Council President Karl P. Troll ordered the legislation filed for its final reading at the next regular session.

Passage of the amendment to the liquor code would prohibit the sale of all beverages on Sunday which have an alcoholic content higher than one-half of one per cent.

Agitation for the ban was started early last year by night club owners after council had turned down their request for an extension in week days closing hours.

Quality COAL phone us All Burning Economical-

The National Ice Co.
CANAL 2371

MANSFIELD NEWS IN BRIEF

Attending Convention — C. M. Crafton, president of Crafton Foot Health, Inc., is in Chicago this week attending a national convention of shoe merchants.

Recovering at Home—Frederick Becker, 117 West Fifth street, who has been ill at his home for the past eight weeks, was reported improved today.

Prayer Meeting—For the third service in the week's prayer program being held at the Park Avenue Baptist church the theme tonight will be "Prayer for Reconciliation of Our Church Life."

Condition Improved — Port H. Griffith, member of the American Legion drum corps, who sustained a fractured skull and internal injuries last week when struck by an automobile, was reported improving at General hospital.

Speaks to K. of C.—T. J. Hanley, president of the Hanley Milling company, will speak on "Alaska," at a meeting of Mansfield Knights of Columbus at 8 p. m. Thursday at the K. of C. home. Hanley visited Alaska last year.

Speaks on Labor—Joseph Scanlon, president of Delano lodge of steel workers, will address members of Beta Epsilon club at 7:30 p. m. today at the Y. W. C. A. on the subject of "Labor's Problems."

Committee to Meet—The nominating committee of the Y. W. C. A. will meet at 7:30 p. m. Thursday, with its chairman, Miss Emma Waring, to select candidates for the board of directors which will be elected by the membership at large the latter part of January.

Speaks To Club — Rufus A. Tracy will speak to the Mansfield Gyro club at its regular bi-weekly dinner meeting at the Mansfield-Leland hotel tonight. Dinner is scheduled for 6:45 p. m. Tracy will tell of a recent visit to South America.

Baby Clinic Postponed—A clinic for Mansfield babies, announced for tomorrow, will be held Jan. 12, at the health department offices in the city building, Dr. Roy C. Rehder, city-county health commissioner said today.

Builds Two Homes—Two building permits with an estimated total valuation of $8,000, were issued at city hall yesterday to the Modern Homes company, 53½ North Main street. The permits call for the construction of a residence valued at $2,000 at 133 North Willis avenue, and another valued at $6,000 at 344 Wood street.

Timely Announcements

Bingo tonight 8:30—446 Bowman, 25 games 25c.

Clients:—Those Cities Service Gas Co. and Cities Service Gas Pipeline Co. bonds we sold you at 47 and 55 are called at 101 and 102 respectively. Bring them in. Paul F. Cropper, OPS Bldg. Canal 4171.

Bingo Thursday night, S. & H. Corner Orange and Central. 25 games 25c. 7:30 p. m.

When in West Palm Beach, Florida, see W. C. Seiler for rooms, apartments or homes, 319 Jefferson Road.

Bingo Friday night, 8:00, Blue Goose, 25 games 25c.

New Year Bingo tonight 75 Harker. Erie 3607. Public invited.

HEAR TOWNSHIP ROAD REQUESTS

Engineer, Commissioners Get Suggestions for Drawing Up 1939 Program.

Inaugurating a new plan for setting up the county road program for 1939, County Engineer Howard C. Sword and county commissioners last night heard suggestions from trustees from 15 of the county's 18 townships at an informal session at the courthouse.

Although Sword said it is "still too early to say what changes will be made in the county's program," he added that he and the commissioners "obtained information from the trustees that will help us to form our plan."

The plan of holding a conference with trustees before establishing the county road policy was used for the first time at the request of the county engineer. Chairmen of the boards of trustees were the township representatives at the meeting.

Most of the townships asked for help in grading and maintenance work, but their requests were more modest than last year, Sword asserted.

He was unable to forecast to what extent the county's finances would permit county aid to townships in building and maintaining their roads this year.

During the past year, when weather conditions were unusually damaging to roads, the county was forced to use most of its funds for maintaining routes, with little left for new construction, the engineer said.

After considering information obtained from the trustees last night, commissioners and the engineer will meet probably early in February to set up a program for construction and maintenance of the roads during the year, Sword said.

PARKING METER BILL INTRODUCED

Council Takes Steps to Install System as Ordinance Gets First Reading.

(Continued From Page 1)

backed the parking meters as an alternative to lax enforcement of the parking regulations, did not have a selfish interest, but "we are considering Mansfield as a whole."

Crum also advocated the installation for a trial period of six months, explaining that if they weren't considered successful at that time, he would be the first one to "seek their removal."

The measure provides that the service director shall advertise for bids and enter into a contract for the installation of either penny or nickel machines.

The ordinance designates that the meters shall be under the supervision of the police department and that all funds derived from the machines shall be used exclusively for the regulation and control of traffic on the city streets.

This clause, Crum pointed out, provides that any funds over and above the cost of maintaining the meters would be definitely earmarked for the police department for traffic enforcement.

CHAIR NEARER

TALAHASSEE, Fla.—(INS)—The electric chair loomed nearer today for Franklin Pierce McCall, kidnap-killer of 5-year-old Jimmy Cash.

His only chance to stave off electrocution next week remained in an appeal to the U. S. supreme court following the unanimous refusal of the state supreme court yesterday to intervene in the case.

When they act like wild men, the bargains must be good.

We're out to sell. We've a bigger stock left on our hands than most stores start a season with. It's not a case of "how much" with us . . . it's a question of "how soon."

While they last . . .

Suits at .....$16.50 & $19.75
Overcoats at .....$16.50 up
Topcoats at .....$16.50 up

Matthes CLOTHING
14 S. Main

● As another year rolls around, we wish our friends—old and new—the best of happiness and good fortune.

Of course, each New Year brings unexpected events. There may be sudden money needs. If so, we'll help you make short work of your problems.

If you require some extra cash right now to clear up old year debts or for new year needs . . . see us. We stand ready to serve you every day in '39.

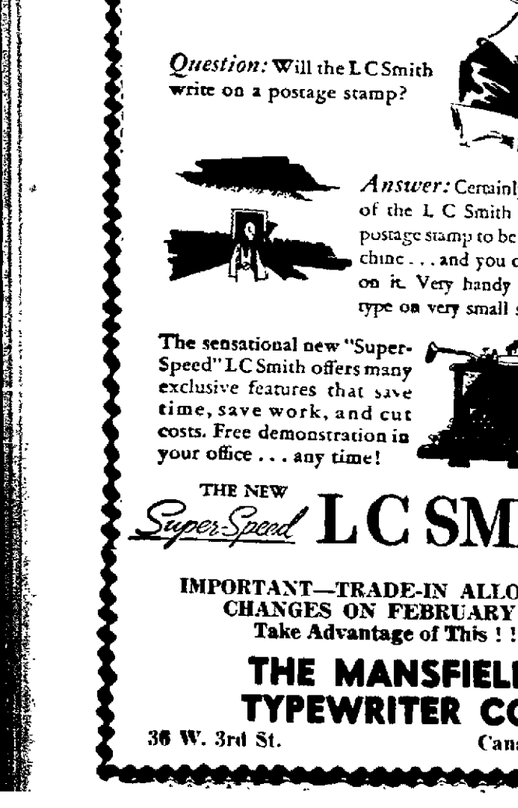
CRAWFORD FINANCE, Inc.
404 Walpark Bldg.
Canal 1122
W. A. PROSHEK, Mgr.
Personal and Automobile Loans

TABLE TENNIS SETS
That Afford Lots of Fun and Enjoyment
$1.00 up

Sets include 4 paddles (or more) balls, net and hardware for attaching to your table. Get your set now!

Also Separate Paddles, Balls, Nets, Etc.

Yuncker Bros.
108 N. Main St.



Question: Will the L C Smith write on a postage stamp?

Answer: Certainly. The close feed of the L C Smith permits even a postage stamp to be fed into the machine . . . and you can actually type on it. Very handy if you want to type on very small stickers or seals.

The sensational new "Super-Speed" L C Smith offers many exclusive features that save time, save work, and cut costs. Free demonstration in your office . . . any time!

THE NEW Super-Speed L C SMITH

IMPORTANT—TRADE-IN ALLOWANCE CHANGES ON FEBRUARY 1ST
Take Advantage of This ! ! !

THE MANSFIELD TYPEWRITER CO.
36 W. 3rd St. Canal 4395-3695

Over-Sunday Excursion
$5.

Davey Lashes at 'Cockeyed Theorists' In Washington

U.S. DESTROYS STATE RIGHTS, GOVERNOR SAYS

Address to Assembly Flays Dictatorial Authority of Federal Bureaus.

(By International News Service)

COLUMBUS — Declaring that "the cockeyed theorists are in the saddle, and Ohio is looked upon as an immature child, like all the other states," Governor Martin L. Davey went on record today as opposed to the "destruction of state rights."

Addressing a joint session of the house and senate of the 93rd general assembly and packed galleries last night, the governor, who retires from office after four years on Jan. 9, declared:

"During the last four years I have struggled to maintain one basic principle in two directions. The first has been to preserve the maximum amount of local control over local affairs. To a large extent this objective has been achieved.

"The second has been to prevent, as far as possible, the destruction of state rights, which are gradually being swallowed up by an overgrowing and avaricious federal bureaucracy."

Davey lashed out at the federal aid highway program by asserting that the Washington bureau dictates federal aid projects, although the state furnishes half the money.

State Roads 'Neglected.'

"They (the Washington bureau) insist upon the most expensive construction . . . these millions of dollars of Ohio money are consumed in a few miles of most expensive construction each year, while the state roads are neglected," he said.

The governor continued:

"I regreet this effort to destroy the rights of the states as the most dangerous threat to our form of government, and to the liberties of the people. Federal bureaucracy is far removed from the average citizen, and is not answerable to public opinion—in fact, quite indifferent to it."

He called the granting of "large amounts of taxpayers' money" to federal bureaus "bait . . . the seductive power by which the states surrender many of their basic and important rights."

"Once a state accepts federal money, it no longer controls its own affairs," the governor added, "but immediately becomes the victim of the theories or caprice of the federal bureau."

"Our state cannot buy a lead pencil without permission from the Social Security board, which constantly violates the federal law by the simple device of withholding money taken from the people of this state.

"The cockeyed theorists are in the saddle and Ohio is looked upon as an immature child, like all the other states."

MORE

Jackie and Betty Separate, Mother Says 'Come Home'

HOLLYWOOD — (AP) — Jackie Coogan, separated from Actress Betty Grable by an empty pocketbook, got an offer today from his mother to "come home"—and turned it down.

Informed "the kid" and his blond wife were living apart because of "financial difficulties," Mrs. Arthur L. Bernstein nearly cried as she announced she wanted to have her son back and forget the past—which includes Jackie's $4,000,000 accounting suit against her and Bernstein, his step-father.

"He'll be more than welcome," she said, her voice quivering. "I feel awfully bad about the separation—but I can't believe it is caused by 'financial conditions,' as they say. There must be more to it."

Young Coogan showed no interest in going back to mother.

"Under existing conditions, it is impossible to contemplate a reconciliation," he declared.

He and Betty, married since 1937, moved out of their Westwood house last Sunday, apparently in a friendly break, for he took her ice skating the following night. She is with her parents in Santa Monica.

GIBSON RENAMED LIBRARY TRUSTEE

Bank Cashier Re-Appointed For 7-Year Term by School Board.

R. S. Gibson, cashier of the Mansfield Savings Trust National bank, was re-appointed to the board of trustees of the Mansfield Public library last night by the board of education.

Gibson was named for a seven-year term on the seven-member board. One member is appointed annually by the school board to serve seven years.

Other trustees are Atty. William M. Weldon, C. F. Fighter, Dr. J. A. Spence, Robert Black, Will G. Herrold, and Atty. Edwin Mansfield. Weldon is president.

LIMBACH FACES SURGERY

COLUMBUS —(INS)— Arthur L. Limbach, Democratic state chairman, rested in Mt. Carmel hospital while physicians decided whether to operate for a gall bladder ailment.

Draft Laws to Curtail Politics In Relief

Up and Down THE STREET

The teller at the Farmers bank thought he was handling a perfunctory transaction when an individual, far from prosperous-looking, pushed three bills over the counter and asked for $12 in sales tax stamps. But the teller gasped and opened his eyes when he looked again at the money. There were two $1 bills, and the third was a $100 bill. He called it to the customer's attention. "Hmm," hmmed the customer, "my wife gave me the money this morning to buy the stamps. I'll have to tell her to be more careful. She might have given a customer that $100 bill as a ten." He got his stamps, his $90 in change and left, leaving the teller still gasping.

* * *

Bellville high has been represented on the basketball court only since the new gym was built two years ago, but the school already is ahead of its rivals when it comes to novel cheers. The cheerleaders have twisted popular songs into cheers for their team. For instance, "A Tisket, A Tasket" has been rearranged into a yell. So has "Flat Foot Floogy With a Floy, Floy." Bellville is credited with being original, at least.

* * *

From "The Farm," the old-new home of the Roberts family in Elmira, N. Y., comes New Year greetings to Mansfield friends. Mrs. Bertha Roberts, and her two sons, Tom and Bob (widow and sons of the late Tim Roberts, Mansfield theater man) and the boys' wives have purchased and remodeled a home in Elmira that is 123 years old. It was built in 1816 and restoration has just been completed. Their New Year greeting says: "The past 123 years have seen the old go and the new come—but it's an old-fashioned Happy New Year greeting from our house to your house as another year rolls 'round."

* * *

School Board President Harold W. Arlin was in a "stew" yesterday. He gave employes in the Westinghouse plating department the shovel he had used to break ground for the new Johnny Appleseed school, with instructions to plate it chromium for preservation. When they brought back a shovel, it looked as though it had been through a war. Arlin started to upbraid the workmen, but they stopped him by taking back the battered shovel—which wasn't the right one—and presenting him with the ceremonial spade, bright and shining, bearing a plate with the names of the board members inscribed on it. The shovel will be displayed in the school board office.

KIPP ELECTED

Retains Post as President of Madison School Board.

Phillip Kipp, Lexington avenue road, was re-elected president of the Madison township board of education at the board's re-organization session last night.

L. C. Hughes, Cook road, was chosen vice president again and W. C. Reinoehl began his second year as clerk of the board. He was appointed last year for a two-year period.

The board changed its meeting time to the second Tuesday night of each month. Sessions have been held in the past on the third Monday.

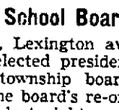
HOSPITAL NEWS

General Hospital.

Admissions: Mrs. Lottie DeWitt, Greenwich; Mrs. Blanche Corcoran, Mt. Vernon; Mrs. Lewis Lee, rear 298 West Sixth street; Mrs. Charles Stahl, Bahl avenue; Mrs. Howard Young, R. D. 1, Lexington; Mrs. William Hill, 112 Hedges street.

Releases: Josephine Colangelo, 53 East Sixth street; Russell Fairhurst, South Diamond street; Elizabeth Magyesy, 30 Lincoln avenue; Joseph Litzler, 407 Fourth avenue; Ernest Wilson, 228½ North Main street; Mrs. Stanley Marietta and daughter, 387 South Diamond street; Baby girl Sutter, 177 East Fourth street; Mrs. J. R. Corbin, Willard.

Welcome To—



A son, born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Diehm, 324 Laird avenue, at the home.

Temperatures

Daily Mansfield temperature ranges of 24 hours ending at noon today:
High—54.
Low—31.
Average (24 hours)—42.5.
Average (14 years)—27.7.
Temperature at noon—52.
Precipitation—None.

Cities	7:30 a. m. Today	High Yes'dy.
Cincinnati—Cloudy	52	64
Columbus—Cloudy	41	60
Cleveland—Cloudy	36	54

DAILY SCRAPBOOK— By R. J. Scott

HERE IS A TREE WITH AN EAR
WITTENBURG COLLEGE CAMPUS—SPRINGFIELD, OHIO
80
SIDE PANELS IN STAMPS ARE IMPORTANT—THE TAIL OF A SHOOTING STAR IS SHOWN IN THE LEFT PANEL OF THIS AIR MAIL STAMP OF PERU
PRIESTS OF TIBET ARE DISTINGUISHED BY IMMENSE, PLUMED HATS
1-4
IF TWO "ELECTRIC CATFISH," CAUGHT IN FRESH WATERS OF AFRICA, ARE PUT INTO AN AQUARIUM TOGETHER, THEY WILL SHOCK EACH OTHER UNTIL ONE IS KILLED!

ANNUAL C. OF C. DINNER JAN. 27

'Cowboy Humorist' to Be One of Two Principal Speakers at Joint Session.

The annual joint dinner-meeting of the Mansfield Chamber of Commerce and the Manufacturers division will be held Jan. 27 in the ballroom of the Mansfield-Leland hotel, it was announced today by C. L. VanDerau, president of the chamber.

One of the principal speakers will be Cullen Wright, of Omaha, Neb., widely known "cowboy humorist." The other speaker has not been selected, John S. Jones, general chairman of the annual meeting said, but attempts are being made to have Merle Thorpe, editor of the Nation's Business magazine, address the group.

The chamber will make its annual "civic award" at the meeting and nominations for the selection of the individual or organization which has accomplished most towards the civic improvement of Mansfield during 1938 are being sought by the C. of C.

The committee handling the selection, urged that the general public send in nominations to the chamber office in the Farmer's bank building before Jan. 25.

The selection will be the second annual award to be made by the C. of C. Last year the award went to the Liberty Park association for the outstanding service performed in developing Liberty park into a recreation center.

Paul W. Williams, secretary-manager of the C. of C. said that tickets would be mailed to the membership this week and that first reservations would be given preference. The seating capacity of the ballroom is limited to about 300. Last year approximately 400 attended the event.

KILLED WHILE HUNTING

SPRINGFIELD, O.—(AP)— Alval L. Fulk, 33, died yesterday of wounds from his own shotgun, suffered Dec. 31 while hunting.

SCHOOL BOARD RE-ELECTS ARLIN, SETS UP FUNDS FOR 3 MONTHS

Re-electing H. W. Arlin president and Dr. John S. Hattery vice president, the Mansfield board of education last night re-organized for the new year and adopted a temporary appropriation measure providing for operations of the schools until April 1.

Arlin and Dr. Hattery began their sixth consecutive year as president and vice president of the board. There were no other nominations for the offices last night.

The appropriation measure, which will serve until the schools set up their appropriation for the entire year, provides $137,145 for operating expenses during the next three months and $55,437 for interest and debt retirement.

In the general fund, $115,180 was provided for salaries of the superintendent, principals, teachers, supervisors and janitors, $7,700 for supplies, $14,215 for general operation, equipment replacement, and transportation of pupils.

Dr. John H. Bristor, clerk of the board, said complete figures on the funds the schools will have available from the county this year have not been received, making it impossible to set up a permanent appropriation for the year.

The board retained its present meeting schedule of the third Monday night of each month.

The board began the year with a bonded indebtedness of $1,088,000, more than half of which is rrepresented in the $550,000 bond issue approved in September for the city's $1,000,000 school building program.

The board paid off $66,000 in bonds during the past year, Dr. Bristor reported.

PICK CHAIRMEN

Fish and Game Members Name Committee Heads for Year.

Members of the Richland county Fish and Game association heard two talks by conservation department officials and announcement of committee appointments last night at a dinner meeting at North Lake park pavilion.

The speakers were Carl Waukenschwanz, who spoke on Charles Mill dam, and Hayden W. Olds, who spoke on game management.

Committee chairmen named last night were Harry Rist, entertainment; Carl Stewart, coon; Fred Frankeberger, coon; Clarence Silcott, fish; Harry Stewart, rabbit; Harold T. Lutz, general dog chairman; Roscoe McGinty, beagles; A. A. Miller, bird dogs, and Secretary John L. Catlett, publicity.

BUCYRUS BOYS ADMIT THEFTS

2 High School Students Arrested, Confess, Police Say.

BUCYRUS—Arrested by police at the Bucyrus high school yesterday, two 16-year-old students were held in the Crawford county jail today for questioning in connection with a series of robberies of homes in the city.

Police said the boys confessed robbing the home of A. E. Philbin Sunday night where they obtained some jewelry and an air rifle. The jewelry was found in one of the boys' lockers at school, police reported.

The youths also admitted to officers they looted a number of homes and automobiles since last summer.

LAFF-A-DAY

"Will you stop leaving chairs around so Junior won't fall down?"

SENATORS SEEK TO CHECK FUND 'MANEUVERING'

Act as Probe Committee Says WPA Funds Diverted for 'Political Purposes.'

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON,—Senators began drafting specific legislation today to impose new restraints on the political use of relief funds.

Both Democrats and Republicans predicted early enactment as they studied the report of the campaign investigating committee, which recommended tighter restrictions on electioneering by WPA workers and government employes generally.

The report said relief funds in many instances had been diverted "to political ends."

Senator Hatch (D-NM) was working on two measures designed to check political maneuvering by government workers. One would bar political activities by federal employes other than those in elective or policy-making positions. The other would place restrictions on both federal workers and on state employes whose salaries are paid in part from federal funds.

Sees Favorable Action.

Hatch, unsuccessful in putting through similar legislation last year, expressed confidence favorable action would be taken at this session.

Senator Barkley (D-Ky), the majority leader, said the campaign committee's recommendations for restrictive legislation would be referred to the senate elections committee.

Senator McNary (R-Ore) added that he would ask to have the report referred to the commerce committee for study in connection with the nomination of Harry Hopkins to be secretary of commerce. Hopkins formerly was WPA administrator.

The report fixed no responsibility on Hopkins for the conditions which it denounced, but severely criticized Aubrey Williams, Hopkins' deputy administrator, for telling a meeting of relief workers in June "We've got to keep our friends in power."

(Williams was designated recently by President Roosevelt to head the national youth administration, but the appointment would not require senate confirmation.)

MRS. WILL DIES

East Mansfield Woman Taken by Death at 77.

Mrs. Anna M. Will, 77, wife of John Will, died Tuesday evening at her home in East Mansfield after a brief illness. Born in Pittsburgh, Sept. 15, 1861, Mrs. Will came to this city 26 years ago. She was a member of the First M. E. church.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. S. S. Davidson of East Mansfield and Mrs. Noah Hale of Chattanooga, Tenn.; two sisters, Mrs. Jennie McGuire of McKeesport, Pa., and Mrs. John Colgam of Steubenville, five grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Services will be held at the Wappner funeral home at 2 p. m. Friday with Rev. E. G. Corwin of the First M. E. church officiating. The body will be at the home of the daughter, Mrs. Davidson, East Mansfield, until Friday morning. The burial site has not been selected.

FOUND DEAD IN ASHLAND HOME

Edward J. Downs Kills Self; Was Gas Station Operator.

ASHLAND—Edward J. Downs, 55, of 902 West Main street, was found dead at his home at 11 a. m. yesterday.

Dr. George M. Emery, Ashland county coroner, gave a verdict of suicide. He said Downs died as the result of a self-inflicted shotgun wound in the chest. He was found by members of his family.

Born March 9, 1884 in Ashland, Mr. Downs had been associated with gasoline service stations here for a number of years. He was part owner of a station for the past eight years.

Surviving are his wife Opal; a son Robert of Ashland; three sisters, Mrs. J. D. Scott of Mansfield, and Mrs. Fred Knapp and Mrs. Charles Shopbell both of Ashland, and three brothers, Robert of Toledo, and Frank B. and Charles H. both of Ashland. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

OFFICER FACES MURDER CHARGE

Police Charge He Shot Woman in Fit of Jealousy.

DETROIT—(LP)—A fit of jealousy after learning that his place had been taken by a former admirer caused Patrolman Otto K. Schoenegge to shoot and fatally wound Mrs. Loy Lebow, 39, police believed today.

Schoenegge, a police prisoner in receiving hospital, where he is in serious condition with a bullet wound in the chest, confessed that he shot Mrs. Lebow when she told him that their plans to be married must be cancelled. Mrs. Lebow died 12 hours after the shooting in her home of bullet wounds. Schoenegge said he turned the gun on himself.

A charge of murder was expected to be filed.

PAVONIA WOMAN DIES AT AGE 43

Mrs. Lela Green Stricken Tuesday In General Hospital.

Mrs. Lela Tilva Green, 43, of Pavonia, died in the General hospital Tuesday evening after a brief illness. A resident of Pavonia 12 years, Mrs. Green was born in Summittville, Ind., April 5, 1895.

Surviving are her husband, Joseph; three daughters, Mary Margaret, Dolly Florence and Betty Jane; a son, George Earl, all at home: her mother, Mrs. Ruth Miller of Pavonia; two sisters, Mrs. Mary Bagres of New Castle, Pa., and Mrs. Jose Cox of Anderson, Ind., and two brothers, Ora Miller of Dayton and Donald Miller of Portland, Ore.

The body was removed to the Geiger funeral home where services will be held at 2:30 p. m. Friday with Rev. F. M. Dickey of Pavonia officiating. The body will be taken to Logan for burial.

DIES AT AGE 62

William Rothschild, Bucyrus Native, Dead in New Washington.

NEW WASHINGTON—William Rothschild, 62, died at his home here today after an illness of two years. He was born in Bucyrus, March 5, 1876. Surviving are his wife, two sons, John of Toledo, and Amos of Stony Ridge; two brothers, Charles and Edward, of New Washington, and a sister, Mrs. Nell Fink of Auburn, Ind.

Funeral services will be conducted at the home at 2 p. m. Friday by Rev. C. F. Hager, with burial in the Union cemetery.

TRAFFIC INJURIES FATAL

SPRINGFIELD — (LP) — Mrs Clara Petty, 66, died yesterday of injuries received when struck by an automobile four days ago.

FAIR ENOUGH!

Sure, New Year Day Can Be Happy---If You Awake With Smile, Not Hangover

—By WESTBROOK PEGLER

NEW YORK—What a joy, indeed, is his who can bound from his bed, alert and vibrant with healthy vigor for the glad new year, a smile on his lips, a song in his heart, his spirit as clean as a running brook.

The clear, cold air blows briskly through the open window, but he has renewed his vitality with eight full hours of untroubled sleep, and the saucy blasts merely tingle his skin, which glows with the warm strength of physical well-being.

"One-two, one-two, one-two, up-down, up-down, up-down, 50 times for a breather, and now, placing hands lightly on the hips and holding the ears at right angles, he bends from the waist, right-left, three-four, and after 100 times bounds into an icy shower, singing, a little off-key, perhaps, but with sheer delight at being alive this beautiful morn.

He faces another year equipped in soul and body for his duty as a citizen, a credit to his parents and his employer and an asset to the world.

Not for him the sad follies of those who sit far into the night in sinful reveling, drinking intoxicating beverages which numb the spirit and the senses and corrode the human soul. Not for him the suggestive dancing of those who are erroneously considered "smart" to the strains of sensuous music calculated to stimulate evil thoughts of womanhood.

* * *

Not for him the society of poor, misguided and silly feminine companions in immodest attire, with cheeks and lips artificially colored to counterfeit the glow of health which cannot reside in those who imbibe poisonous draughts and wantonly impair with tobacco fumes the magnificent edifice provided by nature as the mansion of the human soul.

Not for him the late hours and ill-advised diet of those who, having greeted the new year at midnight, then continue their mocking behavior until 1 o'clock or even as late a 2 or 4, consuming sausage and scrambled eggs contrary to the simplest rules of hygiene and awake at noon on New Year day feeling physically and spiritually depressed.

Their pains, their ill-at-ease, tossing amid the covers as they stir on New Year day, are pitiful in the extreme, but much worse, as one would see if one could but peer into their souls, is the sense of remorse, of self-reproach for having wantonly and willfully rejected an occasion which instinctively calls men to repentance and reform.

Pretend, they may, to be content with their way and at peace in their hearts, but they are only little boys and girls grown up, and they cannot altogether stifle the feeble chiding of the small, still voice within them.

* * *

Not sweet and innocent sleep has been their lot since at last they ceased their wicked revelry with the coming of the dawn, but rather stupor and troubled tossing as soul and body rebelled together. Not joy is theirs, but woe and inner shame as feebly they open their eyes and quickly shut them again to exclude the beautiful light of the flaming beacon of a new year.

No thrilling health and strength is theirs to bring them bounding to the open window to fill their lungs with nature's own wine, the crisp, sweet air of morning, flavored with optimism of the new year. No song of virtue wells up from their hearts, no glad brotherly greetings to their fellow men are framed by their parched and crusted lips. No zest have they for the fray of life, no simple pride and pleasure in having lived up to the best that is in them.

Do they feel lousy!

Hollywood Speaks---

—By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—It has cost Peter Lorre about $250,000, over a number of years, to foreswear horror and crime and stay on the law's side in pictures. . . . But (figures Peter) he'd rather be Mr. Moto for years to come than a bogeyman for a profitable short spell. . . . In other words, crime isn't a steady job.

Heroine in the newest Moto adventure is Amanda Duff, Santa Barbara society girl. . . . Amanda's dad still isn't sold on her picture career. . . . On a recent visit home she was asked what kind of film work she was doing. . . . "A Mr. Moto—a detective picture," she said. . . . "Hm-m-m, detective, huh?" said papa. "Maybe I'd better change MY name!"

Walked into a clinic scene for "I Take This Woman." . . . Dr. Jack Carson was examining the throat of a small boy when Nurse Hedy Lamarr walked in, inquiring for Dr. Spencer Tracy. . . . They'd been shooting that scene all day, were finally getting it—because at last they'd found a boy who wouldn't break up the scene by yelling when the spatula entered his mouth. . . . Four boys had been tried. . . . The fifth (and successful) candidate was Vincent Graeff, who sells greeting cards outside the Metro gates, lives a block away, and had never been inside the studio before. . . . (Sequel: 7-year-old Vincent declared himself a week's holiday on his movie riches.)

* * *

With Sam Goldwyn retreating to the sidelines of dignity, it is squarely up to Directors Gregory Ratoff and Michael Curtiz to keep Hollywood—er—picturesque . . . Curtiz, enthusiastic but so far unable to master the intricacies of English, throws himself for better Goldwynisms than ever Sam did. . . . But Ratoff's style is equally interesting.

Gregory is a man of extremes. . . . Quote: "To me a scene is either san-say-shun-al—or eet steenks!" . . . He is author of those now stock phrases: "Slightly terrific" and "colossal in a small way." . . . Seated beside Loretta Young on the set one day, he jumped up: "Loretta! I have a tee-reef-ic idea!" Immediately he sat down again, sunk in gloom: "No, I haven't. . . ."

They tell, too, of the time Ratoff in Hollywood telephoned his wife (Eugenie Leontovich) in Paris . . . Bystanders reported that Greg talked steadily in Russian, for five minutes without stopping. . . . Then he hung up, shook his head sadly: "I couldn't hear a vord she said."

* * *

Rand Brooks, the talentless pupil in "Dramatic School"—and it takes talent to show lack of it on purpose—is the son of Mildred Brooks, one-time leading lady to Buck Jones.

Both the horror boys became papas this year—a boy at the Lugosis, a girl at the Karloffs.

I've heard of stand-ins who make extra money in art, who peddle various commodities, one who even practices chiropractic on the side, but Amelia Batchler has them all topped. . . . Amelia, stand-in for Rita Johnson, is a house designer and builder on off days—and does most of the work, from carpentering to plastering, painting and stucco-finishing, in person. . . . And spare evenings she studies law!

MAP FIGHT ON MYRNA'S POST

Senate Republicans To Oppose Her Parole Board Appointment.

COLUMBUS —(INS)— Overhauling of the state parole board may be undertaken shortly in view of the appointment of Mrs. Myrna Smith, Governor Davey's secretary, to one of the $6,000-a-year positions, senate Republicans indicated today.

Gov.-Elect John W. Bricker withheld comment at this time on Mrs. Smith's appointment but Sen. Frank Whittemore (R-Akron) the majority floor leader, said he favored some action to "clear up" the situation.

Parole board appointments do not require senate confirmation. Whittemore said he considered this a weakness in the law and indicated steps would be taken to change it.

25,000 TROOPS PASS DALADIER

French Premier Repeats France Will Protect Tunisia.

TUNIS, Tunisia—(INS)—Inspecting Tunisia's southern defenses, Premier Edouard Daladier of France journey from Gabes to Ain Tounine today and there reviewed 25,000 crack colonial troops.

Moving quickly on his triumphal "solidarity" tour of the protectorate, Daladier arrived at Gabes from Tunis early in the morning. By 11 a. m. he was at Ain Tounine and the military display began half an hour later.

At both points the French premier received enthusiastic greetings similar to those he received yesterday at Tunis and Bizerte, ovations which reinforced his warnings to Italy to keep hands off French colonies and dependencies.

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®
NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

WARNS BLUNTLY NATION FACES WAR THREATS

President Calls on Congress to Prepare for Trouble, Says We're Not Isolated.

(Continued From Page 1)

capable of sustained supply for the armed forces.

3. Social and economic unity among the people themselves.

Dictatorship, he continued, may command the full strength of a regimented nation, but in a democracy united strength can only be had when its people "educated by modern standards to know what is going on and where they are going, have conviction that they are receiving as large a share of material success and of human dignity, as they have a right to receive."

"Our nation's program of social and economic reform," he said, "is therefore a part of defense as basic as armaments themselves."

Describes 'Defense' Moves.

To this end, he went on, in the past six years administration policy has been directed at conserving natural resources, land, water, power, forests; putting agriculture on a sounder basis; strengthennig labor and industry; putting the banking structure on a sounder basis; providing youth with more facilities for work and education; improving the condition of the aged—all designed to promote a greater unity among the American people.

"We have our difficulties, true," h said, "but we are a wiser and tougher nation than we were in 1929, or 1932.

"Never have there been six years of such far-flung internal preparedness in our history. And all this has been done without any dictator's power to command without conscription of labor or capital, without concentration camps, and without a scratch on freedom of speech, freedom of the press, or the rest of the bill of rights."

Tools Need Improving.

To accomplish this, he said, it has been necessary to "forge new tools...and some of these tools still need some machining down."

As an indication that he has in mind no new or startling legislation to propose to the congress, the president went on:

"We have now passed the period of internal conflict in the launching of our program of social reform. Our full energies may now be released to invigorate the processes of recovery in order to preserve our reforms, and to give every man and woman who wants to work a real job at a living wage.

"But time is of paramount importance. The deadline of danger from within and from without is not within our control. The hour glass may be in the hands of other nations. Our own hourglass tells us that we are off in a race to make democracy work."

The first duty of statesmanship today, he declaring, "is to bring capital and man-power together."

Problem For U. S.

"Dictatorships do this by main force," he said, "but using main force they apparently succeed at it—for the moment. However we abhor their methods, we are compelled to admit that they have obtained substantial utilization of all their material and resources."

"Like it or not, they have solved, for a time at least, the problem of idle men and idle capital.

"Can we compete with them by boldly seeking methods of putting idle men and idle capital together, and, at the same time, remain within our American way of life, within our bill of rights, and within the bounds of what is, from our point of view, civilization itself."

Capital Idle, He Says.

The country suffers, he said, from "a great unemployment of capital."

In this connection, he challenged stoutly the idea that the nation is over-burdened with debt, and that the government is spending more than it can afford—a plain indication that the New Deal does not propose to relax its spending policies at this time.

The current national objective in an economic sense, Mr. Roosevelt said, is to push the national income to the eighty billion dollar mark, as against an estimated national income this year of sixty billions.

Given that figure of eighty billions, he said, there would be substantial reduction of unemployment, and federal revenues from taxation would be sufficient to balance the budget.

THE OLD HOME TOWN

By Stanley

MY DAY OFF AND I THOUGHT ID STAY HOME AND GET A LITTLE REST —AND I WALK INTO ONE OF HER MOODS !!!
NO, I THINK WE WILL TRY THE PIANO AGAINST THE NORTH WALL AGAIN ---- OR THE SOUTH-- -- NOW LET ME SEE---- ------
I HOPE SHE MAKES UP HER MIND AND HOLDS IT!!
SINCE CELIA TWIDDLE TOOK A COURSE IN INTERIOR DECORATING THINGS HAVE BEEN ON THE MOVE AT THE TWIDDLE HOME
STANLEY
COPYRIGHT, 1938, KING FEATURES SYNDICATE, INC. WORLD RIGHTS RESERVED
1-4-39

FRANCO SEIZES TINY CITY, KEY TO CATALONIA

Insurgents Capture Highway Control Point in Drive to End Spanish War.

HENDAYE, FRANCE (AT THE SPANISH FRONTIER) —(AP)— Two insurgent columns, blasting their way through government fortifications, were reported today to have captured the little textile town of Artesa, known as the "key to Catalonia."

First insurgent field bulletins reaching border stations said the town, only 65 miles from Barcelona, fell shortly after 5 p. m. Tuesday. An hour before, two of the insurgent army corps—the Urgel and Maestrazgo—moved into zones on the northwest and west to join forces in the face of withering fire from the Spanish government defenders.

All mention of Artesa's reported fall were omitted from government communiques, although bulletins did admit insurgent advances in the immediate sector.

Controls Main Highways.

Capture of Artesa is highly important to the insurgents because of its position as control point for three main highways. It dominates the road from Tremp in the north to Tarragona.

About 25 miles east of Lerida, this highway joins the main road between Lerida and Barcelona, objective of the insurgent offensive. The little town, with a normal population is about 2,700, also is on the main road from Balaguer to the French-Spanish border. A number of secondary roads reaching government positions converge on Artesa.

An advance of almost identical strategical importance was proceeding, meanwhile, in the Aspa sector just southeast of Lerida.

Insurgent troops there were pushing into the Urgel tableland, where they were attacking the village of Castelldans, junction point for seven secondary roads directly west of the government base at Borjas Blancas.

Bellville Couple, Married 50 Years, Mark Anniversary

BELLVILLE—Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Leedy, south of Bellville, entertained Sunday afternoon in celebration of their golden wedding anniversary at their farm home near Bellville. The couple was married Jan. 2, 1889, at Bellville.

During the afternoon more than 50 guests were received at an open house reception, and in the evening a dinner was served to members of the family and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Leedy are the parents of five children. They are Mrs. Leon Leedy, Mrs. Gertrude Leedy, Mrs. Harry Green, Paul and Walter Leedy. Mrs. Green is from Columbus, and the other children all live near Bellville. There are 14 grandchildren.

Mr. Leedy, who has operated the farm near Bellville, was born and reared on the property where he now resides.

THROW LIME IN VICTIM'S EYES

COLUMBUS—(INS— Physicians worked to save the eyesight of Howard R. White, 33, rental agent of Olentangy village, Columbus apartment area, today while police sought two robbers who threw quicklime in his face and took $700 after throwing him down a flight of steps.

White told police he was alone in the rental office shortly before midnight when he heard a knock at the rear door. Opening the door, two men stepped in and hurled handsful of lime in his eyes.

HELP STOMACH DIGEST FOOD
Without Laxatives—and You'll Eat Everything from Soup to Nuts
The stomach should digest two pounds of food daily. When you eat heavy, greasy, coarse or rich foods or when you are nervous, hurried or chew poorly—your stomach often pours out too much fluid. Your food doesn't digest and you have gas, heartburn, nausea, pain or sour stomach. You feel sour, sick and upset all over.
Doctors say never take a laxative for stomach pain. It is dangerous and foolish. It takes those little black tablets called Bell-ans for indigestion to make the excess stomach fluids harmless, relieve distress in no time and put you back on your feet. Relief is so quick it is amazing and one 25c package proves it. Ask for Bell-ans for Indigestion.

YOU SHOULD RESOLVE
—to take care of your teeth during the coming year. Postponement only means added trouble and expense. Come in and have your teeth examined NOW.
LIBERAL CREDIT TERMS
• Cas for Extractions • X-Ray
• Plates • Fillings
Broken Plates Repaired—2½-Hr. Service
Dr. Stern
59½ N. Main St. Above Grant's
Hours—9 A. M. to 5:30 P. M. Eve. Appts.

PARTIES: Roper Charged With Using U. S. Boat to Fete Guests

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON—Daniel C. Roper, who quit the secretaryship of commerce a fortnight ago, was the target today of accusations that he used a government boat for his private entertainment.

Richard N. Elliott, acting comptroller general, charged in a formal report yesterday that Roper and other commerce department officials made unauthorized use of the vessel "Eala" in 1934-35. Elliott placed the cost to the government at $9,506.72.

Elliott included a detailed log of the boat in his annual report to congress. The boat was in the service of the bureau of navigation and steamboat inspection, Elliott said.

He contended that "such items as Poland water, flowers, cigars, cigarets, etc., purchased for members of parties, were vouchered as paint, provisions or supplies in some instances, and were paid for from the appropriation."

The report added, however, that in some instances purchases were paid for by members of the groups aboard the vessel.

DEFENSE: Fortification Plans In Alaska, Pacific Win Approval

(By International News Service)

WASHINGTON—The naval proposal for fortification of former "forbidden' Alaskan and Pacific areas, as well as a huge naval air base program on the Atlantic, was widely approved by preparedness-minded members of congress today.

The vast program for naval expansion, recommended by a special naval board headed by Rear Admiral A. J. Hepburn, was regarded as America's answer to Japan's unrestricted naval building program.

For 14 years the United States was bound by the Washington treaty to refrain from fortifying the slender Aleutian Islands, which stretch out into Arctic seas toward Japan, and other strategic Pacific islands.

Even though Japan denounced the Washington treaty Jan. 1, 1936, the American government and the navy have resisted the drive of many members of congress for extension of fortifications.

The Hepburn report apparently "blew off the lid"—and the United States now proposes to develop impregnable naval defenses in the Pacific ocean.

While the ultimate cost estimated as high as $2,000,000,000, caused some members of congress to urge caution, there appeared to be general agreement that there must be further expansion.

The house naval affairs committee, which reported the Vinson naval expansion bill in the last session, plans to give early consideration to the Hepburn report.

RELIEF: $700,000,000 Sought To Run WPA Until June 30

(By United Press)

WASHINGTON — President Roosevelt intends asking congress late this week for approximately $700,000,000 to continue the Works Progress Administration until June 30.

Administration advisers said a special message on relief, outlining needs and stating that last year's appropriation of $1,425,000,000 was nearly exhausted, probably would be sent to the capitol Friday.

Relief became the number one issue of the new congress when the senate campaign expenditures committee recommended revisions in the law to divorce politics from relief.

Despite controversy over WPA activities, congressional leaders said the relief treasury would be re-filled quickly. They said $700,000,000 would be sufficient to care for 2,500,000 persons until the end of the fiscal year.

Some senators sought support for a long-range program intended to cushion relief rolls against depression crowding. They would restrict WPA relief to 2,000,000 persons, and aid the other unemployed through more liberal compensation benefits under the Social Security act and direct relief in which the states would share the costs equally.

The plan, according to its supporters, would encourage industrial workers and others affected by seasonal lay-offs to take compensation benefits instead of WPA jobs.

WHERE HELP IS NEEDED
Your cold should be treated inside, where help is most needed. Father John's Medicine aids in breaking up colds, and also in building strong, sturdy bodies. No harmful drugs.

REDUCE LIVING COST
There is need for economy now when people are trying to save money. Colds are expensive in time and wages lost. Treat them promptly with Father John's Medicine. Rich in vitamins.

84 YEARS FIGHTING COLDS
FATHER JOHN'S MEDICINE
NO DRUGS

ASKS FOR MORE RELIEF FUNDS

Council Sends Resolution to Legislators, Says Boost in State Aid Necessary.

(Continued From Page 1)

though the city is being operated in an economical manner it will be impossible to appropriate funds for direct relief, as all money available for caring for indigents will be appropriated for hospitalization, medical care and burials.

The city in its tentative appropriation draft has earmarked $22,000 for these services during 1939. Last year $19,000 was spent for the same items.

Legislation calling for the renewal of a contract with the General hospital staff physicians for an annual fee of $5,000 for medical and surgical care of the city's indigent failed to come before council last night.

Council President Karl P. Troll explained that since the annual appropriations bill had not been approved, setting aside the funds could not be authorized.

RETAIN OFFICERS

Mechanics Loan Stockholders, Directors Hold Meetings.

All officers and members of the board of directors of the Mechanics Building and Loan company were re-elected at the annual meetings of stockholders and directors last night at the offices of the institution.

Renamed to the board of directors by stockholders were R. W. Hartman, W. A. Bowers, E. D. Baxter, Dr. W. L. Wolford, H. T. Siegenthaler, and A. E. Courtney.

At the re-organization meeting of the board all officers of the company were re-elected. They were Hartman, president; Baxter, vice president; A. E. Courtney, secretary-treasurer; Bowers, assistant secretary; Flosse A. Courtney, second assistant secretary, and John F. Kramer, attorney.

RUMOR PERSISTS

Roosevelt Silent, But Capital Hears Frankfurter to Get Court.

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A belief persisted in some congressional quarters today that President Roosevelt would appoint Prof. Felix Frankfurter to Harvard to the supreme court, although the chief executive told his press conference he had reached no final decision on any new appointments.

INJURED ON BUS

Passenger Suffers Broken Leg in Accident Near Ashland.

ASHLAND—One of 16 persons riding in an All-American transcontinental sleeper bus was injured when the bus ran into a ditch five miles east of here on U. S. route 42 at 1:30 p. m. Tuesday, when the driver avoided striking an automobile.

Miss Bess Brewster, 22, of Muskogee, Okla., a passenger, suffered a broken right knee. Miss Brewster was taken to Samaritan hospital here when her condition was reported as "good" today. Other passengers suffered from shock and abrasions.

Riding in the bus were 13 passengers, two drivers and one porter. Deputy Sheriff M. S. Richenbrod said the accident occurred when the bus driver, Charles Seineberg, 38, of St. Louis, drove the bus into a ditch on the left side of the highway to avoid hitting a machine driven by Mrs. John P. Eaton, 43, of Bay Village, as she made a left hand turn in front of the bus.

The bus turned over on its side and only a small embankment prevented it from turning completely over, Richenbrod said.

GIVES PREVIEW IN NEW YORK

Westinghouse Displays 1939 Products for Utility Heads and Editors.

The new Westinghouse refrigerators and ranges for 1939 will be displayed at the annual preview Thursday afternoon at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel in New York, with officials and department heads from the Mansfield Westinghouse plant in charge of the showing.

The preview was to get under way today with sessions of the utility syndicate at the hotel as a prelude to the actual display of new models.

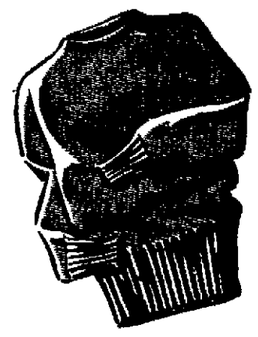
Trade magazine editors and representatives from important publications have been invited to attend the preview tomorrow.

Attending the showing from the Mansfield Westinghouse plant are F. B. Williams, jr., vice president in charge of merchandising: R. E. Imhoff, sales manager; R. C. Cosgrove, manager of the household refrigeration department; W. J. Russell, engineering department manager; Mrs. Julia Kiene, director of the home economics section; Reese Mills, manager of the range and water heater department; J. G. Baird, sales promotion manager; V. E. Vining, director of department store sales; Roger Bolin, manager of merchandise advertising; W. H. Thompson, director of utility sales; R. O. Richards, publicity department, and L. L. Shawber, manager of laundry equipment department.

GREEN'S SISTER DIES

COSHOCTON—(U.P.)—Mrs. Henry Waltner, 61, sister of William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, died here Tuesday of cerebral hemorrhage after an illness of nine weeks.

Start the New Year on a
NEW ROYAL TYPEWRITER
WORLDS NO. 1 Writing Machine
With MAGIC Margins
Remember Royal Pays a Dividend. From 2 to 75 per cent more efficient than the ordinary typewriter Compare the work. ASK FOR A FREE DEMONSTRATION IN YOUR OFFICE.
J. F. ORR TYPEWRITER CO.
OHIO THEATER BLDG. CANAL 2310



Smart Sports ACCESSORIES
(As Featured In Esquire)
Goldsmith's are headquarters for correct furnishings that add to your enjoyment of all winter sports. Here are just a few:
McGregor Sweaters . . $2.95 up
New Bush Coats . . . . $3.95 up
Winter Polo Shirts $1.00
Crew Neck or Collar Attached Styles, All Colors
Goldsmith's
48 North Main St.

The drink everybody knows
Whoever you are . . . whatever you do . . . wherever you may be, . . . when you think of refreshment you welcome an ice-cold Coca-Cola. For Coca-Cola is pure refreshment—familiar to everybody.
THE MANSFIELD COCA-COLA BOTTLING CO.

Now! Amazing Savings In ROGERS Great JANUARY CLEARANCE
1/4·1/3·1/2 OFF
On Finest Diamonds, Watches And Other Quality Jewelry WATCHES
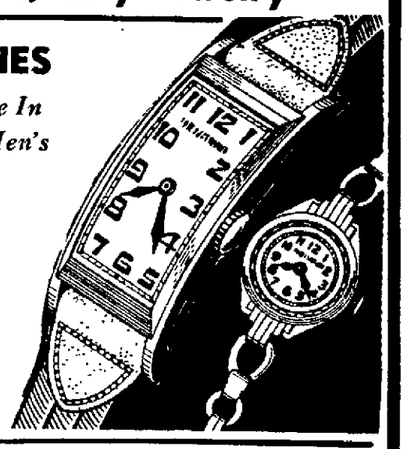
Newest Style In Ladies' or Men's
Reg. $19.75, Now
$12.50
Smartest, new 1939 styles, guaranteed movement. An unusual value.
Pay 50c a Week



Diamond Solitaire
Reg. $37.50
Value, Now $24.75
A lovely creation, in newest yellow gold mounting. A value that only Rogers can offer.
Cash or Charge

NEW BRIDAL PAIR
Reg. $75
Value, Now $59.50
A striking new design. Six side diamonds enhance the beauty of the large, center diamond. Seven diamonds in the smart wedding band.
Pay $1.00 a Week
The Diamond Store of Mansfield
MEET ROGERS NEAR RAMONDS
ROGERS & CO
Square Deal Jewelers
25 NORTH MAIN ST.
It Takes Only 5 Minutes to Open an Account at Rogers

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

Mansfield News-Journal

THE MANSFIELD NEWS AND MANSFIELD JOURNAL

AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER

The Mansfield News Founded by W. S. Cappeller, March 7, 1885. Published Daily Except Sunday by Mansfield Journal Co. Office: Fourth and Walnut, Mansfield, Ohio. Phone Canal 4251.

Entered at Postoffice at Mansfield, Ohio, as second-class mail matter.

National Advertising Representatives—Tenney, Woodward & Co., Inc., New York, Chicago, Cleveland, Detroit, Boston, Kansas City, Atlanta, San Francisco, Los Angeles.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES—By Mail: Richland and adjoining counties per year, $4.00; 6 months, $2.25; 3 months, $1.25, (in advance), elsewhere in Ohio per year, $6.00; in U. S. outside of Ohio, per year, $7.00. By Carrier, per week, 18c.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 4, 1939.

Big words are sometimes used to conceal small ideas.

It's a fine thing tc be in favor of some of the "isms"—such as optimism, patriotism and Americanism.

Now that there is to be a brief interval before another Christmas season, various counterparts of Mr. Scrooge may be expected to resume normalcy.

Wings Over America.

TALK of creating a fighting air force of 10,000 planes, or maybe 13,000, with the necessary factories, fields, mechanics and flyers to make them effective, is rather startling.

That would be aerial fighting power corresponding to what Nazi Germany is supposed to have, or a little more. It would be much larger than the present British and French air power combined.

The country can do it, and will do it if the need or the wisdom of such a spectacular undertaking is shown. But congress may be somewhat Missourian—not about the need of a stronger and more modern air defense, but about the need of one so large as President Roosevelt has been suggesting.

We do not want to be caught as we were in the World war, when in spite of our huge efforts and expenditure we had to depend on allied airplanes; but neither do we want to turn the country upside down to produce twice as many planes as we need, and have most of them obsolete by the time the program is completed.

A reasonable view might be that we should train a big force of flyers and mechanics, perhaps double our present air force, and make sure that we have factory capacity for quantity production of the most modern fighting craft in case of emergency.

Clamping Down on Agitators.

THE Swiss, writes an American in Switzerland to a friend in this country, are getting tough. Their policy of free speech is being altered to meet new conditions created by Nazi agitators in their midst.

"Germans who are caught agitating for annexation are now kicked out of the country. The Nazi organ, Der Stuermer, is not allowed to enter the country.

"The Swiss student organizations, political clubs, etc., are demanding in louder and louder voices that Switzerland get genuinely tough with all Nazis.

"The trouble is that some Germans who live here and have lived here for three generations without applying for citizenship have an idealized picture of Germany not founded on present conditions. They used to be able to spout about the glories of Deutschland—but now they are being silenced."

Free democracies, recognizing the fundamental importance of free speech, do not like to curtail such freedom for any cause. There is a growing realization, however, that Nazi and Fascist methods are so completely alien to all freedom that they must be fought with fire.

Many Applicants for Police Jobs.

THERE is a great deal of unemployment, to be sure, but that alone could not account for the fact that there are 80,000 men in New York City trying to get onto the police force. That many applications have been received by the civil service commission for competitive examinations looking to the appointment of additional patrolmen.

A surprising number of these applicants are college graduates, and thousands of them have a high school education.

It is evident that high-grade men, in New York and other cities, large and small, regard public work nowadays not merely as a job, done for the day's wages, but as a public-service career. And that is exactly what it is—a career calling continually for better preparation and higher qualities of mind and character, as city life and its problems of civic order, traffic control, and crime grow more complex and difficult. It takes real ability and high character nowadays to make a good policeman.

Futile Appeasement.

THE new Fascists," writes Walter Lippmann in the New York Herald Tribune, "must press on for victories in order to make the Rome-Berlin axis palatable to the Italian nation." The Italians are tired of serving Germany and want some victories for themselves. And the Nazis must keep on winning "And so, there is little reason to expect that the dictators will, or that they can, help Mr. Chamberlain to make his policy of appeasement look even for a little while as if it were successful."

Americans read this with misgivings as Prime Minister Chamberlain prepares to visit Mussolini in Rome, and a large section of the British public will be holding its breath. The big questions on both sides of the Atlantic will be, "What will Mr. Chamberlain give away this time?" and "What will he get for it?"

Belated Help for China.

THAT "Bank of China," to which American credit facilities for food and war supplies are being extended, is a curious institution. Nobody seems to know where it is just now. The Chinese government has had to jump around so much in the last year or two that it is hard to be definite about such things.

It may be assumed, however, that there really is such a financial institution still functioning. And it has an honorable history—it has never failed to pay.

Anyway, the credits proposed by our government seem safe enough, for they are based on a gold reserve painfully built up in this country by the Chinese government and people. The $135,000,000 said to be standing to their credit probably represents millions of small gifts from a harassed and impoverished people.

Incidentally it should be observed that Great Britain and the Bank of England are involved in this belated co-operation with China.

"Always steer the car in the direction of the skid," says the book of rules—but the car is sometimes stubborn at times like that.

Watching Trends

—By PRESTON GROVER

WASHINGTON—President Roosevelt never has attempted to pacify business by backing away, and the appointment of Harry Hopkins as secretary of commerce indicates he isn't going to begin now.

More to the point, Hopkins was appointed to the commerce cabinet post so business could pacify itself about Hopkins. That is perhaps reason number one. Reason number two is that the president now will have as his principal business contact agent a man whose ideas parallel his own and in whom he places far more confidence than ever he did in the retiring secretary, Daniel Roper. Reason number three may be that if Hopkins ever is to become presidential timber, he must be severed from WPA, which is likely to be a withering branch from now on and certainly will be subject to a withering fire from inquisitorial congressional independents.

It is doubtful if Roper, though personally loyal to the president to the nth degree, ever understood the New Deal. For that reason he couldn't bring about even a semblance of rapprochement. Outsiders as well as insiders knew he didn't speak the New Deal dialect and didn't have the ear of the president.

• • •

Contacts Came Back Way.

THE net result was that government contacts with business came not through commerce, as should be expected, but through the Federal Reserve, and various individuals in the treasury and the Securities and Exchange commission. At best it was contact by remote control.

With Hopkins as commerce secretary, business will meet the New Deal through him.

It will meet an administrator who in 30 days put 4,000,000 men to work in 48 states with a Washington staff that could hide in a corner segment of the huge commerce building. He can speak in bigger figures than Morgan or Rockefeller. On the other hand, hard crusted business executives who fought their way to the top through grime and poverty might well remember that at one time Hopkins said:

"Poverty has not one redeeming quality. I simply do not believe people grow by suffering. I have seen courage among the poor, yes, but I have seen no one thriving on poverty."

• • •

Mind Like President's.

HE HAS a mind as supple as the president's, and as mobile. That is why the president likes him.

He once said the federal government would be out of the relief business in a few years, now predicts it never will be, fully. He hates the dole, and brought a storm of ridicule upon his head by advocating even "leaf raking" projects to provide work.

"They had men in the streets of New Orleans raking leaves back and forth until they wore them out," jibed the late Senator Huey Long.

• • •

Pushed Intervention.

BUT the same man who kept his own administration decentralized was always identified with those presidential advisors forever whooping up the idea of extended federal intervention in industrial relations

One thing is likely to prove a healthy certainty. Business and industrial leaders who could bombard him as WPA administrator, now will have to treat him as the government's mouthpiece on business relations. And when they tackle Hopkins they will know they are in contact with the New Deal itself, for next to the president himself, he is the most complete embodiment of it.

His job now will not be to put 4,000,000 men to work in 30 days. It will be to implore, to stimulate and to co-operate with business to put that many to work in industry as soon as possible. And a lot of smoke will have to be blown out of the eyes both of business and Mr. Hopkins before that can be undertaken.

Looking Back

TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Saturday, Jan. 4, 1919.

Health Officer Guy T. Goodman advised that hospital should be provided for cases of contagious disease.

Edwin D. Ford was chosen as county chairman for sale of War Savings Stamps.

Miss Bertha Mount and Virgil F. Baker were married by Rev. J. T. LeGear.

Miss Zenatta Sherman was injured by being struck by street car on Main street near Fourth.

Mifflin township property owners sought improvement of the Wooster road to the Ashland county line.

FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY

Thursday, Jan. 4, 1934.

Son was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Northrup, 15 Junction street; and a son to Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Holdren, Bellville, at General hospital.

Condition of Paul Radabaugh, 47 Pleasant avenue, who was seriously ill at his home, was reported improving.

Operating costs of Mansfield increased $8,000 for the ensuing year under amount approved by appropriations committee.

Bryan D. Styert, manager of the Richland county federal re-employment office, was transferred to Columbus and O. R. Hoppe named in his place.

HOBSON'S CHOICE!

Landon's Course Wins Approval

—By CHARLES P. STEWART

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Next to Secretary of State Cordell Hull it is clear that Alfred M. Landon did more than any other single member of the Yankee delegation at the recent Pan-American conference toward making a reasonable, even if a slightly qualified, success of the gathering in Lima, Peru.

Alfred Landon

Hull, Landon and associates did not get quite all they went after but they got fully a fair share of it. The southern republics heartily agreed with Uncle Sam that all hands are a unit in opposing anybody's interference with their various western hemispherical interests and independencies.

The only thing that Hull, Landon & Co. wanted but failed to include in the New World countries' joint declaration of principles was a specific expression of hostility to OUTSIDE interference in their affairs—of course particularly meaning interference by Germany, Italy or Japan.

Maybe it was just as well, in a way, that the declaration did not specify with unmistakable particularity. As Senator Robert R. Reynolds remarks, hatred is unprofitable; it is injurious to the hater, but not necessarily injurious to the hate-ee. A lot of us surely do hate Hitler and Mussolini. Still, is it desirable to put it formally on record?

The really unpleasant implication is that some of our Latin New Worldings consider that we (the U. S. A.) may yet try to be as domineering over them as Germany, Italy and Japan doubtless would like to be. Hence they remain a bit suspicious of us, too, in voicing disapproval of outside interference in their affairs they hint at a recollection that we have been interfering outsiders in Latin America several times in the past.

Argentine Suspicions.

Argentina was the outspokenly suspicious republic.

Her Lima delegates said frankly:

"To be sure, Uncle Samuel is a good neighbor now, but how can we be certain that he will stay so?"

I cannot but sympathize with a modicum of this skepticism.

We took Texas and considerable adjoining territory away from Mexico. We have a Vera Cruz landing to our discredit. We deprived Colombia of Panama. Admiral Robley Evans said, referring to the Chileans, "If they fire on my ships all hell will smell of garlic"—a most undiplomatic utterance. We have had marines ashore in Nicaragua, Cuba, Haiti and Santo Domingo.

And the cantankerous Argentines?

Why, when the United States entered the World war, Argentina saw fit to remain neutral—which was its privilege. However, a United States war squadron under Admiral Caperton was ordered to make the rounds of southern ports, to give an appearance of Pan-American solidarity. It was all right at Rio de Janeiro and Montevideo, for Brazil and Uruguay were official belligerents, though not active. Argentina objected, being neutral. Nevertheless Caperton's squadron stayed at Buenos Aires for a fortnight, forcibly fracturing Argentine neutrality.

My, but the Argentinos were angry! They were not so pro-German, either. In those war days I saw riots in which German shops were sacked in Buenos Aires. Besides, Germany's ambassador there made himself obnoxious and the government interned him on an island in the Rio de la Plata.

Hull's Gentle System.

Secretary Hull could have wrecked that Lima conference and foreclosed all future Pan-American conferences by assuming an unyielding attitude toward the Argentine. He did not do it, thereby winning the whole outfit.

And Landon backed him perfectly.

It was a stroke of genius, putting that Kansan on our Lima delegation.

It would not have been, if Landon had not proved to be so ideal a selection. But he did. He could not have been improved on. The contrary-wise-ness of his political partisanship anomalously was exactly what was needed to solidify Uncle Sam's position at the Lima conference.

The beaten candidate at the last presidential election, could completely have crabbed the game at Lima, had he elected to do so.

Instead he made a corking success of it.

He comes back a wonder at the game of inter-American diplomacy.

That conference has made him a bigger man than he was as a presidential candidate.

You and Your Nation's Affairs

What Is Ahead for Business?

By ERNEST M. PATTERSON
President, American Academy of Political and Social Science.

At this time of each year we are flooded with business forecasts. Press associations and other organizations solicit and receive the judgments of men of affairs and economists who are asked to peer into the immediate future.

It is easy to deride this crystal-gazing and of course many of the forecasts are later shown to have been absurd. Yet we must make them. A business man is compelled to plan ahead and, by comparing judgments of others and by adjusting them to the facts of his own business, it is possible for him to decide more wisely.

If we examine the domestic situation there seem clearly to be grounds for optimism. The stock market is hesitant but this is presumably due in part to tax sales, though it is, of course, not possible to know the amount of such selling. It is only seldom that any but the parties to such sales can know that they really exist.

Steel is operating on a larger scale and even the hard-pressed railroads are showing an increased volume of traffic. Contracts for building construction are larger. The general business indexes show gains. In fact, the outlook as a whole seems distinctly favorable.

But optimism should be very definitely held in check because of conditions abroad. We are not isolated from other countries and for almost countless reasons we cannot be. The most immediate evidence is the weakness of foreign currencies and the foreign market is a sensitive barometer. Pounds, francs, guilders and other currencies persistently move downward.

The loudly proclaimed, though unofficial, demands of Italy against France are the immediate issue. But they are only a reminder that in the field of international affairs the fundamental problems have not been solved.

In fact, they have to all appearances not been touched. A new grouping of forces is under way and as yet none of us dares to forecast the outcome. For the moment there is nervousness lest the long dreaded world war may be on us during 1939.

To American business this is serious. Most Americans and many Europeans will be reluctant to maintain large balances in Europe and will try to shift them to the United States. These movements, together with other influences, depress the quotations for pounds, francs, and other foreign moneys. This discourages exports and encourages imports. Incoming funds are partly in the form of monetary gold and our holdings are now nearly $14,500,000,000 with excess bank reserves at a new high.

Moreover this world uncertainty has given strength to the movement for enlarged armaments. This stimulates some lines of business but we must face the cost which will reach us in the form of higher taxes.

Moreover some of the current stimulus is due to enlarged government spending which will ultimately be reduced. Unfortunately there is little or no reason to believe that these outlays will really "prime the pump," no matter how much we may approve them on other grounds.

Restrained optimism is all that is warranted. Thoughtful business men will move cautiously, guarding carefully against large long term commitments.

Grab Bag

One-Minute Test.

1. Why was Ellis Island so named?

2. What period of time is a millenium?

3. Can an alien get naturalization papers in the United States if he refuses to bear arms in defense of this country in case of war?

Words of Wisdom.

For virtue's self may too much zeal be had; the worst of madness is a saint run mad.—Pope.

One-Minute Test Answers.

1. It was owned by one Samuel Ellis in 1785.

2. One thousand years.

3. The supreme court has ruled that one who will not take this oath does not meet the requirements for citizenship.

Listen, World!

What Price "Tumbleweed"?

—By ELSIE ROBINSON

WHAT'S wrong—and getting wronger fast—with America?

"OUR TUMBLEWEED AMERICANS!" says a thoughtful young citizen, George Cox of Oklahoma City. "Consider their life pattern—or lack of it—and I believe you'll find that basic cause of our economic, social and moral degeneration."

Have you ever met the unique vegetable to which friend George refers? Then read his description and you'll speedily appreciate his Wise Mouthful.

"The tumbleweed—like its human equivalent—grows in shallow soil, has feeble roots. Its growth is quick and lush. But, having reached maturity, it does not stay to enrich the soil which has fed it nor does it bring forth a rich harvest. Instead, its short, brittle roots snap at the first puff of air, and off it goes, rolling before any wind . . . and, worse yet, dropping its worthless seeds over countless acres to repeat its aimless life-pattern.

"And the thing that is happening, in vegetable form, to the western prairies, is happening to the whole nation, but in human form and in far more tragic fashion. Unlike the tumbleweed, we Americans can choose our destinies. We can—if we so will—sink deep roots into fertile soil, anchor ourselves and bring forth good harvests of fine thought and deed . . . just as our forefathers did through their struggles and sacrifice. But how many will make the struggle or sacrifice?

"INSTEAD WE'RE BECOMING A NATION OF HUMAN TUMBLEWEEDS . . . EASILY UPROOTED BY ANY CHANCE SHOCK OR DESIRE . . . DRIFTING BEFORE ANY PASSING IMPULSE . . . ROLLING ALONG WITHOUT PLAN OR PURPOSE . . . SPREADING THE PATTERN OF OUR OWN FUTILE RESTLESSNESS WHEREVER WE GO."

George Cox, age 26,
Oklahoma City, Okla.

"Tumbleweed Americans" . . . never have you heard and never will you hear a more apt description of what ails this country today. Time was, in America, when a Drifter was considered a shiftless, shameless outcast—and nothing else but! RESPECTABLE PEOPLE STAYED PUT . . . THAT WAS THE LAW. There was no such thing as having both our self respect and swapping it for gasoline . . . in those predepression days. You were either a Pillar of Society or a Plain Bum.

Human nature being what it is, it wasn't, admittedly, as much fun to stick around, do your job, pay your way and raise your family as it was to follow the gypsy trail. But that was how respectable folk had behaved since this nation began. And if you desired your neighbor's or your own esteem, you followed the law. Or faced extremely embarrassing consequences.

Then, suddenly, all these ancient prejudices, and punishments relaxed their grip, became as obsolete as Gramma's bustle. Some blamed it on the Machine Age . . . the Market Crash . . . the Master Minds. Whatever the cause, overnight, we lost our contempt for playboys and parasites, panhandlers and moochers. Where once we had boasted of GO-GETTERS, we now produced THE GIMME GANG. Two legged Tumbleweeds without a blush in a carful! For grafting was no longer considered a humiliating racket . . . it had become an accepted social practice.

I do believe that it's up to us . . . both as individuals and voting citizens . . . to do something about this TUMBLEWEED MENACE. There are, today, tumbleweeds in everyone's pocketbook . . . and everyone's hair! Nor are they any longer doing this with shame in their hearts or contemptuous glares from their neighbors . . .

Tumbleweed humans . . . aimless American gypsies, from 16 to 60 . . . shallow-rooted . . . drifting before any passing impulse . . . at the mercy of any disturbing desire . . . restless and unreliable, yet holding America's future in their hands . . . and branding America's future with their own restlessness and unreliability . . . WHAT PRICE AMERICA'S TUMBLEWEEDS?

(Copyright, 1939)

As Others See It

Suggestion.

Undesirable aliens are uninvited guests. They leave a country they don't like to come here and disturb the good time we are having at our party. What this country needs is a bouncer.—Toledo Blade.

Daily Bible Thought

TEST YOUR SINCERITY: If ye be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.—Col. 3:1.

TODAY IN HISTORY

Utah was admitted into the Union on January 4, 1896.

A Farmer's Diary

Country School.

—By CALVIN A. BYERS

OCCASIONALLY, in isolated places, one still can see an old-fashioned country school. I walked into one, recently, down in the hills, and felt that time had turned back to earlier days.

The frame building was of box car type, with three shuttered windows on each side. The front entrance opened into a vestibule, with shelves on which were placed the pails and dinner baskets of the students, their wraps beneath. That warm, never-to-be-forgotten odor combined of chalk, smoke, books and perspiring youth came forth to greet me.

The schoolmaster was a man of 40. He looked the part of "wielder of birch and rule." His kind, none-too-ambitious face was bordered by bushy locks of iron gray hair. His clothes were worn and fitted poorly . . . perhaps, I thought, the best his salary would permit.

On one side, double seats were still in use, their tops scarred with jackknife lines, hearts and names. Only a hint of the original varnish remained. In the rear seats sat the larger boys, some 18 years of age. The young children sat toward the front. They were a bashful, sturdy, watchful group.

They sang for me. Their singing was lusty and inspiring. Some of the boys had voices of excellent quality, and the harmony they made was surprising. I said so. "We all like to sing," said the teacher, "so we do lots of it. It seems to me more song is what this country needs."

The master called a seventh grade spelling class, which stood in a long row near the platform. The second word was missed by everyone until it reached a youngster at the foot, who spelled it right, and walked proudly up to second place.

The fifth reader class recited poetry and read from the old McGuffey readers which the teacher had upon his desk. It pleased me much to find those good old books still used. They fill a wholesome, treasured spot in the memories of my generation.

Country schools are out-of-date. What the country has lost in social centers, now that its children are bused to town, the villages and cities have gained.

Man About Manhattan

—By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—Dear Curt and Alma Booker, Beaumont, Texas: Thank you so much for the mayhaw jelly. It was elegant. I couldn't believe my eyes when I saw it, but I believed my palate after tasting it. When I was a boy in a southern town I used to find mayhaws in the swamps. You'd shake the trees and the little haws would fall into the water and float, like little apples. And if you wanted them you scooped them off the water and took them home. All that came back when I opened the package. It was one of the nicest surprises I ever had, and to show you how I felt about it, I hitched your name to a coin and tossed it into a wishing well.

Dear L. W. Marvin, Lakeland, Fla.: Thank you so much for the crate of grapefruit, oranges, and tangerines. They made the whole house smell good. When I was a boy in a southern town we used to have oranges too. They grew in everybody's yard, just like the roses and cape jassamine, and while all of them were good, the ones on the other side of the fence always seemed the sweetest. What I am leading up to is that the worst licking I ever got as a kid was for climbing the fence and sampling the ones on the other side.

• • •

DEAR Fay Thomas, Carter Hotel, Cleveland, Ohio: Thank you so much for that nice monogrammed cigarette lighter. It came in handier than you imagine, and here's how. I attended a stag party the other night and learned that my talents for bluffing two pairs past a royal flush were somewhat remiss, and consequently when the meeting adjourned your lighter was the only thing left in my pockets. So I hocked it for a dollar, had a cup of coffee and a taxi ride home. But I'll redeem it, come a day when I have a dollar.

Dear Mapuana Bishaw, Honolulu, Hawaii: Thank you so much for those wonderful tropic preserves. I seldom have been so pleasantly surprised. Imagine opening a box in New York that came all the way from an island in the Pacific. That's 6,000 miles. Most of them were new to me, but their names were familiar. When I was a boy in a southern town I used to dream of being a sailor and finding myself shipwrecked on some glamorous island. I must have had Hawaii in mind. Anyway, my mouth started watering then and it's been watering ever since.

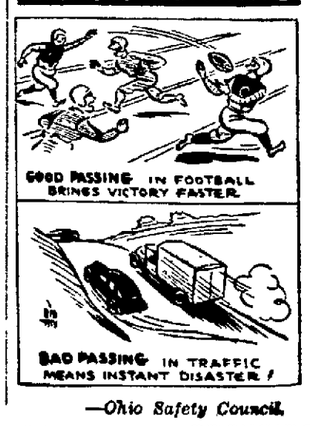
• • •

THE sale of the 6th avenue "El" is likely to have a more pronounced effect on New York's appearance than anything short of a bombing. Long an eye-sore, it has crawled like a dirty alley between Fifth avenue, world's most capitalistic street, and Seventh avenue.

Now with the "El" on its way out the sunlight can break through, rents will go up, forcing out pawnshops, second-hand magazine stores, untidy restaurants and other inferior establishments which clutter the street and make it something that looks like a cut of London's limehouse.

The change won't come over night. It'll be months before the gloomy hood of the elevated tracks can be removed, and the street repaved. But the face-lifting operation is underway. The only part of it I hate to see go is the second-hand book stall where once I found a 150-year-old volume of "The Spectator," which I bought for a dime.

SAFETY SONNETS



—Ohio Safety Council.

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®
NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®